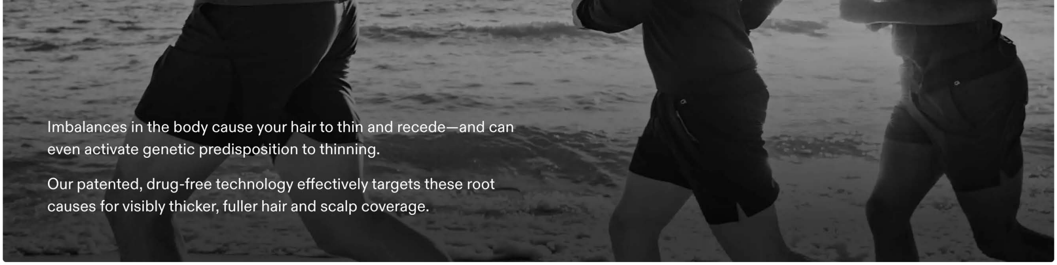
TARGET 6 KEY ROOT CAUSES OF THINNING.



Imbalances in the body cause your hair to thin and recede—and can even activate genetic predisposition to thinning.

Our patented, drug-free technology effectively targets these root causes for visibly thicker, fuller hair and scalp coverage.

ROOT CAUSES

EFFECTS

HOW WE TARGET

- 01 • HORMONES
- 02 • STRESS
- 03 • LIFESTYLE
- 04 • METABOLISM
- 05 • AGING
- 06 • NUTRITION

Genetic predisposition can increase your sensitivity to DHT (dihydrotestosterone), a hormone known to cause hair follicles to shrink—leading to progressive hair thinning.

We use Saw Palmetto to reduce the conversion of testosterone to DHT.

WHAT HAPPENS TO YOUR HAIR IS NOT ALWAYS DECIDED AT BIRTH. WE'VE SEEN THE RESULTS OURSELVES.

Our own experience with hair loss was stressful and scary. Prescription drug treatments led to unwanted side effects. Topical wellness alternatives were ineffective. We felt helpless. We wanted a natural and effective way to take control of our hair growth. So we made one.

A busy lifestyle can lead to chronic stress, a root cause shown to make hair follicles shift from a growth state to a rest state. If not addressed, the follicle receives a signal to prematurely stop growing, compromising your hair health and resulting in excess shedding.

We're the only hair supplement that uses Sensoril® Ashwagandha to balance elevated cortisol (stress hormone) and help you build resistance to stress.

EFFECTS

Through a process called oxidative stress, lifestyle triggers—like a poor diet and alcohol consumption—damage the hair follicles and weaken their ability to produce and grow hair.

HOW WE TARGET

We use Tocotrienol Complex, a concentrated form of Vitamin E (a super antioxidant), and Resveratrol to fight against environmental stress and improve hair density.

Changes in metabolism—whether from diet, inflammation, or aging—leave your body with less energy to power healthy hair growth.

HOW WE TARGET

We use Curcumin—the most active compound in Turmeric—which promotes a healthy inflammatory response to support cellular metabolism, and Kelp Minerals, a sea vegetable rich in minerals known to support hair growth by improving metabolism.

01 • HORMONES 02 • STRESS 03 • LIFESTYLE 04 • METABOLISM 05 • AGING 06 • NUTRITION	The aging process is unavoidable, and we begin to notice its effects in our 20s. As it pertains to hair, aging causes a structural breakdown of the scalp, eliminating key components that protect, hydrate, and replenish nutrients needed for strong hair growth.	Marine Collagen Peptides provide the building blocks of strong hair fibers. We use them to help reduce the signs of aging and deliver hydration to the scalp.

The body requires nourishment via proper nutrients—nutrients that power the hair follicle and are needed to build hair. These can be depleted by a poor diet or microbiome imbalance, affecting hair's strength and overall health.

Horsetail provides silica to promote hair strength while Keratin—a form of protein that mimics Keratin in the body—helps to support damaged hair.
