As always, I really enjoy, value, and respect your intellect and wisdom on the technology side. Because of you we have probably made close to $5,000 off of INVN and we are not done yet. We will now be looking at ARMH.
PS – until you came along, I had not heard of INVN.
Many thanks again, Michael.

Thank you for your investing tip, Michael. The day you published this I bought some $7.50 February calls, and so far I have a 63% gain in 6 days! But I see much more upside to this. This stock has been going up like crazy.
I was able to cash in some of my calls on Invensense which you also posted about some months ago. On this one I've had gains of 85% and 110% ! You do have a good eye.
