There is no scent...Yeah

I am really sensitive to scents and develop blistered hands from some soaps.
This is non irritating and foams well.

Just okay

Reviewed in the United States on April 4, 2022

All bottles arrived intact with no leaks and in good condition. They function just fine. I just don't care for the consistency of the foam itself: it's very light and I'm not convinced it's actually cleaning, so I usually double wash when using this soap. For that reason alone I wouldn't buy this one again. For comparison I really enjoy the thick foam produced my Target's Up and Up brand foaming soap. It actually feels like it's cleaning when I wash my hands.

Not actually fragrance free

Reviewed in the United States on April 8, 2022

I spent so long researching fragrance free antibacterial soaps and this seemed legit until it arrived and I read the ingredients... it has fragrance. I have sensitive skin and needed something specifically antibacterial at the recommendation of my doctor for daily care of a skin condition. Pretty disappointed in this item. Please list actual ingredients, active or not, in the description.

THERE IS FRAGRANCE IN IT!!!!

Everything in the reviews, packaging and everywhere on the bottle says "fragrance free! Hypoallergenic!" AND THERES FRAGRANCE IN THIS. I am allergic to fragrance and cannot use this so if you are the same, DO NOT BUY THIS. How can you say fragrance free, but there's actual fragrance in it?! I obviously have to deal with returning now.

NOT fragrance free

Dial advertises fragrance free on the front of the bottle, but fragrance is listed in the inactive ingredients on the back of the bottle. Glad I caught it before my daughter with eczema used this. Disappointing.
