What's included in a deep cleaning service?

A deep cleaning normally includes at least your kitchen and bathroom, and may include every room in your home. There's no one size fits all for a deep cleaning service and it's up to you which rooms and items are cleaned. Simply discuss your needs with your cleaner before they start. Most people opt to have these rooms and chores included in a deep cleaning service.

BOOK A DEEP CLEANING

The big benefits of a deep cleaning service

Deep cleaning your home is good for both your physical and mental well-being. Removing built up dust, pet hair, and bacteria helps to maintain a hygiene home for you and your family. Tidying up and removing clutter is beneficial for your mind as it makes your home a more pleasant place to relax and shelters your to-do list.

Every home can benefit from a deep cleaning

Regardless of how regularly you clean, every home needs a deep clean at least once a year. Dry grime and residue build up in hard to reach places, and can include dust, pet hair, cobwebs, and bacteria on around frames and under crumbs. Booking a deep cleaning service through Homeaglow ensure your home is as clean as it can be.

Try mixing deep cleaning into your cleaning schedule

It is not necessary to deep clean every room in your home at once. A smart approach is to deep clean just one room when you book a cleaning service so that you can maintain a clean home throughout the year. For example, when you book your monthly cleaning service, you can request your cleaner to deep clean the kitchen. Or your cleaner will be deep cleaning by the end of the year, but you only need to invest time in a single, lengthy deep cleaning service.

What you'll need for a deep cleaning service

If you deep clean your home yourself, you'll need a long list of deep cleaning supplies. See our deep cleaning checklist for what's included. When you book a cleaner through Homeaglow, they bring all the supplies and equipment needed to deep clean your home, so you don't need to think about it. Simply book a cleaner and they'll take care of the rest.

Homes with pets need to be deep cleaned more often

If you have a pet, we recommend deep cleaning your home more often. Pets aren't quite as hygienic as humans and leave behind dirt, dander, and hair. Pet hair, in particular, is difficult to remove and can be a nuisance for people with allergies along with potentially spreading diseases and worms in your home. Regular deep cleaning ensures that these bacteria and dirt can stay away from your home, and that fleas and ticks flee your pet. When you book your cleaner, let Homeaglow know that you have a pet so they can plan your deep cleaning service accordingly.

Deep cleaning FAQ

How often should I book a deep cleaning service?
How often you should deep clean your home depends on how often you do smaller cleanings between deep cleanings and whether you have a pet. If you don't clean regularly or have a pet, then aim for a deep cleaning every 3 or 4 months. Otherwise, once every 6 or 12 months is enough.

What's included in a deep cleaning service?
What is included in a deep cleaning service depends on your home. You can either focus on your kitchen and bathroom, or go all out and have every room deep cleaned. You know your home best and what needs to be cleaned.

How long does a deep cleaning service take?
The length of a deep cleaning service depends on the number of rooms to be cleaned and the level of detail. Discuss what you'd like to achieve with your cleaner before booking to be sure that they'll have enough time to deep clean everything on your wish list.

Which cleaner will do my deep cleaning? −

When you book with Homeaglow, you choose which professional cleaner does your deep cleaning service. All cleaners are background-checked and certified. You can read the rating and reviews of each cleaner for peace of mind before you book.

Are cleaning supplies included in a deep cleaning? −

Cleaners booked through Homeaglow bring their own cleaning supplies and equipment. If you'd prefer that your deep cleaning service uses your products or equipment, simply let the cleaner know when you book.
