How to choose a house cleaner

When choosing a house cleaner, the most important things to consider are experience and ratings. On Homeagloe, you can see how many hours a cleaner has worked, how many cleanings they've completed, and reviews given to them by customers. Unlike other big name cleaning services, Homeagloe allows you to choose who will be cleaning your home, so you can be confident about the house cleaning service you'll receive.

The benefits of booking a house cleaner

Having a clean home can mean less mental clutter, keeping from mental exhaustion, and having more time for other things in life. Unlike other responsibilities, house cleaning can be one of the first things to fall by the wayside. Hiring a cleaner can help ease the burden, and whether you do it for 2 hours a week, 4 hours a month, or a one-time deep cleaning, you'll be glad you hired an expert. Hiring a cleaner can help ensure you have more time to spend with your family without sacrificing a clean home.

How often to book a house cleaning service

How often you choose to have your home cleaned depends on your lifestyle, your budget, and how dirty your home gets between cleans. Even pets, if you live alone, a monthly clean is likely to be sufficient. If you have a family or pets, then you'll probably need a house cleaner on a weekly or biweekly basis. Every situation is unique and you'll know what's best for you. If you need any help deciding on how often to book your home, you can also discuss it with your cleaner on Homeagloe.

House cleaning supplies and equipment included

When you book a house cleaner through Homeagloe, you don't need to worry about supplying your house cleaning equipment or stocking up on cleaning products. Cleaners on Homeagloe bring their own cleaning supplies and equipment, both of which are professional-grade. If you have a preference for the cleaner to use natural cleaning products, or equipment, let your house cleaner know in your house cleaner review when you book.
