Empowering women everywhere

"When L'BRI came into my life I could have never imagined how much my life and the lives of others would change. My business has empowered me to improve myself and help others along the way – and most importantly – never give up. Anything is possible with consistency, hard work, dedication and knowing what you're working for! There is nothing better than knowing L'BRI has given your family more options and making lasting memories. The most rewarding part about L'BRI is knowing I am helping others, making lasting friendships with the beautiful women on my team, and inspiring others to dream and set goals. There truly is nothing more uplifting!"

I am filled with so much gratitude for every blessing and excited to see where my L'BRI journey takes me."

Finding a healthy alternative

"My reason for starting with L'BRI was because I am allergic to chemicals used as preservatives in other products. So much so that I went into anaphylaxis, so it's very serious for me. I found L'BRI and shared it with my family and friends. I never expected to take it any further than that. But as time went on, circumstances in life caused me to look at what I was doing and to see the incredible opportunity that L'BRI is giving to me."

Finding a new purpose

"I was unable to return to my job as an investment banker after multiple heart surgeries. I was put on disability largely due to the after-effects of being sedentary for so long and having extreme fatigue. I missed working, seeing my work friends and having clients who look to me for advice. L'BRI saved me! I am able to work as much as I feel comfortable and make an income to subsidize my disability without dipping into savings. I have new friends, clients, a business I love and am proud of....a purpose!"

Helping others makes for a happy heart

"My L'BRI journey was only supposed to start and stop at signing up for the discounted products. Being a wife, mother of two young children, and a career 911 Dispatcher, I would have never thought I would have the time to work L'BRI like a business. After family, friends, and co-workers noticed changes in my skin they wanted to know what I was doing and how I was doing it - and that is where it all started for me. Every day I receive messages and photographs about how L'BRI has helped people in so many different ways and with that, I continue to fill my heart with happiness and stay motivated to reach out to more people."

Freedom to go where life leads you

"If you would have told me last year that I was going to start a business debt-free, meet hundreds of amazing people, go to Europe and Maui, I would have said you were crazy! But that is exactly what has happened! With L'BRI I'm given the means to show love, truly help people, and see lives and skin change for the better. I am grateful to be able to succeed in spite of health issues. Having the freedom to set a schedule so I can work at my own pace is a huge blessing! Thank you L'BRI for giving me the opportunity to grow and develop life skills in such a loving, fun, beautiful way!"

Our Founders VISION

Linda and Brian Kaminski started L'BRI because they wanted to make a difference. Their passion for offering natural, safe, healthy and affordable skin care to others has inspired and helped so many to achieve their dreams. Hear their story.
