Great coffee but one flavor not received

We love Lavazza coffee *this variety pack had flavors we have tried and a couple we haven't. The flavors on the box in the picture are NOT the flavors in the box. Unfortunately one of the flavors that was supposed to be in the box was not in there, instead the pot another one and we received NO notification about the "substitution". Called customer service because they can't take care of it in chat and they submitted an order for the missing flavor. That ordered got cancelled because the flavor is out of stock. Now we're left waiting for it to be restocked so we can get it.

Lavazza cofee

Not impressed with the coffee, the Classico is the best as it is bold and fresh. My favorites are usually the dark blends but they both come up short compared to Starbucks and others. the light roast is basically gas station coffee, i threw those out.

Poor packaging

The coffee is good but the manner in which it is sent is awful! The pods were randomly tossed into the box all flavors mixed together. We have to sort through each time we use a pod.so now there is a big box on top of our refrigerator. My husband called customer service and explained that the previous time we order this assortment they came in small boxes for each flavor. The customer service gal was of no help. We won't order this again.
