8
9 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

10 86. Jurisdiction is based upon the California Constitution Article 6, Section 10.

11 87. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to Section 395 (A) of the California Code of 12 Civil Procedure.

13
14 INTRODUCTION

15 88. The National Football League was founded as the American Professional Football
16 Association in 1920.

17 89. The American Professional Football Association changed its name to the National 18 Football League in 1922. By 1924, there were 23 franchises or teams that devised the NFL.

19 90. The American Football League operated from 1960 to 1969. In 1970, it merged with 20 the National Football League to create the American Football Conference.

21 91. Today, the National Football League consists of two structured conferences, the AFC
22 and the NFC, with 32 team members.

23 92. Each team functions as a separate business but operates under shared revenue
24 generated through broadcasting, merchandising and licensing.

25 93. The Supreme Court of the United States of America in American Needle, Inc. v. NFL,
26 et al., 130 S.Ct. 2201 (U.S. 2010), ruled that the NFL is a separate entity from each of its teams.

1 94. The NFL is by far the most attended domestic sports league in the world by average
2 attendance per game with 67,509 fans per game in the regular season (2009).

3 95. The NFL is a 9 billion dollar-a-year business.
4

5 NFL AND THE CBA

6 96. Until March of 2011, NFL players were all members of a union called the National
7 Football League Players Association ("NFLPA"). The NFLPA negotiates the general minimum
8 contract for all players in the league with the National Football League Management Council
9 ("NFLMC"). This contract is called the Collective Bargaining Agreement ("CBA") and it is the 10 central document that governs the negotiation of individual player contracts for all of the league's 11 players. However, historically, the NFL retired players have never been the subject of or a party to 12 Collective Bargaining.

13 97. The CBA had been in place since 1993 and was amended in 1998 and again in 2006.
14 The CBA was originally scheduled to expire at the end of the 2012 season but in 2008 the owners
15 exercised their right to opt-out of the agreement two years earlier. In 2011, the parties in trying to 16 negotiate a new CBA reached an impasse and the NFL owners locked the players out.
17 Subsequently, the NFLPA decertified itself as the players' representative for bargaining.

18 98. The plaintiffs herein are all retirees and not covered by the CBA nor are they a
19 subject of or parties to bargaining between the NFL and the NFLPA. Thus, the plaintiffs' claims
20 are not preempted by federal labor law since the CBA does not apply to their present claims and,
21 additionally, it does not currently exist.
22

23 CTE AND CONCUSSION INJURY

24 99. In 2002, Dr. Bennet Omalu, a forensic pathologist and neuropathologist found
25 Chronic Traumatic Encephalopathy (CTE) in the brain of Hall of Famer, Mike Webster.

26 100. By 2007, Dr. Omalu found a fourth case linking the death of a former NFL player to 27 CTE brain damage from his football career.
28

1 101. Dr. Omalu says that the brain damage he found in four ex-players who died is the
2 same condition found in punch-drunk boxers.

3 102. Around the same time, researchers without NFL ties surveyed retired football players
4 and their findings showed that players who had multiple concussions were more likely to report
5 being diagnosed with depression.

6 103. Dr. Omalu questioned "Where was the NFL when we found this disease?"

7 104. The NFL undertook the responsibility of studying concussion research in 1994
8 through funding a Committee known as the "NFL Committee on Mild Traumatic Brain Injury".

9 105. The NFL Committee on Mild Traumatic Brain Injury published their findings in 10 2004 showing "no evidence of worsening injury or chronic cumulative effects" from multiple 11 concussions. In a related study, this Committee found "many NFL players can be safely allowed to 12 return to play" on the day of a concussion if they are without symptoms and cleared by a physician.

13 106. As further evidence, Commissioner Roger Goodell in June of 2007 admitted publicly
14 that the NFL has been studying the effects of traumatic brain injury for "close to 14 years ..."

15 107. It was not until June of 2010 that the NFL acknowledged that concussions can lead to 16 dementia, memory loss, CTE and related symptoms by publishing warning to every player and 17 team.

18 NFL'S DUTY TO PLAYERS AND THE PUBLIC

19 108. The NFL overtly undertook a duty to study concussions on behalf of all American 20 Rules Football leagues and players.

21 109. As the industry icon, all American Rules Football leagues modeled their programs
22 after the NFL.

23 110. In turn, the NFL possesses monopoly power over American Football. As such, it
24 also possesses monopoly power over the research and education of football injuries to physicians,
25 trainers, coaches and individuals with brain damage such as Plaintiffs who played in the NFL, as 26 well as the public at large. As a result, it owed a duty to everyone including individuals such as 27 Plaintiffs in the following respects:

- (a) It owed a duty to protect Plaintiffs on the playing field;
- (b) It owed a duty to Plaintiffs to educate them and other players in the NFL about CTE and/or concussion injury;
- (c) It owed a duty to Plaintiffs to educate trainers, physicians, and coaches about CTE and/or concussion injury;
- (d) It owed a duty to Plaintiffs to have in place strict return-to-play guidelines to prevent CTE and/or concussion injury;
- (e) It owed a duty to Plaintiffs to promote a “whistleblower” system where teammates would bring to the attention of a trainer, physician or coach that another player had sustained concussion injury;
- (f) It owed a duty to Plaintiffs to design rules and penalties for players who use their head or upper body to hit or tackle;
- (g) It owed a duty to Plaintiffs to design rules to eliminate the risk of concussion during games and/or practices;
- (h) It owed a duty to Plaintiffs to promote research into and cure for CTE and the effects of concussion injury over a period of time; and
- (i) It owed a duty to State governments, local sports organizations, all American Rules Football leagues and players, and the public at large to protect against the long-term effects of CTE and/or concussion injury.

111. The NFL knew as early as the 1920’s of the harmful effects on a player’s brain of concussions; however, until June of 2010 they concealed these facts from coaches, trainers, players, and the public.

112. Plaintiffs did not know the long-term effects of concussions and relied on the NFL and the Riddell Defendants to protect them.

11/61/28

2 NFL'S KNOWLEDGE OF THE RISK OF CONCUSSIONS

3 113. For decades, Defendants have known that multiple blows to the head can lead to 4 long-term brain injury, including memory loss, dementia, depression and CTE and its related
5 symptoms.

6 114. This action arises from the Defendants' failure to warn and protect NFL players, such 7 as Plaintiffs against the long-term brain injury risks associated with football-related concussions.

8 115. This action arises because the NFL Defendants committed negligence by failing to 9 exercise its duty to enact league-wide guidelines and mandatory rules regulating post-concussion
10 medical treatment and return-to-play standards for players who suffer a concussion and/or multiple
11 concussions.

12 116. By failing to exercise its duty to enact reasonable and prudent rules to protect players
13 against the risks associated with repeated brain trauma, the NFL's failure to exercise its 14 independent duty has led to the deaths of some, and brain injuries of many other former players,
15 including Plaintiffs.

16 117. The following information, which is by no means comprehensive, was available and 17 easily accessible to Defendants:

18 (a) In the 1890's, Admiral Joseph Mason "Bull" Reeves, who is more 19 known as the father of carrier aviation, played American football in the 20 1890's for the Naval Academy. He had suffered so many blows to his 21 head that a navy doctor advised him that he could risk death or insanity
22 if he received another kick to his head.

23 (b) In 1913, Glenn "Pop" Warner, commented that he had "many times
24 seen cases when hard bumps on the head so dazed the player
25 receiving them that he lost his memory for a time and had to be 26 removed from the game.";

27 (c) In 1928, the first case of "Punch Drunk" in boxers was published

3 118. In addition, the NFL's duty to protect the health and safety of its players is further 4 underscored by the irrefutable evidence that the NFL has previously enacted the following non-
5 exhaustive list of rules pertaining to players' health and safety:

- 6 (a) In 1956, the NFL enacted a rule that prohibited the grabbing of any player's 7 facemask, other than the ball carrier;
- 8 (b) In 1962, the NFL enacted a rule that prohibited players from grabbing any player's 9 facemask;
- 10 (c) In 1976, the NFL enacted a rule that prohibited players from grabbing the facemask
11 of an opponent. The penalty for an incidental grasp of the facemask was 5 yards.
12 The penalty for twisting, turning, or pulling the facemask was 15 yards. A player 13 could be ejected from the game if the foul is judged to be vicious and/or flagrant;
- 14 (d) In 1977, the NFL enacted a rule that prohibited players from slapping the head of 15 another player during play. This rule was referred to as the "Deacon Jones Rule", 16 named after the Rams' defensive end who frequently used this technique;
- 17 (e) In 1977, the NFL enacted a rule that prohibited Offensive Linemen from 18 thrusting their hands into a defender's neck, face, or head;
- 19 (f) In 1979, the NFL enacted a rule that prohibited players from using their helmets to 20 butt, spear, or ram an opponent. Pursuant to this rule, any player who used the crown 21 or the top of his helmet unnecessarily will be called for unnecessary roughness;
- 22 (g) In 1980, the NFL enacted rule changes that provided greater restrictions on contact in 23 the area of the head, neck, and face;
- 24 (h) In 1980, the NFL enacted rule changes that prohibited players from directly striking,
25 swinging, or clubbing the head, neck, or face ("personal foul"). Beginning in 1980, a 26 penalty could be called for such contact whether or not the initial contact was made
27 below the neck area;
- 28

- 1 (i) In 1982, the NFL enacted a rule change by which the penalty for incidental grabbing
2 of a facemask by a defensive team was changed from 5 yards to an automatic first
3 down plus a 5 yard penalty;
- 4 (j) In 1983, the NFL enacted a rule that prohibited players from using a helmet
5 as a weapon to strike or hit an opponent;
- 6 (k) In 1988, the NFL enacted a rule that prohibited defensive players from hitting 7 quarterbacks below the waist while they are still in the pocket. (The rule was 8 unofficially called the "Andre Waters Rule" based upon a hit that Waters placed on 9 Los Angeles Rams quarterback Jim Everett in 1988); and
- 10 (l) Following the 2004-2005 season, the NFL's Competition Committee reviewed video 11 of the entire season and concluded that the horse-collar tackle resulted in six serious
12 injuries. On May 23, 2005, the NFL owners voted 27-5 to ban the tackle. The ban 13 states that a horse-collar tackle is an open-field tackle in which a defender uses the 14 shoulder pads to immediately bring a ball carrier down.

15
16 NFL FRAUDUENTLY CONCEALED THE LONG-TERM EFFECTS OF CONCUSSIONS

17 119. Instead of taking measures to actually protect its players from suffering long-term
18 brain injuries, the NFL created the "Mild Traumatic Brain Injury Committee" in 1994 to 19 purportedly study the effects of concussions on NFL players.

20 120. The Mild Traumatic Brain Injury Committee was chaired by Dr. Elliot Pellman, a 21 rheumatologist who is not certified as to brain injuries and/or concussions.

22 121. After 14 years of purported studies, and after numerous medical journal articles were 23 written by the NFL's Mild Traumatic Brain Injury Committee (the "NFL's Brain Injury 24 Committee"), concluded that "[b]ecause a significant percentage of players returned to play in the 25 same game [as they suffered a mild traumatic brain injury] and the overwhelming majority of 26 players with concussions were kept out of football-related activities for less than 1 week, it can be 27 concluded that mild TBI's in professional football are not serious injuries." See "Concussion in 28

1 professional football: Summary of the research conducted by the National Football League's
2 Committee on Mild Traumatic Brain Injury," Neurosurg Focus 21 (4):E12, 2006, E.J. Pellman and 3 D.C. Viano.

4 122. According to the NFL's own committee, the speedy return to play after suffering a
5 concussion demonstrates that such players were not at a greater risk of suffering long-term brain
6 injury.

7 123. The NFL-funded study is completely devoid of logic and science. More importantly,
8 it is contrary to their Health and Safety Rules as well as 75 years of published medical literature on
9 concussions.

10 124. Between 2002 and 2005, a series of clinical and neuropathological studies performed
11 by independent scientists and physicians demonstrated that multiple NFL induced-concussions
12 cause cognitive problems such as depression, early on-set dementia and CTE and its related
13 symptoms.

14 125. In response to these studies, the NFL, to further a scheme of fraud and deceit, had 15 members of the NFL's Brain Injury Committee deny knowledge of a link between concussion and 16 cognitive decline and claim that more time was needed to reach a definitive conclusion on the 17 issue.

18 126. When the NFL's Brain Injury Committee anticipated studies that would implicate
19 causal links between concussion and cognitive degeneration it promptly published articles
20 producing contrary findings, although false, distorted and deceiving as part of the NFL's scheme to 21 deceive Congress, the players and the public at large.

22 127. Between 2002 and 2007, Dr. Bennet Omalu examined the brain tissue of deceased
23 NFL players including Mike Webster, Terry Long, Andrew Waters and Justin Strzelczyk. Dr.
24 Omalu in an article in Neurosurgery concluded that chronic traumatic encephalopathy ("CTE")
25 triggered by multiple NFL concussions represented a partial cause of their deaths.

26
27
28

1 128. In response to Dr. Omalu's article, the NFL acting thru the NFL's Brain Injury
2 Committee, Drs. Ira Casson, Elliott Pellman and David Viano wrote a letter to the editor of 3 Neurosurgery asking that Dr. Omalu's article be retracted.

4 129. In 2005, a clinical study performed by Dr. Kevin Guskiewicz found that retired
5 players who sustained three or more concussions in the NFL had a five-fold prevalence of mild
6 cognitive impairment. The NFL's Brain Injury Committee, Dr. Mark Lowell, promptly attacked
7 the article by refusing to accept a survey of 2,400 former NFL players.

8 130. Because of Congressional scrutiny and media pressure, the NFL scheduled a league-
9 wide Concussion Summit for June 2007. Unfortunately, the NFL in keeping with its scheme of 10 fraud and deceit issued a pamphlet to players in August 2007, which stated: "there is no magic 11 number for how many concussions is too many."

12 131. When Boston University's Dr. Ann McKee found CTE in the brains of two more
13 deceased NFL players in 2008, Dr. Ira Casson characterized each study as an "isolated incident"
14 from which no conclusion could be drawn.

15 132. At the October 2009 Congressional hearings of the House Judiciary Committee,
16 committee member Linda Sanchez (D-CA) analogized the NFL's denial of a causal link between 17 NFL concussion and cognitive decline to the Tobacco industry's denial of the link between 18 cigarette consumption and ill health effects.

19 133. Since at least 2002, the NFL Committee has been on direct notice of multiple NFL
20 head injuries contributing to cognitive decline in later life, yet it has never amended the 2007
21 NFL's Brain Injury Committee statement: "Current research with professional athletes has not 22 shown that having more than one or two concussions leads to permanent problems... It is 23 important to understand that there is no magic number for how many concussions is too many."

24 134. As of June 2010, the NFL had yet to amend these inaccurate and misrepresentative
25 statements to any Plaintiff or retiree.

26
27 THE NFL ACKNOWLEDGES THEIR DUTY TO PROTECT AGAINST
28 THE LONG-TERM RISK OF CONCUSSIONS

1
2 135. On August 14, 2007, the NFL acknowledged its duty to players by enacting rules to
3 protect them against the risks associated with repeated brain trauma.

4 136. The NFL's 2007 concussion guidelines, many of which stemmed from an NFL
5 conference in June of 2007 involving team trainers and doctors, were sent to all current players and 6 other team personnel.

7 137. The NFL's 2007 guidelines on concussion management include a whistle-blower
8 provision for individuals to report concussions with the league so that a player with a head injury is 9 not forced to practice or play against medical advice.

10 138. The NFL's 2007 concussion guidelines also include an informational pamphlet
11 provided to all current NFL players to aid in identifying symptoms of a concussion. This 12 information was later withdrawn by one of the outside counsel of the NFL in a separate letter to its 13 disability plan, as well as the NFL's August 14, 2007 press release denying that "more than one or 14 two concussions leads to permanent problems".

15 139. In a statement issued by the NFL on August 14, 2007, Roger Goodell, the 16 Commissioner of the NFL, introduced the NFL's 2007 concussion guidelines by saying, "We want
17 to make sure all NFL players, coaches and staff members are fully informed and take advantage of 18 the most up-to-date information and resources as we continue to study the long-term impact of 19 concussions."

20 140. The NFL's Commissioner also stated, "[b]ecause of the unique and complex nature
21 of the brain, our goal is to continue to have concussions managed conservatively by outstanding 22 medical personnel in a way that clearly emphasizes player safety over competitive concerns."

23 141. The NFL's 2007 concussion guidelines provide when a player with a concussion can 24 return to a game or practice.

25 142. The NFL's 2007 concussion guidelines specifically mandate that a player should 26 have no concussion symptoms and normal neurological test results before returning to play.

1 143. For the past many decades until August 14, 2007, the NFL's duty to protect its
2 players has never changed and has ever waned. The only change that occurred is that on August
3 14, 2007, the NFL finally and unequivocally acted upon its longstanding duty to protect its member
4 players by implementing league-wide concussion guidelines.

5 144. Importantly, the NFL themselves acknowledged that the 2007 guidelines were 6 inadequate and insufficient. As a result, the NFL enacted more strict regulations to handle
7 concussions starting in the 2009 season. Specifically, the NFL announced new rules on managing
8 concussions requiring players who exhibit any significant concussion signs to be removed from a
9 game or practice and be barred from returning the same day.

10 145. Nevertheless, it was not until June of 2010 that the NFL warned any player of the 11 long-term risks associated with multiple concussions, including dementia, memory loss, CTE and 12 its related symptoms. The Riddell Defendants also failed to so warn active players until 13 approximately the same time frame.

14 146. As of today, the NFL Defendants and the Riddell Defendants have never warned any 15 Plaintiff or retired player of the long-term health effects of concussions.

16
17 THE DEFENDANTS' CONDUCT RISES BEYOND MERE NEGLIGENCE

18 147. The aforementioned acts and omissions of the Defendants demonstrate that the 19 Defendants acted with callous indifference to the rights and duties owed to Plaintiffs, all American 20 Rules Football leagues and players and the public at large.

21 148. The Defendants acted willfully, wantonly, egregiously, with reckless abandon, and 22 with a high degree of moral culpability.

24 include but are not limited to his various problems including Short Term Memory Loss, headaches,

1 527. Throughout the history of the NFL, the NFL organization has consistently breached
2 its duty to protect the health and safety of its players by failing to enact rules, policies and
3 regulations to best protect its players.

4 528. The NFL breached its duty to its players, including Plaintiffs, to use ordinary care to 5 protect the physical and mental health of players by failing to implement standardized post-
6 concussion guidelines by failing to enact rules to decrease the risk of concussions during games or 7 practices, and by failing to implement mandatory rules that would prevent a player who suffered a
8 mild traumatic brain injury from re-entering a football game and being placed at further risk of 9 injury.

10 529. Throughout its many years, the NFL has repeatedly established its duty to protect the 11 health and safety of its players when known and foreseeable risk exists. Until August 14, 2007, the 12 NFL failed to create and implement league-wide guidelines concerning the treatment and 13 monitoring of players who suffer concussive brain injuries.

14 530. It has been well established since 1928 that repeated blows to the head can lead to 15 CTE, commonly known as "punch drunk syndrome." Punch Drunk Syndrome has been prevalent 16 in boxers who have repeatedly suffered concussions.

17 531. Despite the fact that other sporting associations exist, such as the National Hockey
18 League and the World Boxing Association, which have decades ago established standardized
19 association-wide concussion management rules, until August 14, 2007, the NFL failed to establish 20 any guidelines or policies to protect the mental health and safety of its players.

21 532. Nonetheless, it took the NFL until June of 2010 to finally acknowledge the long-term
22 risks associated with concussions, including dementia, memory loss, CTE and its related 23 symptoms. At that time, the NFL warned active players of those risks. To date, the NFL has never 24 warned any past players, including Plaintiffs, or the public of the long-term brain injury caused 25 from concussions.

26 533. The NFL's failure to fulfill its duty to protect its players, the plaintiffs and the public,
27 include, but are not limited to, the following failures:

- (a) Failure to institute acclimation requirements or procedures to ensure proper acclimation of the NFL players before they participate in practices or games;
- (b) Failure to regulate and monitor practices, games, equipment, and medical care so as to minimize the long-term risks associated with concussive brain injuries suffered by the NFL players, including Plaintiffs;
- (c) Failure to require that an adequate concussive brain injury history be taken of NFL players;
- (d) Failure to ensure accurate diagnosis and recording of concussive brain injury so the condition can be treated in an adequate and timely manner;
- (e) Failure to invoke league-wide guidelines, policies, and procedures regarding the identification and treatment of concussive brain injury, and the return to play insofar as such matters pertain to concussive brain injury;
- (f) Failure to properly inform the public and other American Rules Football leagues and players of the health risks associated with concussive injury;
- (g) Failure to license and approve the best equipment available that will reduce the risk of concussive brain injury; and
- (h) Failure to warn of the harm of repetitive concussion injuries.

534. The NFL breached its duty to protect the health and safety of its players by subjecting NFL players to an increased risk of concussive brain injury.

535. The NFL failed to provide complete, current, and competent information and directions to NFL athletic trainers, physicians, and coaches regarding concussive brain injuries and its prevention, symptoms, and treatment.

1 with the NFL Teams in the recognition, prevention, and treatment of concussive brain injuries, then
2 NFL players, such as Plaintiffs, would not have suffered from the subject condition or the effects
3 of that condition, would have recovered more rapidly, or would not have suffered long-term brain
4 injuries.

5 537. Under all of the above circumstances, it was foreseeable that the NFL's violating its 6 duties would cause or substantially contribute to the personal injuries suffered by Plaintiffs.

7 538. The NFL committed acts of omission and commission, which collectively and
8 severally, constituted negligence. The NFL's negligence was a proximate and producing cause of 9 the personal injuries and other damages suffered by Plaintiffs.

10 539. As a result of the personal injuries, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages, as alleged 11 herein or allowed by law, from the NFL in an amount reasonably anticipated to exceed the 12 jurisdictional minimum of $25,000.

13
14 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION:
15 NEGLIGENCE
16 (As Against the NFL)

17 540. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 539 of this Complaint as if 18 fully set forth herein at length.

19 541. The NFL has historically assumed an independent tort duty to invoke rules that 20 protect the health and safety of its players, but it has violated Section 323 of the Restatement
21 (Second) of Torts as adopted by the Courts in California.

22 542. Throughout the history of the NFL, the NFL organization has consistently exercised 23 its duty to protect the health and safety of its players by implementing rules, policies and 24 regulations in an attempt to best protect its players.

25 543. By enacting rules to protect the health and safety of its players, the NFL has 26 repeatedly confirmed its duty to take reasonable and prudent actions to protect the health and safety 27 of its players when known and foreseeable risks exist.

02/19/20

1 544. The NFL breached its duty to its players, including Plaintiffs, to use ordinary care to
2 protect the physical and mental health of players by implementing standardized post-concussion
3 guidelines and by failing to implement mandatory rules that would prevent a player who suffered a
4 mild traumatic brain injury from re-entering a football game or practice.

5 545. Throughout the many years that the NFL has repeatedly established its duty to 6 protect the health and safety of its players when known and foreseeable risks exist, until August 14,
7 2007, the NFL failed to create and implement league-wide guidelines concerning the treatment and

14 management rules, until August 14, 2007, the NFL failed to establish any guidelines or policies to

16 548. The NFL's failure to fulfill its assumed duty to protect its players includes but is not 17 limited to the following failures:

- 18 (a) Failure to institute acclimation requirements or procedures to ensure proper
19 acclimation of the NFL players before they participate in practices or games;
20 (b) Failure to regulate and monitor practices, games, rules, equipment, and medical care
21 so as to minimize the long-term risks associated with concussive brain injuries
22 suffered by the NFL players, including Plaintiffs;
23 (c) Failure to require that an adequate concussive brain injury history be taken of NFL
24 players;
25 (d) Failure to ensure accurate diagnosis and recording of concussive brain injury so the 26 condition can be treated in an adequate and timely manner;

- 1 (e) Failure to invoke league-wide guidelines, policies, and procedures regarding the
- 2 identification and treatment of concussive brain injury, and the return to play insofar
- 3 as such matters pertain to concussive brain injury; and,
- 4 (f) Failure to license and approve the best equipment available that will reduce the risk
- 5 of concussive brain injury.

6 549. The NFL breached its assumed duty to protect the health and safety of its players by 7 subjecting NFL players to an increased risk of concussive brain injury.

8 550. The NFL failed to provide complete, current, and competent information and 9 directions to NFL athletic trainers, physicians, and coaches regarding concussive brain injuries and 10 its prevention, symptoms, and treatment.

11 551. If the NFL would have taken the necessary steps to oversee and protect the NFL
12 players, including Plaintiffs, by developing and implementing necessary guidelines, policies, and 13 procedures; providing reasonably safe helmets; and educating and training all persons involved
14 with the NFL Teams in the recognition, prevention, and treatment of concussive brain injuries, then
15 NFL players, such as Plaintiffs, would not have suffered from the subject condition or the effects
16 of that condition, would have recovered more rapidly, or would not have suffered long-term brain
17 damage, dementia, and depression related to dementia and CTE.

18 552. Under all of the above circumstances, it was foreseeable that the NFL's violations of 19 its duties would cause or substantially contribute to the personal injuries suffered by the Plaintiffs.

20 553. The NFL committed acts of omission and commission, which collectively and
21 severally, constituted negligence. The NFL's negligence was a proximate and producing cause of 22 the personal injuries and other damages suffered by Plaintiff.

23 554. As a result of the personal injuries of Plaintiffs, they are entitled to damages, as 24 alleged herein or allowed by law, from the NFL in an amount reasonably anticipated to exceed the
25 jurisdictional minimum of $25,000.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION:

FRAUD

(As Against the NFL)

555. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 554 of this Complaint as if fully set forth herein at length.

556. From 2005 through June of 2010, the NFL made through its "Mild Traumatic Brain Injury Committee" and others, its agents, material misrepresentations to its players, former players, the Congress and the public at large that there was no link between concussions and later life cognitive/brain injury, including CTE and its related symptoms.

557. The persons who made the misrepresentations as agents of the NFL and the NFL knew they were false.

558. The persons who made the misrepresentations as agents of the NFL and the NFL intended to defraud, among others, the Plaintiffs in this action.

559. The Plaintiffs, among others, justifiably relied on these misrepresentations to their detriment in getting care for their injuries.

560. The Plaintiffs, among others, were damaged by these misrepresentations. Among other things, they require increased home care, loss of consortium, loss of employment, medical costs and pain and suffering.

561. As a result of the personal injuries of Plaintiffs, they are entitled to damages, as alleged herein or allowed by law, from the NFL in an amount reasonably anticipated to exceed the jurisdictional minimum of $25,000.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

(As Against NFL Properties)

562. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 561 as if fully set forth herein at length.

03/19/11

1 563. NFL Properties breached its duty to ensure that the equipment it licensed and
2 approved were of the highest possible quality and sufficient to protect the NFL players, including
3 Plaintiffs, from the risk of concussive brain injuries.

4 564. NFL Properties breached its duty by licensing the Riddell Defendants' helmets, and 5 approving and/or requiring the use of the helmets for the NFL players, knowing or having reason to 6 know that the helmets were negligently and defectively designed and/or manufactured.

7 565. As a result of these breaches by NFL Properties, Plaintiffs suffer personal injuries as 8 a result the long-term health effects of concussive brain injuries.

9 566. As a result of the personal injuries of Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages
10 from NFL Properties, LLC in an amount reasonably anticipated to exceed the jurisdictional
11 minimum of $25,000.00.

13 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

14 STRICT LIABILITY FOR DESIGN DEFECT

15 (As Against Riddell Defendants)

16 567. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 566 as if set fully herein at 17 length.

18 568. At the time the helmets were designed, manufactured, sold, and distributed by the 19 Riddell Defendants, the helmets were defective in design, unreasonably dangerous, and unsafe for 20 their intended purpose because they did not provide adequate protection against the foreseeable
21 risk of concussive brain injury. The design defect includes, but is not limited to the following:

- 22 (a) Negligently failing to design the subject helmet with a safe means 23 of attenuating and absorbing the foreseeable forces of impact in 24 order to minimize and/or reduce the forces and energy directed to 25 the player's head;
- 26 (b) Negligently designing the subject helmet with a shock attenuating
27 system which was not safely configured;
- 28

- 1 (c) Negligently failing to properly and adequately test the helmet
2 model;
- 3 (d) Other acts of negligence that may be discovered during the course
4 of this matter; and
- 5 (e) Failing to warn Plaintiffs that their helmets would not protect 6 against the long-term health consequences of concussive brain injury.

7 569. The defective design and unreasonably dangerous condition were a proximate and 8 producing cause of the personal injuries suffered by the Plaintiffs and other damages, including but 9 not limited to, economic damages and non-economic damages.

10 570. The Riddell Defendants are strictly liable for designing a defective and unreasonably 11 dangerous product and for failing to warn which were proximate and producing causes of the 12 personal injuries and other damages including, but not limited to, economic damage as alleged 13 herein. A safer alternative design was economically and technologically feasible at the time the 14 product left the control of the Riddell Defendants.

15 571. As a result of the personal injuries of Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages
16 from Riddell Defendants in an amount reasonably anticipated to exceed the jurisdictional minimum
17 of $25,000.00.

19 SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

20 (STRICT LIABILITY FOR MANUFACTURING DEFECT)

21 (As Against Riddell Defendants)

22 572. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference paragraphs 1 through 571 as if set forth herein at 23 length.

24 573. At the time the helmets were designed, manufactured, sold and distributed by the 25 Riddell Defendants, the helmets were defective in their manufacturing and unreasonably dangerous 26 and unsafe for their intended purpose because they did not provide adequate protection against the 27
28

1 foreseeable risk of concussive brain injury. The Riddell Defendants' failure to design the helmets
2 to design and manufacturing specifications resulted in, among other things, the following:

- 3 (a) Negligently failing to manufacture the subject helmet with a
4 safe means of attenuating and absorbing the foreseeable forces
5 of impact in order to minimize and/or reduce the forces and 6 energy directed to the player's head;
- 7 (b) Negligently manufacturing the subject helmet with a shock
8 attenuating system which was not safely configured;
- 9 (c) Negligently failing to properly and adequately inspect and/or test 10 the helmet model;
- 11 (d) Other acts of negligence that may be discovered during the course
12 of this matter; and
- 13 (e) Failure to warn Plaintiffs that its helmets wouldn't protect against 14 concussive brain injury.

15
16 574. The manufacturing defect was a proximate and producing cause of the personal
17 injuries suffered by Plaintiffs and other damages, including but not limited to, economic damages
18 and non-economic damages.

19 575. The Riddell Defendants are strictly liable for manufacturing and placing in the stream 20 of commerce a defective and unreasonably dangerous product which was a proximate and 21 producing cause of the personal injuries and other damages, including but not limited to, economic 22 damages and non-economic damages. A safe alternative design was economically and 23 technologically feasible at the time the product left the control of the Riddell Defendants.

24 576. As a result of the personal injuries of Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages
25 from Riddell Defendants in an amount reasonably anticipated to exceed the jurisdictional minimum
26 of $25,000.00.

578. The Riddell Defendants failed to provide necessary and adequate safety and instructional materials and warnings of the risk and means available to reduce and/or minimize the risk of concussive brain injuries while playing football.

579. The Riddell Defendants failed to provide necessary and adequate information, warnings, and/or instructional materials regarding the fact that other model helmets provided greater shock attenuation from blows to the head area.

580. The Riddell Defendants' failure to warn caused the Plaintiffs' personal injuries.

581. As a result of the personal injuries of Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs are entitled to damages from the Riddell Defendants, in an amount reasonably anticipated to exceed the jurisdictional minimum of $25,000.00.
