Product Description

Peet's Major Dickason's Blend Dark Roast Coffee is the roast that put Peet's Coffee on the map. A loyal customer of our original Berkeley store, retired army sergeant Kay Dickason, brought the idea for our most beloved blend to Mr. Peet in 1969. Intrigued, our founder worked with the local gourmand and coffee aficionado to refine it. They sampled countless combinations before arriving at what is now our all-time bestseller. The result was so good, Mr. Peet named it after Kay. Today, Peet's Major Dickason's Blend is a mélange of Indonesian and Latin American beans, carefully selected for their distinctive regional characteristics. Our growing regions, each imparting its distinctive regional characteristics while still effortlessly rounding into a smooth, balanced cup. Over the years, it has become the coffee that epitomizes Peet's. Flavorful, deeply roasted, and unsurprisingly satisfying. But for us, "Major D" is just like a relationship with an old friend. We'd always remember it as the story of a customer's passion, an expert's palate, and a shared love of coffee. Our pods are compatible with all single serve brewers.
