ISSUE TO BE DECIDED

(Local Rule 7-4(a)(3))

1. Whether the Court should grant final approval to the settlement set forth in the Stipulation of Settlement and preliminarily approved on May 2, 2013 (ECF No. 104).

1 NOTICE OF MOTION AND MOTION

2 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR COUNSEL OF RECORD:

3 PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on October 18, 2013, at 9:00 a.m., or as soon thereafter
4 as the matter may be heard before the Honorable Edward J. Davila, United States District Court 5 Judge, Northern District of California, San Jose Division, 280 South 1st Street, San Jose, 6 California 95113, Courtroom 4, 5th Floor, Plaintiffs Garen Meguerian, Lauren Scott, 7 Kathleen Koffman, Heather Silversmith and Twilah Monroe (“Plaintiffs”) will and hereby do 8 move pursuant to Rule 23 of the Federal Rules for Civil Procedure for an order granting final 9 approval to the proposed Settlement.

10 This motion is made on grounds that the parties have reached a fair and reasonable 11 settlement disposing of all claims in this action and that they reached that settlement after 12 extensive negotiations, conducted at arm’s-length by experienced counsel with the assistance of 13 respected mediators, the Honorable Daniel Weinstein (Ret.) and Catherine Yanni of JAMS. This 14 motion is filed pursuant to the Court’s May 2, 2013 Order Granting the Motion for Preliminary 15 Approval of Class Action Settlement (ECF No. 104) and is based upon this Notice, the below
16 memorandum of points and authorities, the Stipulation of Settlement, the declarations submitted, 17 all other pleadings and matters of record, and such oral and documentary evidence as may be 18 presented at the hearing of this matter.

19 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

20 I. INTRODUCTION

21 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e), Class Counsel respectfully submit this Memorandum in 22 Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Final Approval of Class Action Settlement (the “Motion for 23 Final Approval”). The terms of the Settlement are set forth in the Stipulation of Settlement, as 24 amended on March 8, 2013, which was preliminarily approved by the Court on May 2, 2013 (the 25 “Agreement”), ECF No. 101-1.¹ As the Court aptly stated when granting preliminary approval,

26 _____
27 ¹ Unless otherwise specified, all capitalized terms herein that are defined terms in the 28 Agreement shall have the same meaning as in the Agreement.

1 the relief provided under the Agreement “is adequate, if not exceptional.” See Order Granting 2 Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Preliminary Approval Order”), 3 ECF No. 104 at 7:3.

4 This Settlement affords every Class Member the opportunity for a full refund of In-App 5 Purchases made by minors without the Class Member’s knowledge and permission prior to 6 May 2, 2013. There is little, if any, additional benefit that could be accomplished for the Class 7 through victory at trial. Under the proposed Settlement, every Settlement Class Member is 8 eligible to receive iTunes store credit or a cash refund in an amount equal to the aggregate total of 9 all Qualified Game Currency Charges. Alternatively, the Settlement Class Member may elect a 10 $5.00 iTunes store credit, or cash payment for those members who no longer maintain an iTunes
11 account, upon submittal of a simple claim form. Beyond this extraordinary monetary relief 12 provided to Settlement Class Members, the notice program informed parents of the existence of 13 parental controls available on their Apple device. Parents were made aware of the parental 14 controls on the settlement website, stating: “Apple’s parental controls may be set to disable In-15 App Purchases on an iOS device or to require a password before every In-App Purchase 16 transaction.” Immediately following this statement, the settlement website provides a link to 17 detailed instructions on how to implement these parental controls.²

18 The proposed Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. It has been reached through 19 arm’s-length negotiations overseen by two highly-regarded mediators, the Hon. Daniel Weinstein 20 (Ret.) and Catherine Yanni, Esq. of JAMS. In the end, the guiding question is what recovery was 21 sought by the litigation, and what is provided through the Settlement. This class action sought 22 refunds for In-App Purchases made without a parent’s knowledge or permission, and that is 23 precisely what the Settlement delivers – an exceptional result for the Class. For this reason and 24 those set forth below, the Court should grant Plaintiffs’ Motion for Final Approval.

(Frequently Asked Question No. 23).

1 II. CLASS NOTICE COMPLIED WITH THE COURT’S ORDER,
2 RULES 23(C) AND (E), AND DUE PROCESS

3 The notice program complied with the terms set forth in the Agreement and the Court’s 4 Preliminary Approval Order. That program had two primary components: (i) direct e-mail or 5 postal mail dissemination of the Summary Notice of Settlement (“Summary Notice”); and (ii) a 6 settlement website (where claims can be filed). As demonstrated below, notice has reached 7 virtually all potential Class Members.

8 A. Direct Notice

9 From June 19, 2013 through July 8, 2013, the Claims Administrator, Kurtzman Carson
10 Consultants LLC (“KCC”), e-mailed the Summary Notice to 28,093,249 potential Class Members 11 who are (or were) iTunes Account Holders that paid for one or more purchase(s) of Game 12 Currency prior to May 2, 2013, the date of the Preliminary Approval Order. See Declaration of 13 Jeffrey Gyomber re: Notice Procedures (“KCC Decl.”) ¶¶ 4-6, 9, which is attached as Exhibit 1 to 14 the Declaration of Anthony D. Phillips in Support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for Final Approval of 15 Class Action Settlement, filed herewith; Agreement, § VII.B. Each of these e-mailed Notices has 16 a personalized claim number that is provided to facilitate the filing of a claim (but is not required 17 to file a claim). Within the Summary Notice provided by e-mail to each potential Class Member, 18 there was a direct link to the Settlement Website discussed below. Where an e-mail address was 19 unknown, or the e-mail was returned as undeliverable, the Claims Administrator mailed a copy of 20 the Long Form Notice to the potential Class Member. KCC Decl. ¶¶ 3, 10-11 & Exs. A, B, D &
21 E thereto; Agreement, § VII.C. By July 16, 2013, KCC had mailed 1,736,373 Long Form 22 Notices to potential Class Members. See KCC Decl. ¶¶ 10, 11.

23 The potential Class Members and associated e-mail addresses utilized for direct notice
24 were generated from Apple’s customer database. Each iTunes Account Holder provides an e-25 mail address when establishing the account for receipt of notices and purchase receipts. Potential 26 Class Members are (or were) all iTunes Account Holders. As such, Apple retains the email 27 addresses and purchase history of In-App Purchases and was able to identify purchases of Game 28 Currency prior to May 2, 2013 for each iTunes Account Holder. The Summary Notice was sent to the e-mail address provided by each potential Class Member. KCC Decl. ¶¶ 4-6, 9-11. In

1 total, KCC sent 28,093,249 Summary Notices by e-mail with 1,753,695 of these e-mails being 2 returned as undeliverable. Id. ¶ 9. There were 1,736,373 potential Class Members whose e-3 mailed Summary Notice was returned as undeliverable that had a mailing address. Id. ¶ 10. On or 4 before July 16, 2013, KCC mailed each of these potential Class Members a Long Form Notice by 5 First Class postage. Id. ¶11.

6 B. The Settlement Website

7 The settlement website, www.itunesinappurchasesettlement.com, was launched on 8 June 19, 2013. See KCC Decl. ¶ 8. This website includes the following information and features:

- 9 (i) a description of the Settlement;
- 10 (ii) a list of important dates and deadlines, including the date set for the Final 11 Approval Hearing and deadlines for Class Members to object, opt-out, and file 12 claims;
- 13 (iii) important court documents including Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for 14 Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (ECF No. 93); Supplemental 15 Declaration of Anthony D. Phillips in Support of Unopposed Motion for 16 Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (ECF No. 101); Preliminary 17 Approval Order (ECF No. 104); Stipulation and Order Adjusting Deadlines (ECF 18 No. 108); and Plaintiffs' Notice of Motion and Motion for an Award of Attorneys' 19 Fees, Reimbursement of Expenses and Service Awards, Memorandum of Points 20 and Authorities in Support Thereof ("Motion for Attorneys' Fees") (ECF 21 No. 115);
- 22 (iv) the Agreement (ECF No. 101-1);
- 23 (v) the Long Form Notice (in English and Spanish);
- 24 (vi) directions for potential Class Members to access their iTunes purchase history;
- 25 (vii) an online claims filing feature which allows Class Members to file a claim online
26 with or without having received a Summary Notice with an assigned claim 27 number;
- 28 (viii) a toll-free telephone number to seek more information by telephone;

- 1 (ix) answers to frequently-asked questions relating to the Settlement, the rights of 2 Class Members, the identification of eligible apps, the filing of a claim, and 3 identification of a Class Member's Apple ID; and 4 (x) identification of, and instructions for the utilization of, the available Parental 5 Controls to disable In-App Purchases on an iOS device or to require a password 6 before every In-App Purchase transaction.

7 The interactive claim filing feature of the settlement website became available to Class 8 Members on June 19, 2013. KCC Decl. ¶ 8. This website provides a searchable electronic 9 database of Qualified Apps to identify purchases for which a claim is viable. Class Members can 10 choose among multiple options to file a claim:

- 11 (i) Class Members to whom the Summary Notice was e-mailed with an assigned 12 claim number may enter that assigned number to facilitate the filing of a claim; 13 (ii) Class Members without a claim number can still file a claim electronically through 14 this interactive website; and 15 (iii) Class Members may also complete the Claim Form interactively, and download to 16 print for mailing.

17 The Settlement Website has seen robust activity, including over 1,180,586 visitors to the 18 site. See KCC Decl. ¶ 14. In addition, the toll-free telephone number has received over 6,802
 19 telephone calls. See id. ¶¶ 7, 13. Class Members who did not wish to access the Settlement 20 Website could use the toll-free telephone number to request that a hard copy of the Claim Form 21 be sent through the mail. See id.

22 III. FOR PURPOSES OF SETTLEMENT, THE SETTLEMENT CLASS MEETS THE 23 REQUIREMENTS OF RULE 23

24 On May 2, 2013, as part of its Preliminary Approval Order, the Court conditionally
 25 certified the following Class pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a) and (b)(3) for settlement purposes 26 only ("Settlement Class" or "Class"):

27 All United States residents who, prior to the date of the Conditional Approval 28 Order, paid for Game Currency charged to their iTunes account by a minor without their knowledge or permission. The Settlement Class excludes Apple, any 1 entity in which Apple has a controlling interest; Apple's directors, officers, and 2 employees; Apple's legal representatives, successors, and assigns; and all persons who validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class.

3 ECF Nos. 104 at 8, 94 at 4. It is important to note that not all of the approximately 28.1 million 4 individuals who received notice are actually Class Members. As described in this Motion for 5 Final Approval, notice was provided to all iTunes Account Holders who purchased Game 6 Currency prior to the date of the Preliminary Approval Order. Those among the recipients of the 7 notice who experienced a purchase of Game Currency by a minor without their knowledge or 8 permission would then self-identify as Class Members. The iTunes Account Holders who did not 9 have such an experience are not part of the Settlement Class; therefore, they are not subject to any 10 Judgment provided for under the section IX of the Agreement.

11 On May 2, 2013, the Court also appointed Plaintiffs Meguerian, Scott, Koffman, 12 Silversmith and Monroe as representatives of the Settlement Class, and appointed Simon B. Paris 13 and Patrick Howard of Saltz, Mongeluzzi, Barrett & Bendesky, P.C. and Michael J. Boni and 14 Joshua D. Snyder of Boni & Zack LLC as Co-Lead Counsel to represent the interests of the 15 Settlement Class. Id.

16 Upon provisionally certifying the Settlement Class, appointing the Class Representatives 17 and appointing Co-Lead Counsel to represent the Settlement Class Members, the Court already 18 made substantial findings under Rule 23. See ECF No. 104 at 3-6. There has been no intervening 19 event or change in circumstances since May to warrant reconsideration or modification of that 20 conditional certification. Thus, as set forth in Plaintiffs' Unopposed Motion for Preliminary 21 Approval (ECF No. 93) and the Court's Preliminary Approval Order (ECF No. 104), which are 22 both incorporated herein by this reference, the Settlement Class continues to satisfy the class
23 certification requirements set forth in Rule 23(a) and Rule 23(b)(3). This provisional certification 24 order, as set forth in the Court's Preliminary Approval Order, should now be final as it pertains to 25 the Settlement Class.

26 IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE

27 It is well established in the Ninth Circuit that "voluntary conciliation and settlement are 28 the preferred means of dispute resolution." Officers for Justice v. Civil Serv. Comm'n, 688 F.2d

1 615, 625 (9th Cir. 1982). It is also beyond question that “there is an overriding public interest in 2 settling and quieting litigation,” and this is “particularly true in class action suits.” Van 3 Bronkhorst v. Safeco Corp., 529 F.2d 943, 950 (9th Cir. 1976); see also Utility Reform Project v.
4 Bonneville Power Admin., 869 F.2d 437, 443 (9th Cir. 1989). This is particularly true here given 5 the difficulties of common proofs, the inequities in resources between Apple and its iTunes 6 Account Holders, the uncertainties of the outcome, and the likely length of this litigation affecting 7 as many as approximately 28 million potential Class Members.

8 Approval of a class action settlement is a matter within the sound discretion of the court.
9 See, e.g., Class Plaintiffs v. City of Seattle, 955 F.2d 1268, 1276 (9th Cir. 1992); Create-A-Card, 10 Inc. v. INTUIT, Inc., No. CV-07-6452 WHA, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93989, at *7 (N.D. Cal.
11 Sept. 22, 2009) (Alsup, J.). The “court’s inquiry is whether the settlement is ‘fair, adequate, and 12 reasonable.’” 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93989, at *7 (quoting City of Seattle, 955 F.2d at 1276). “A 13 settlement is fair, adequate, and reasonable when ‘the interests of the class as a whole are better 14 served if the litigation is resolved by the settlement rather than pursued.’” Id. (citation omitted).

15 The Ninth Circuit has set forth factors which may be considered and balanced in 16 evaluating the fairness of a class action settlement:

17 [T]he strength of plaintiffs’ case; the risk, expense, complexity, and likely 18 duration of further litigation; the risk of maintaining class action status throughout 19 the trial; the amount offered in settlement; the extent of discovery completed, and 20 the stage of the proceedings; the experience and views of counsel; the presence of a governmental participant; and the reaction of the class members to the proposed settlement.

21 Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625; accord Molski v. Gleich, 318 F.3d 937, 953 (9th Cir. 2003).
22 The importance of any one of these factors “will depend upon and be dictated by the nature of the 23 claims advanced, the types of relief sought, and the unique facts and circumstances presented by 24 each individual case.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625.

25 In exercising its discretion, “the court’s intrusion upon what is otherwise a private 26 consensual agreement negotiated between the parties to a lawsuit must be limited to the extent 27 necessary to reach a reasoned judgment that the agreement is not the product of fraud or 28

1 overreaching by, or collusion between, the negotiating parties, and that the settlement, taken as a 2 whole, is fair, reasonable and adequate to all concerned.” Officers for Justice, 688 F.2d at 625.

3 The Ninth Circuit defines the limits of the inquiry to be made:

4 [T]he settlement or fairness hearing is not to be turned into a trial or rehearsal for 5 trial on the merits. Neither the trial court nor this court is to reach any ultimate 6 conclusions on the contested issues of fact and law which underlie the merits of 7 the dispute, for it is the very uncertainty of outcome in litigation and avoidance of 8 wasteful and expensive litigation that induce consensual settlements. The 9 proposed settlement is not to be judged against a hypothetical or speculative 10 measure of what might have been achieved by the negotiators.

11 Id. (emphasis in original). Moreover, “[t]he recommendations of plaintiffs’ counsel should be 12 given a presumption of reasonableness,” especially where the recommendations follow lengthy 13 arm’s-length and intensely fought negotiations overseen by a neutral party such as Judge 14 Weinstein and Ms. Yanni of JAMS, as was the case here. Boyd v. Bechtel Corp., 485 F. Supp.
15 610, 622 (N.D. Cal. 1979); Ellis v. Naval Air Rework Facility, 87 F.R.D. 15, 18 (N.D. Cal. 1980) 16 (“the fact that experienced counsel involved in the case approved the settlement after hard-fought 17 negotiations is entitled to considerable weight”), aff’d, 661 F.2d 939 (9th Cir. 1981).

18 Evaluation of the foregoing factors supports final approval of the proposed Settlement.

19 A. The Settlement Makes Participating Class Members Whole

20 The Settlement accomplishes the goals of the litigation, to provide refunds to Class 21 Members for In-App Purchases within Game Apps targeted at children that were made 22 unbeknownst to the iTunes Account Holder. It provides full refunds for Game Currency 23 purchases made within a single forty-five (45) day period without the knowledge or permission of 24 the account holders. See Agreement, § V.A.2. In addition, Settlement Class Members may 25 request refunds for Qualified Game Currency Charges that occurred after the forty-five (45) day 26 period if they furnish an explanation of the circumstances including, specifically, the 27 circumstances that made it possible for the minor to continue to charge Game Currency after the 28 account holder was presumably provided with Apple email receipts and monthly credit card statement(s). See id. § V.B.2.c. Alternatively, a Class Member may forgo this full refund for a $5

1 iTunes Store Credit regardless of whether their purchases subject to the Settlement were more or 2 less than $5. Finally, a non-monetary, yet important component of the Settlement, provides all 3 potential Class Members with information and instruction on parental controls available on their 4 iOS Device to prevent In-App Purchases or use of the 15-minute window for In-App Purchases.
5 Id. § X.B. Through this Settlement, if approved, a Class Member can be made whole for any loss 6 caused by the conduct that is the subject of this litigation, and has been provided the tools 7 necessary to prevent any possible recurrence of that loss.

8 1. Aggregate Relief

9 Settlement Class Members are entitled to receive an iTunes Store Credit (or, for any 10 Settlement Class Member who no longer maintains an iTunes account, a cash refund), in an 11 amount equal to the aggregate total of all Qualified Game Currency Charges within a single forty-12 five (45) day period for which they have not previously received a refund (“Aggregate Relief”).
13 See Agreement, § V.A.2. At their election, Settlement Class Members who currently maintain an 14 iTunes account and who are claiming Aggregate Relief totaling $30 or more may choose to 15 receive a cash refund in lieu of an iTunes Store Credit. Id.

16 Settlement Class members seeking Aggregate Relief are required to submit a properly 17 executed online Claim Form that sets forth, among other things, the Settlement Class Member’s 18 name, address, and Apple ID. See id. § V.A.2. Much of this information is pre-populated through 19 the use of a personalized claim number that corresponds to the direct e-mail Notice. Settlement 20 Class Members shall also be required to identify the Qualified App, date of purchase, and 21 purchase price for each Qualified Game Currency Charge for which credit is sought, and attest 22 that they: (a) paid for each claimed Qualified Game Currency Charge; (b) did not knowingly 23 enter their iTunes password to authorize any such purchase and did not give their password to the 24 minor to make such purchase; and (c) have not already received a refund from Apple for the 25 claimed Qualified Game Currency Charges. See id. § V.B.2. Settlement Class Members may 26 obtain complete records of their In-App Purchases in iTunes by: (1) selecting “View My Apple 27 ID” from the iTunes “Store” menu, (2) entering their Apple IDs and associated passwords, and 28

1 (3) clicking “See All” under the heading titled “Purchase History.” See id. § V.B.2.d. The 2 interactive settlement website guides the Class Member through each of these steps.

3 In addition, the Settlement Class members may request refunds for Qualified Game
4 Currency Charges that occurred after the forty-five (45) day period in a claim for Aggregate 5 Relief, as explained in Section IV.A., above. See Agreement, § V.B.2.c.

6 In short, every Settlement Class Member has the opportunity to be made whole now 7 through this Settlement.³

8 2. $5 Credit Relief

9 In the alternative to the Aggregate Relief, Settlement Class Members may elect to receive 10 an iTunes Store Credit in the amount of five dollars (“$5 Credit Relief”). See Agreement, 11 § V.A.1. Where a Settlement Class Member no longer maintains an active iTunes account, Apple 12 will pay $5 in cash. Settlement Class Members seeking this $5 Credit Relief must file a valid 13 electronic Claim Form, setting forth the Settlement Class Member’s name, address, and Apple ID.
14 Settlement Class Members must attest that they: (a) paid for Qualified Game Currency Charges 15 that a minor charged to their iTunes account without their knowledge or permission; (b) did not 16 knowingly enter their iTunes password to authorize any such purchases and did not give their 17 password to the minor to make such purchases; and (c) have not already received a refund from 18 Apple for those Qualified Game Currency Charges. See id. § V.B.1. The $5 Credit Relief is 19 fixed at $5 regardless of actual Qualified Game Currency Charges, whether more or less than $5, 20 to provide a simplified claims process for Settlement Class Members that suffered lower levels of 21 losses.

22 3. Non-Monetary Relief

23 Among the most important features of this Settlement is information provided to Apple’s 24 consumers. As part of the Settlement, the Notice provides instructions concerning the use of 25 Apple’s parental controls, which may be set to disable In-App Purchases on an iOS device or to

26 _____
27 ³ To be valid, Claim Forms must be submitted within one hundred and eighty (180) days

Period”). Agreement, § V. C (describing “Claims Period”).

1 require a password before every In-App Purchase transaction. This additional relief was provided
2 to over 28 million iTunes Account Holders, and will facilitate the prevention of future
3 unauthorized In-App Purchases by minors in the future. See Agreement, § X.B.

4 4. Payment of Notice Costs, Costs of Administration, Attorneys' Fees,
5 Costs and Service Awards

6 Apple will pay all of the costs of notice and all costs associated with administering the 7 settlement. See Agreement, §§ V.D., VII.D. Apple also agrees to pay, subject to this Court's 8 approval, an award to Class Counsel of attorneys' fees and costs in the amount of $1.3 million.
9 Apple also will pay a service award to each named Plaintiff in the amount of $1,500. See id. The 10 attorneys' fees and costs, service awards, and notice and claims administration costs are all 11 separate from and do not in any way diminish the Settlement Class's recovery. See id. § VIII.A.
12 Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorneys' Fees (ECF Nos. 115, 116) is scheduled to be heard concurrently 13 with this Motion for Final Approval.

14 B. The Risks to Maintaining Class Certification Status Throughout the Trial
15 Warrants Approval

16 While Class Counsel firmly believe a litigation class would have ultimately been certified, 17 Plaintiffs fully expected Apple to mount significant opposition to class certification.

18 In particular, Apple was likely to contend that individual issues surrounding the In-App 19 Purchases of Game Currency would predominate over the common issues so as to defeat 20 certification under Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure namely, that 21 determining whether an In-App Purchase was made by a minor or a parent, and whether the 22 minor's purchase was made with the knowledge and permission of the account holder, would 23 require individualized factual determinations. In addition, Plaintiffs expected that Apple would 24 argue that its iTunes Terms and Conditions require (1) account holders to be solely responsible 25 for maintaining the confidentiality and secrecy of their respective accounts and passwords and 26 (2) include a disclaimer that Apple is not responsible for any losses arising out of the 27 "unauthorized" use on an account – an argument, which, if accepted, may also have raised 28 individualized considerations. While, in Class Counsel's opinion, these contentions could have

1 been overcome using classwide proof from Apple's internal recordkeeping and transaction data, 2 Apple's arguments nonetheless posed a risk that certification would not have been maintained 3 through trial.

4 The Settlement, however, eliminates these risks to Class Members. Through the submittal 5 of the Claim Form, each Settlement Class Member is able to identify losses in connection with 6 purchases made by a minor without their knowledge and permission, and to obtain a full refund.
7 In addition, through the Notice, Settlement Class Members are made aware of protections to 8 prevent future unauthorized In-App Purchases stemming from the conduct at issue here. Apple 9 will provide refunds for those Qualified Game Currency Charges to those Settlement Class 10 Members who submit timely Claim Forms regardless of the iTunes Terms and Conditions.

11 C. The Risk, Expense and Duration of the Litigation and Trial Highlights the 12 Reasonableness of the Settlement and Warrants Approval

13 Beyond the potentially compelling challenges to class certification, Apple sought to limit 14 its liability based on the premise that it only operates the electronic storefront through which In-15 App Purchases are made. According to Apple, parents' complaints concerning In-App Purchases
16 arise from programming decisions made by third-party app developers and, in this regard, Apple 17 plays no direct role in creating the content or features of the In-App Purchase at issue in this 18 litigation. While Class Counsel contend that the crux of this case concerns activity at the point of 19 sale, which is controlled by Apple, the resolution of this dispute had the potential to dramatically 20 increase the complexities of this case on the merits (and for class certification).

21 Similarly, the Qualified Apps have varying content and disclosures regarding the 22 availability of In-App Purchases. Thus, Apple contends these disclosures adequately notified 23 iTunes Account Holders of In-App Purchases, and that they were available within the app
24 regardless of its free or nominal cost. These disclosures, especially as they relate to In-App 25 Purchases outside the 15-minute window, presented challenges to the sustainability of the fraud 26 based claims, according to Apple. Plaintiffs expected that they could overcome these challenges, 27 but these challenges did present risks on the merits, as well as the risk that recovery would be 28 limited before the termination of the Class Period.

1 Finally, all of these issues adhere in the agreement between Apple and the iTunes Account
2 Holder set forth in the iTunes Terms and Conditions. Apple vigorously argues that it is not liable 3 for any “unauthorized” purchase on an iTunes Account Holder’s account. The Terms and 4 Conditions disclaim liability for any losses arising out of the unauthorized purchases on the 5 account, which is based primarily on the premise that each iTunes Account Holder is solely 6 responsible for the security of his or her account and secrecy of his or her password. While Class
7 Counsel presented substantial arguments surrounding the presentation and sales of Game
8 Currency that would likely have overcome this challenge, the risk affected the Parties’ positions
9 in the settlement negotiations. See generally Defendant Apple Inc.’s Motion To Dismiss 10 Plaintiffs’ Consolidated Class Action Complaint (“Motion to Dismiss”), ECF No. 37.

11 Thus, in sum, while Plaintiffs view their claims as strong, and although their claims 12 survived Apple’s Motion to Dismiss (with the exception of the breach of the implied covenant 13 claim, which was dismissed with leave to re-plead, see ECF No. 66), Apple maintained fact-based 14 defenses as to its liability or designed to shift liability to other parties. These defenses would 15 have complicated the litigation and reduced the likelihood of recovery for the Settlement Class.
16 These risks are alleviated through this Settlement, if approved by the Court.

17 D. The Parties Bargained in Good Faith, and There was No Collusion

18 Courts recognize that the opinion of experienced counsel supporting the settlement is 19 entitled to considerable weight, although, of course, a district court should not simply rubber 20 stamp stipulated settlements. INTUIT, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 93989, at *12-13; Nat’l Rural 21 Telecomms., Coop. v. DirectTV, Inc., 221 F.R.D. 523, 528 (C.D. 2004) (accorded “great weight” 22 to the recommendation of counsel). In recommending the Settlement, Class Counsel exercised 23 their judgment based on extensive knowledge of the facts of the case, the legal issues involving 24 the Class, and their evaluation of the strengths and weaknesses of the case. When comparing the 25 litigation and class certification risks to the exceptional relief being provided to Settlement Class 26 Members through the Settlement, Class Counsel readily concluded that the terms of the 27 Agreement are fair, reasonable, and adequate.

1 The Court must also be satisfied that “the settlement is not the product of collusion among 2 the negotiating parties” when, as here, “a settlement agreement is negotiated prior to formal class
 3 certification.” In re Bluetooth Headset Prods. Liab. Litig., 654 F.3d 935, 946-47 (9th Cir. 2011)

 6 action settlement and fee request). Factors considered here include whether the settlement 7 resulted from arm’s-length negotiations between experienced, capable counsel;⁴ the end result 8 achieved;⁵ and whether counsel are to receive a disproportionate distribution of the settlement 9 under a “clear sailing” arrangement providing for the payment of attorneys’ fees separate and 10 apart from class funds where funds not awarded revert to defendants rather than to the class. In re

 13 of class action settlement and fee request). Applying these factors favors approval here.

14 The Settlement is the result of serious, informed, non-collusive negotiations conducted in 15 good faith. See Agreement at 3. The parties actively engaged in many rounds of arm’s-length 16 negotiations for over four and a half months, including two full-day, in-person mediation sessions 17 and numerous phone calls and conferences. These efforts were conducted under the supervision 18 and assistance of two private mediators from JAMS. Co-Lead Counsel and counsel for Apple are 1 experienced class action litigators who recognize this compromise as being in the best interests of 2 their respective clients.

3 Secondly, the parties worked long and hard to reach a resolution of this matter. The end
4 result speaks for itself – a Settlement that provides a full refund of Qualified Game Currency 5 Charges available to every member of the Settlement Class. In the end, there was little more to 6 be gained through further litigation. As this Court kindly noted when granting preliminary 7 approval, and Class Counsel agree, the relief is “adequate, if not exceptional.” ECF No. 104 at 8 7:3.

9 Turning to the third Bluetooth factor, Apple has agreed to separately pay any award of 10 attorneys’ fees and expenses up to $1.3 million, and service awards to Class Representatives of 11 $1,500 each, not to exceed $7,500.⁶ This payment by Apple reflects none of the concerns 12 expressed by the Ninth Circuit in Bluetooth. See In re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 947. There are 13 structural protections associated with the Agreement in this case. First, attorneys’ fees and 14 expenses were not negotiated until after the parties had agreed on all principal terms of the 15 Settlement. See Declaration of Simon Bahne Paris in Support of Application for Attorneys’ Fees
16 and Reimbursement of Expenses (ECF No. 116-4), ¶10. These fees and expenses did not 17 influence the course of negotiations regarding the Settlement benefits to the Class since the 18 refund relief was agreed upon prior to commencement of any such negotiations. Second, the 19 attorneys’ fees that Class Counsel will ask the Court to approve reflect reasonable compensation 20 for the exceptional relief obtained, and the hours expended to obtain it, which exclude 21 compensable time related to the preparation of the Motion for Attorneys’ Fees (ECF No. 115) and 22 this Motion for Final Approval. Furthermore, while the claims period is open until January 13, 23 2014, to date there have 33,521 claims filed. See KCC Decl. ¶ 17. In addition, this litigation 24 brought about the significant non-monetary benefits discussed above. Thus, while the fee is 25 certainly warranted by the results achieved, an award of less than $1.3 million would serve only

26 _____
27 ⁶ These payments should be granted for the reasons set forth herein, and in Plaintiffs’ 28 Motion for Attorneys’ Fees. ECF Nos. 115-116.

1 to chill the fee-shifting goals of the California statutes Class Counsel employed to deliver full 2 relief to so many. In the end, there is simply no credible argument that the concerns expressed in 3 Bluetooth, that Class Counsel “bargained away something of value to the class” in exchange for 4 the $1.3 million payment for fees and expenses, exists here. See In re Bluetooth, 654 F.3d at 948.

5 E. Class Member Reaction has been Overwhelmingly Positive

6 There were 28 million direct e-mail Summary Notices sent to potential Class Members.
 7 All objections to, and requests to be excluded from, the Settlement were due by August 30, 2013.
 8 See ECF No. 108 at 2:5-6. In total, there are only 339 requests for exclusion and six objections 9 from this universe of 28 million who were provided with direct notice. See KCC Decl. ¶¶15-16, 10 and Exs. F & G thereto. The extremely limited number of both weighs heavily in favor of 11 granting final approval. See In re Netflix Privacy Litig., No. 5:11-CV-00379 EJD, 2013 WL 12 1120801, at *8 (N.D. Cal. Mar. 18, 2013) (Davila, J.) (collecting cases).

13 As it pertains to the six objectors, Class Counsel responds to each as follows:

14 1. Murrey Objection (ECF No. 119) (see KCC Decl. Ex G). After filing a 15 claim for the relief provided under the Settlement, the Murrey Objection raises the following 16 issues: (i) the $1.3 million fees and expense award is excessive; (ii) insufficient detail about the 17 fee request was provided in advance of the deadline for objections; (iii) the Settlement Class has 18 not met its burden that the Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate; (iv) the release is overly 19 broad; and (v) the Settlement Class does not satisfy Rule 23. The Murrey Objection fails as no 20 factual or legal basis is provided to substantiate any portion of this objection.⁷

21 _____
 22 ⁷ As an initial matter, the Murrey Objection is, by all indications, untimely. The 23 Stipulation and Order Adjusting Deadlines (ECF No. 108) provides that (1) “Objections by any 24 settlement class member to the terms of the settlement or the certification of settlement class, the 25 payment of fees to class counsel, or entry of final judgment shall be heard and considered by 26 the Court only if, on or before August 30, 2013, such objector files with the court a notice of 27 the objection;” and (2) the objector must serve copies of the objection such that “all objections 28 must be actually received by counsel for the settlement class on or before August 30, 2013.”
 ECF No. 108 (emphasis added); accord KCC Decl. Ex. A at Item 18 (Long Form Notice) (requiring an “objection and any supporting papers must be mailed to and actually received” by the applicable deadline) (emphasis added). Although on its face the Murrey Objection is dated August 28, 2013, it bears a date-stamp noting that it was received by the Court on September 3, 2013 (see ECF No. 119, KCC Decl. Ex. G), and the docket entry for the Murrey Objection reflects a filing date of September 3, 2013. In addition, the parties’ claims administrator did not

1 The $1.3 million award for attorneys' fees and expenses is not excessive for the reasons 2 stated herein and in Plaintiffs' Motion for Attorneys' Fees. See ECF Nos. 115-116. Because the 3 award of fees and expenses is separate and distinct from any benefit payable to the Settlement
4 Class or the Murrey Objector, they are not aggrieved by any such award and lack Article III
5 standing to challenge it. Glasser v. Volkswagen of Am., Inc., 645 F.3d 1084, 1088 (9th Cir. 2011)
6 (dismissing appeal for objector's lack of Article III standing to challenge separately negotiated 7 and funded fee payment).

8 Even, assuming, arguendo, that Murrey has standing, the Murrey Objection is off-base 9 because it ignores the information provided in the Notice (KCC Decl. Ex. A) at Item 17, which 10 clearly stated that Plaintiffs' application for attorneys' fees and expenses would be available on 11 the settlement website after August 9. This filing was made available immediately after filing 12 with the Court as directed by the Court pursuant to In re Mercury Interactive Corp. Sec. Litig., 13 618 F.3d 988 (9th Cir. 2010). See ECF No. 108. This was completed nearly three weeks before 14 the Murrey Objection was filed. The objection to the requested award of fees and expenses is 15 wholly without merit and should be overruled.

16 The remaining points raised by the Murrey Objection lack merit. The Settlement is fair, 17 reasonable and adequate under the standards of the Ninth Circuit. Because this Settlement affords 18 Settlement Class Members the opportunity to obtain a complete refund of Qualified Game 19 Currency Charges, it is unclear what more the Murrey Objection expects in order to make the 20 Settlement "fair, reasonable and adequate." Similarly, the scope of the Released Claims is 21 narrowly tailored to the claims as set forth in Section IV.F. below, so it is by no means overly 22 broad. There is likewise no basis given to challenge the requirement for certification under Rule 23 23, and that this Court found to be satisfied when granting preliminary approval to the Settlement.
24 See ECF No. 104. Thus, these bases for the Murrey Objection are similarly without merit and 25 should be overruled.

26 (Footnote continued from previous page.)

27 receive the Murrey Objection until after the August 30, 2013 deadline. KCC Decl. ¶ 16 (Murrey 28 Objection was received by KCC on September 3, 2013).

1 2. Jasinski Objection (ECF No. 113) (see KCC Decl. Ex G). The hand-2 written Jasinski Objection fails at the outset, as it does not establish proof of membership in the 3 Class as required by Item 18 of the Notice (KCC Decl. Ex. A). See Moore v. Verizon Commc'ns,
4 Inc., No: C 09-1823 SBA, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 122901, at *33 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 28, 2013)
5 (Armstrong, J.) (“It is well-settled that only class members may object to a class action 6 settlement.” (citing Gould v. Alleco, Inc., 883 F.2d 281, 284 (4th Cir. 1989))); see also 7 Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(e)(5). Absent this threshold showing of standing, the Jasinski Objection 8 should be overruled. Even if the Jasinski Objector is a Settlement Class Member, his objection 9 to the award of fees and expenses fails for the same reasons as the Murrey Objection. See 10 Glasser, 645 F.3d at 1088.

11 The Jasinski Objection appears, incorrectly, to object to the limitation of a $5 or $30 12 recovery, and to the alleged burdens associated with completing the Claim Form. The $5 Credit 13 Relief provides a streamlined claims process as an alternative to filing a Claim Form for a full 14 refund. The $30 threshold, meanwhile, merely describes the level of damages at which a Class 15 Member who currently has an iTunes account may elect to receive his or her refund in the form of 16 cash rather than iTunes credit. There is not a limitation on the actual damages that can be 17 recovered under the Settlement; accordingly, the Jasinski Objection misunderstands the relief 18 provided under the Settlement. For this additional reason, the Jasinski Objection should be 19 overruled.

20 3. Meyer Objection (ECF No. 109) (see KCC Decl. Ex G). The Meyer
21 Objection suffers the same fatal flaw as the Jasinski Objection, as Meyer fails to establish 22 standing as a member of the Settlement Class as required pursuant to Item 18 of the Notice (KCC 23 Decl. Ex. A) and Rule 23(e)(5). See Moore, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 122901, at *33. Also like 24 the Jasinski Objection, the Meyer Objection’s purported understanding of the Settlement is 25 directly contradicted by the settlement’s plain terms available on the website, the FAQs on the 26 settlement website and the Notice. The Meyer Objection objects to Settlement Class Members 27 only receiving a $5 store credit. See ECF No. 109. This objection completely ignores the 28 Aggregate Relief of the Settlement, and as such, it should be overruled.

1 4. Newton Objection (ECF No. 111) (see KCC Decl. Ex G). The Newton
2 Objection opposes any award of fees and expenses over $50,000, and the award of the $1,500 3 stipends to the Class Representatives, suggesting they should only receive the $5 Store Credit for 4 their efforts. Disregarded by the Newton Objectors are the $62,286.16 in expenses incurred by 5 Class Counsel in prosecuting this matter through July 2013; the thousands of hours spent 6 prosecuting the litigation during that time; and the efforts undertaken by the Class 7 Representatives to obtain this relief for the Settlement Class. Although the details of the 8 attorneys' fees, expenses and service awards were made available to the Settlement Class as 9 stated expressly in the Notice (KCC Decl. Ex. A), the Newton Objectors chose to disregard this 10 information and instead launch bald assertions with arbitrary recommendations for an award of 11 fees, expenses and service awards. This objection states nothing of substance and articulates no 12 grounds for the objection, and should be summarily overruled. See Glasser, 645 F.3d at 1088.

13 Like the Jasinski Objection, the Newton Objection also ignores the terms of the 14 Settlement. The relief to the Settlement Class is a full refund of all Qualified Game Currency 15 Charges, but if the Settlement Class Member does not choose to identify those charges, a simple 16 claim for a $5 Store Credit can be made in the alternative. The Newton Objection disregards the 17 Aggregate Relief, which can translate to hundreds or even thousands of dollars to some 18 Settlement Class Members. The Newton Objection is wholly without merit, and should be 19 overruled.

20 5. Schutz Objection (ECF No. 112) (see KCC Decl. Ex G). The Schutz 21 Objection states no basis for the objection or any grounds upon which it is based. Instead, the 22 Schutz Objection criticizes the litigation from the perspective of "personal responsibility and 23 parenting." ECF No. 112. While the omission of a legal basis requires this objection be 24 overruled on its face, it should be noted that the Schutz Objection references the $2 or $3 25 purchase by their daughter as "no big deal." Id. Perhaps the Schutz Objectors' perspective would 26 be different if their daughter had charged hundreds or thousands of dollars in In-App Purchases 27 that would now be recoverable through this Settlement.
28

1 The benefit of a class action settlement is demonstrated by comparing the Schutz 2 Objection and the Waddell Objection, discussed below. The Schutz Objectors have the 3 opportunity to participate in the benefits of the Settlement, but ostensibly chose not to do so in the 4 name of “accountability and responsibility,” and because only $2 or $3 in purchases is “no big 5 deal.” The Waddell Objector, discussed below, is desperate for the right to participate in this 6 Settlement to recover his $272.87.

7 6. Waddell Objection (ECF No. 110) (see KCC Decl. Ex G). The Waddell
8 Objection establishes that Mr. Waddell is unfortunately not a member of the Settlement Class, 9 and the Waddell Objection accordingly should be overruled on its face. See Moore, 2013 U.S.
10 Dist. LEXIS 122901, at *33. The Waddell Objection is essentially a request to expand the Class 11 Period, which ends on May 2, 2013, to include his purchases between May 19-27, 2013. Because 12 the Waddell Objection’s In-App Purchases occurred outside the time period covered by this 13 Settlement, they are not covered by the Settlement and those potential claims are not being 14 released here.

15 F. The Scope of the Settlement Release of Claims is Reasonable and Bounded by 16 the Claims Asserted in the Litigation.

17 Released Claims should only be those made in the operative complaint and those closely 18 related thereto. See, e.g., In re Zoran Corp. Derivative Litig., No. C 06-05503 WHA, 2008 U.S.
19 Dist. LEXIS 48246, at *31 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 7, 2008). The Release provided through this 20 Settlement is so limited. There are two limitations that operate upon a release in a class action, 21 the definition of the class and the language of the release. This case is about Qualified Game 22 Currency Charges, defined in the Agreement to mean Game Currency charged to an iTunes 23 account belonging to a Class Member by a minor without the Class Member’s knowledge or 24 permission. See Agreement, § III.O. The Settlement Class retains this same limitation. Id.
25 § IV.A. This same language also binds the Released Claims to those of the Settlement Class for 26 Qualified Game Currency Charges. Id. § IV.B. As the Settlement provides complete relief for 27 claims relating to Qualified Game Currency Charges, a complete release of claims related to those 28 charges is being provided in exchange.

1 V. CONCLUSION

2 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant final 3 approval of the Settlement. Additionally, for the reasons set forth in Plaintiffs' Motion for 4 Attorneys' Fees (ECF Nos. 115-116), Class Counsel further respectfully request an award of $1.3 5 million in attorneys' fees and expenses, plus an award of $1,500 to each Class Representative to 6 reward them for their time and effort in this successful action. These requests are reasonable and 7 appropriate, and will in no way reduce the benefits provided to the Settlement Class.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

IN RE APPLE IN-APP PURCHASE LITIGATION

This Document Relates to:

ALL ACTIONS

Master File No. 11-cv-1758 EJD
CLASS ACTION
[PROPOSED] FINAL JUDGMENT & ORDER GRANTING FINAL
APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION
SETTLEMENT; AWARD OF ATTORNEYS' FEES, COSTS AND SERVICE AWARDS TO CLASS REPRESENTATIVES

This matter came on for hearing on October 18, 2013 at 9:00 a.m. The Court has considered the Settlement Agreement and Release (“Agreement”), oral and/or written objections and comments received regarding the proposed settlement, the record in the Action and the arguments and authorities of counsel. Good cause appearing,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. The Court, for purposes of this Final Judgment and Order Approving Settlement and Dismissing Claims of Settlement Class Members With Prejudice (“Judgment”), adopts the terms and definitions set forth in the Agreement.

1 2. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action, the Class 2 Representatives, the Settlement Class Members, and defendant Apple Inc. (“Apple”).

3 3. The Court finds that the notice to the Settlement Class of the pendency of the 4 Action and of this settlement, as provided by the Agreement and by an Order of this Court, 5 constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances to all persons and entities within 6 the definition of the Settlement Class, and fully complied with the requirements of Federal Rules 7 of Civil Procedure Rule 23 and due process.

8 4. The Court approves the settlement as set forth in the Agreement and finds that the 9 settlement is in all respects fair, reasonable, and adequate to the Settlement Class Members.

10 5. Pursuant to Rule 23(c), the Settlement Class as finally certified shall be defined as 11 follows:

12 All United States residents who, prior to the date of the 13 Conditional Approval Order, paid for Game Currency charged to 14 their iTunes account by a minor without their knowledge or 15 permission. The Settlement Class excludes Apple, any entity in 16 which Apple has a controlling interest; Apple’s legal 17 representatives, successors, and assigns; and all persons who 18 validly request exclusion from the Settlement Class.

16 6. Consummation of the Settlement shall proceed as described in the Settlement 17 Agreement, and the Court hereby reserves jurisdiction over the subject matter and as to each 18 party to the Settlement Agreement with respect to the interpretation and implementation of the 19 Settlement Agreement for all purposes, including enforcement of any of the terms thereof at the 20 instance of any party and resolution of any disputes that may arise relating in any way to, or 21 arising from, the implementation of the Settlement Agreement or the implementation of this 22 Order.

23 7. The Court adjudges that the payment of attorneys’ fees and expenses in the total 24 amount of _____ to Class Counsel and the payment of a service award to the Class 25 Representatives in the amount of _____ to each is fair, reasonable and adequate, and 26 approves the payment of said attorneys’ fees and costs to Class Counsel and said service 27 awards to Plaintiffs Meguerian, Scott, Koffman, Silverman, and Monroe pursuant to the terms

1 of the Agreement. Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel shall distribute service awards above to each 2 of the Class Representatives and shall distribute the remainder of the monies between or 3 among Class Counsel, as Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel shall determine in their sole discretion 4 based on counsel's relative contributions to the prosecution and settlement of this Action.

5 8. As of the Effective Date, the Class Representatives and all Settlement Class 6 Members shall be forever barred from bringing or prosecuting, in any capacity, any action or 7 proceeding that involves or asserts any of the Released Claims against any Released Person
8 and shall conclusively be deemed to have released and forever discharged the Released 9 Persons from all Released Claims.

10 9. The Class Representatives and all Settlement Class Members shall, as of the 11 Effective Date, conclusively be deemed to have acknowledged that the Released Claims may 12 include claims, rights, demands, causes of action, liabilities, or suits that are not known or 13 suspected to exist as of the Effective Date. The Class Representatives and all Settlement Class 14 Members nonetheless release all such Released Claims against the Released Persons. Further, 15 as of the Effective Date, the Class Representatives and all Settlement Class Members shall be 16 deemed to have waived any and all protections, rights and benefits of California Civil Code 17 section 1542 and any comparable statutory or common law provision of any other 18 jurisdiction.

19 10. The benefits and payments described in Paragraphs 6 and 7 are the only 20 consideration, fees, and expenses Apple or the Released Persons shall be obligated to give to 21 the Class Representatives, Settlement Class Members, and Class Counsel in connection with 22 the Agreement and the payment of attorneys' fees and expenses.

23 11. The Action and all claims asserted in the Action are settled and dismissed on the 24 merits and with prejudice as to the Class Representatives and all Settlement Class Members.
25 Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Judgment does not dismiss any claims that have been or 26 may be asserted in the future by any persons or entities who have validly and timely requested 27 exclusion from the Settlement Class as provided for in the Agreement. A list of persons and 1 entities who validly and timely requested exclusion is on file with this Court.

2 Notwithstanding the dismissal of the Action, Apple shall not claim and may not be awarded 3 any costs, attorneys' fees, or expenses.

4 12. Without affecting the finality of this Judgment in any way, the Court reserves 5 exclusive and continuing jurisdiction over the Action, the Class Representatives, the 6 Settlement Class Members, and Apple for the purposes of supervising the implementation, 7 enforcement, construction, and interpretation of the Agreement, the Court's Order dated 8 _____, 2013, and this Judgment.

9 13. The Agreement and this Judgment are not admissions of liability or fault by 10 Apple or the Released Persons, or a finding of the validity of any claims in the Action or of 11 any wrongdoing or violation of law by Apple or the Released Persons. The Agreement and 12 settlement are not a concession by the Parties and to the extent permitted by law, neither this 13 Judgment, nor any of its terms or provisions, nor any of the negotiations or proceedings 14 connected with it, shall be offered as evidence or received in evidence in any pending or 15 future civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding to establish any liability of, or 16 admission by Apple, the Released Persons, or any of them. Notwithstanding the foregoing, 17 nothing in this Final Judgment shall be interpreted to prohibit the use of this Judgment in a 18 proceeding to consummate or enforce the Agreement or Judgment, or to defend against the 19 assertion of Released Claims in any other proceeding, or as otherwise required by law.

20 14. All other relief not expressly granted to the Settlement Class Members is denied.
