	CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1	Plaintiff, through her undersigned attorneys, brings this lawsuit against Defendant Nestlé
2	USA, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Nestlé") as to their own acts upon personal knowledge and as to all
3	other matters upon information and belief.
4	DEFINITIONS
5	1. "Class Period" is May 4, 2008 to the present.
6	2. "Juicy Juice" is collectively Nestlé Juicy Juice (Apple), which was purchased by
7	Plaintiff during the Class Period, and the other juicy juice flavors: Nestlé Juicy Juice (Apple
8	Raspberry), Nestlé Juicy Juice (Berry), Nestlé Juicy Juice (Cherry), Nestlé Juicy Juice (Grape),
9	Nestlé Juicy Juice (Kiwi Strawberry), Nestlé Juicy Juice (Mango), Nestlé Juicy Juice (Orange
10	Tangerine), Nestlé Juicy Juice (Fruit Punch), Nestlé Juicy Juice (Strawberry Banana), Nestlé
11	Juicy Juice (Tropical) and Nestlé Juicy Juice (White Grape).
12	3. An example picture of Juicy Juice purchased by Plaintiff is attached as Exhibit 1
13	and specific descriptions of the relevant label representations are included below.
14	4. All flavors of Juicy Juice make the exact same label "No Sugar Added" and "All
15	Natural" label representations, violate the exact same regulations and are misleading in the same
16	manner as described herein, and are essentially the exact same product, except for flavor.
17	5. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement this list if evidence is adduced during
18	discovery to show that other flavors of Defendant's Juicy Juice existed during the Class Period
19 20	which had labels which violate the same provisions of the Sherman Law and have the same label
20 21	representation, "All Natural" and "No Sugar Added."
21 22	SUMMARY OF THE CASE
22 23	6. Plaintiff's case has two distinct facets. First, the "misbranding" part. This case
23 24	seeks to recover for the injuries suffered by the Plaintiff and the Class as a direct result of the
2 4 25	Defendant's unlawful sale of misbranded food products. Defendant packaged and labeled its
25 26	Juicy Juice in violation of California's Sherman Law which adopts, incorporates, and is, in all
20 27	relevant aspects, identical to the federal Food Drug & Cosmetic Act, 21 U.S.C. § 301 et seq.
28	("FDCA") and the regulations adopted pursuant to that act. These violations render Defendant's food products "misbranded." Defendant's actions violate the unlawful prong of California's Unfair Competition Law, Cal. Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 ("UCL") and the Consumers Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Code §1750 ("CLRA").

Case3:14-cv-00288-JCS Document1 Filed01/17/14 Page3 of 29

- 7. Under California law, misbranded food products cannot be legally sold or possessed, have no economic value and are legally worthless. Indeed, the sale or possession of misbranded food products is a criminal act in California.
- 8. By selling such illegal products to the unsuspecting Plaintiff, the Defendant profited at the Plaintiff's expense and unlawfully deprived Plaintiff of the money she paid to purchase food products that were illegal to sell, possess or resell and had no economic value.
- 9. The unlawful sale of a misbranded product that was illegal to sell or possess gives rise to causes of action under the UCL and CLRA. In the present case, Plaintiff was injured by the Defendant's illegal sale of its misbranded Juicy Juice. Plaintiff paid money to purchase illegal products that were worthless and could not be legally sold or possessed.
- 14 10. Plaintiff was unwittingly placed in a worse legal situation as a result of 15 Defendant's unlawful sale of illegal products to her. Plaintiff would not have purchased 16 Defendant's Juicy Juice had she known that the product was illegal and could not be lawfully possessed. No reasonable consumer would purchase such a product. The Class suffered the same 18 injuries as Plaintiff due to the Class' purchase of Juicy Juice.
- 19 11. Defendant has violated the Sherman Law § 110760, which makes it unlawful for 20 any person to manufacture, sell, deliver, hold or offer for sale any food that is misbranded. As 21 discussed below, the illegal sale of a misbranded product to a consumer results in an independent 22 violation of the unlawful prong of the UCL and CLRA that is separate and apart from the 23 underlying unlawful labeling practice that resulted in the product being misbranded. Plaintiff 24 reasonably relied on the fact that the Defendant's Juicy Juice was legal to sell and possess and 25 that Defendants' labeling and label claims were legal.
  - 12. Due to Defendant's misbranding and sale of Juicy Juice and Plaintiff's reliance on the Defendants' labels, Plaintiff lost money by purchasing unlawful products.

13. Second, the "misleading" part. In addition to being misbranded under the Sherman Law, Juicy Juice has label statements that are misleading, deceptive and fraudulent. The label statements are "All Natural" and "No Sugar Added."

4 5 6

14. Prior to purchase, Plaintiff reviewed the illegal "All Natural" and "No Sugar Added" statements on the labels of Juicy Juice she purchased, reasonably relied, in substantial part, on this misleading statements, and was thereby misled in deciding to buy Juicy Juice. Plaintiff was deceived into purchasing Juicy Juice in substantial part because of these label statements and because of these statements believed that Juicy Juice was healthier than other similar products and/or healthier than a Juicy Juice without the statements.

10 15. Defendant also misled Plaintiff to believe that Juicy Juice was legal to purchase and possess. Had Plaintiff known that Juicy Juice was misbranded she would not have bought Defendant's Juicy Juice. Plaintiff relied (a) on the Defendant's explicit representations that its product had "All Natural" and was thus healthier than other similar products lacking such statements and/or Juicy Juice without such a statement, and (b) the Defendant's implicit representation based on Defendant's material omission of material facts that Juicy Juice was legal to sell and possess.

17

16. Reasonable consumers would be, and were, misled in the same manner as Plaintiff.

18 17. Defendant had a duty to disclose the illegality of its misbranded products because
(a) it had exclusive knowledge of material facts not known or reasonably accessible to the Plaintiff; and (b) the Defendant actively concealed a material fact from the Plaintiff. The Defendant had a duty to disclose the information required by the labeling laws discussed herein because of the disclosure requirements contained in those laws and because in making its "All Natural" and "No Sugar Added" made partial representations that are misleading because other material facts have not been disclosed.

19. Defendant Nestlé USA, Inc. is a privately held Delaware corporation with its corporate headquarters and principal place of business in Glendale, California.

20. Defendant is a leading producer of retail food products, including Juicy Juice. It sells its food products to consumers through grocery and other retail stores throughout California and the United States.

8 21. California law applies to all claims set forth in this complaint because Nestlé is a 9 California resident and all of the misconduct alleged herein was contrived in, implemented in, and 10 has a shared nexus with California. The formulation and execution of the unlawful and 11 misleading practices alleged herein, occurred in, or emanated from California. Accordingly, 12 California has significant contacts and/or a significant aggregation of contacts with the claims
 13 asserted by Plaintiff and all class members.

22. This Court has original jurisdiction over this action under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d) because this is a class action in which: (1) there are over 100 members in the proposed class;
(2) members of the proposed class have a different citizenship from Defendant; and (3) the claims of the proposed class members exceed $5,000,000 in the aggregate.

BACKGROUND

A. Identical California and Federal Law Regulate Food Labeling

26. Food manufacturers are required to comply with identical state and federal laws and regulations that govern the labeling of food products. First and foremost among these is the FDCA and its labeling regulations, including those set forth in 21 C.F.R. § 101.

27. Pursuant to the Sherman Law, California has expressly adopted the federal labeling requirements as its own and indicated that "[a]ll food labeling regulations and any 10 amendments to those regulations adopted pursuant to the federal act, in effect on January 1, 1993, or adopted on or after that date shall be the food regulations of this state." California Health & 12 Safety Code § 110100.

28. Under both the Sherman Law and FDCA Section 403(a), food is "misbranded" if "its labeling is false or misleading in any particular," or if it does not contain certain information on its label or its labeling. Cal. Health & Safety Law §§ 110660, 110705; 21 U.S.C. § 343.

16 29. In addition to its blanket adoption of federal labeling requirements, California has 17 also enacted a number of laws and regulations that adopt and incorporates specific enumerated 18 federal food laws and regulations. As described herein, Defendant has violated the following 19 Sherman Law sections: California Health & Safety Code § 110390 (unlawful to disseminate false 20 or misleading food advertisements that include statements on products and product packaging or 21 labeling or any other medium used to directly or indirectly induce the purchase of a food 22 product); California Health & Safety Code § 110395 (unlawful to manufacture, sell, deliver, hold 23 or offer to sell any falsely advertised food); California Health & Safety Code §§ 110398 and 24 110400 (unlawful to advertise misbranded food or to deliver or proffer for delivery any food that 25 has been falsely advertised); California Health & Safety Code § 110660 (misbranded if label is 26 false and misleading); California Health & Safety Code § 110665 (misbranded if label fails to 27 conform to the requirements set forth in 21 U.S.C. § 343(q)); California Health & Safety Code §

110670 (misbranded if label fails to conform with the requirements of 21 U.S.C. § 343(r)); California Health & Safety Code § 110705 (misbranded if words, statements and other information required by the Sherman Law are either missing or not sufficiently conspicuous); California Health & Safety Code § 110740 (misbranded if contains artificial flavoring, artificial coloring and chemical preservatives but fails to adequately disclose that fact on label); California Health & Safety Code § 110765 (which makes it unlawful for any person to misbrand any food); California Health & Safety Code § 110770 (unlawful for any person to receive in commerce any food that is misbranded or to deliver or proffer for delivery any such food).

30. Plaintiff's claims are brought for violation of the Sherman Law.

B. FDA Enforcement History

31. In recent years the FDA has become increasingly concerned that food 12 manufacturers have been disregarding food labeling regulations. To address this concern, the 13 FDA elected to take steps. In October 2009, the FDA issued a Guidance for Industry: Letter 14 regarding Point Of Purchase Food Labeling and on March 3, 2010 the FDA issued "Open Letter 15 to Industry from [FDA Commissioner] Dr. Hamburg" to inform the food industry of its concerns 16 and to place the industry on notice that food labeling compliance was an area of enforcement 17 priority. Additionally, the FDA has sent warning letters to the industry, including many of 18 Defendant's peer food manufacturers as well as a December 4, 2009 Warning Letter to Nestle, 19 Inc., for some of the same types of misbranded labels and deceptive labeling claims described 20 herein. 21

32. Defendant did see, or should have seen, these warnings. Defendant did not change its labels in response to any warning letters.

SHERMAN LAW VIOLATIONS AND JUICY JUICE

The Juicy Juice Is Misbranded Under the Sherman Law

25
26
33. The label on the package of Juicy Juice violates the Sherman Law and is therefore misbranded.

27 28

34. The label on the package of Juicy Juice purchased by Plaintiff states "No Sugar

Added" and "All Natural." All packages of Juicy Juice sold in the Class Period have the same "No Sugar Added" and "All Natural" statements.

10

The labels for Defendant's Juicy Juice have "no sugar added" on the front panel so 35. under 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(c)(2), there must be an additional two statements on the label: (1) a statement that the product is not "low calorie" or "calorie reduced" (unless the exception applies) and (2) a statement that directs consumer's attention to the nutrition panels for further information on sugar and calorie content.

36. There is no statement that directs consumer's attention to the nutrition panels for further information on sugar and calorie content on the label of Defendant's Nestlé Juicy Juice (Apple). For this reason, Juicy Juice does not satisfy element (v) of 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(c)(2) and is misbranded.

14

15

16

17

19

37. There is also no statement that the product is not "low calorie" or "calorie reduced" on the label of Defendant's Nestlé Juicy Juice (Apple). This product does not meet the requirements for a "low" or "reduced calorie" food under California and federal law so the exception within the first requirement of 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(c)(2) does not apply. The label must therefore bear such a statement. For this reason, Defendant's Juicy Juice does not satisfy element (v) of 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(c)(2) and is therefore misbranded.

18 38. Juicy Juice is not "low calorie" as defined in 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(b)(2). The label for the 4.23 ounce Juicy Juice purchased by Plaintiff states that this product has a serving size of 60 calories per serving. This exceeds the 40 calorie limit imposed by 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(b)(2) for a product to be considered "low calorie."

- 22 39. No other size or flavor of Nestlé Juicy Juice has less than 60 calories per serving. 23 All exceed the 40 calorie limit imposed by 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(b)(2) for a product to be 24 considered "low calorie." For example, all other sizes of Juicy Juice have even more calories per 25 serving and also exceed 40 calories: 10-oz bottle (140 calories), 46-oz bottle (110 calories), 64-26 oz bottle (110 calories), 6.75-oz box (100 calories), 46-oz can (110 calories). 27
- 28

40. Juicy Juice is not "reduced calorie" as defined in 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(b)(4)(i) and 21 C.F.R. § 101.13(j)(1)(ii) because it does not contain at least 25% fewer calories than an appropriate "market basket" reference product.

10

41. Defendant's violations of the Sherman Law include Defendant's illegal labeling practices which misbrand Juicy Juice as well as the illegal advertising, marketing, distribution, delivery and sale of Defendant's misbranded Juicy Juice to consumers in California and throughout the United States.

42. Defendant could have easily complied with the labeling regulations by simply adding two statements on the label: (1) a statement that the product is not "low calorie" or "calorie reduced" (because the exception does not apply) and (2) a statement that directs consumer's attention to the nutrition panels for further information on sugar and calorie content.

43. Defendant's use of "No Sugar Added" on Juicy Juice also violates the Sherman Law because Defendant is prohibited from making nutrient content claims on food intended specifically for use by infants and children less than two years of age. 21 C.F.R. § 101.13(b)(3) (prohibiting all nutrient content claims on products intended for children under two, except as specifically provided for elsewhere); 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(c)(4) (allowing "No Added Sugar" claims only with respect to dietary supplements or vitamins intended for children under two).

17 18

20

21

22

23

24

25

26

27

28

44. Nutrient content claims on products intended to be consumed by children under two are barred because the nutritional needs of children are very different from those of adults.

45. All such products are misbranded within the meaning of section FDCA § 403(r)(1)(A) and 21 U.S.C. § 43(r)(1)(A) because the labeling includes unauthorized nutrient content claims. The circumstances under which such claims are permitted are defined in 21 C.F.R. §101.60(c). These regulations do not allow the claim for products specifically intended for children under two years of age.

46. Juicy Juice is food intended specifically for use by infants and children less than two years of age. The front of the package even states "Great for Toddlers."

47. FDA regulations authorize the use of a limited number of defined nutrient content claims. In addition, FDA's regulations authorize the use of only certain synonyms for these

Case3:14-cv-00288-JCS Document1 Filed01/17/14 Page10 of 29

1 defined terms. If a nutrient content claim or its synonym is not included in the food labeling 2 regulations, it cannot be used on a label. Only those claims, or their synonyms, that are 3 specifically defined in the regulations may be used. All other claims are prohibited. 21 C.F.R. § 4 101.13(b). 5 48. Only approved nutrient content claims will be permitted on the food label, and all 6 other nutrient content claims will misbrand a food. It should thus be clear which type of claim is 7 prohibited and which permitted. Food manufacturers are on notice that the use of an unapproved 8 nutrient content claim is prohibited conduct. 58 F.R. § 2302. In addition, 21 U.S.C. § 343(r)(2) 9 prohibits using unauthorized undefined terms, and it declares foods that do so to be misbranded. 10 49. Defendant received warning letters from the FDA on December 4, 2009 about 11 similar nutrient content claims on products intended for children under two. This letter states, in 12 relevant part: 13 This product is marketed specifically for children under two years of age, as indicated by the claim "Helps support brain development***In children under two 14 years old," which appears on the product label. The label also bears the nutrient content claim "no sugar added." The circumstances under which a "no sugar 15 added" claim is permitted are defined in 21 CFR 101.60(c). That regulation does not allow the claim for conventional food products intended for use in children 16 under age 2. 21 CFR 101.60(c)(4). Therefore, the claim "no sugar added" 17 misbrands your product. 50. Defendant ignored this warning letter. 18 51. The label on the package of Juicy Juice purchased by Plaintiff states "All Natural." 19 All packages of Juicy Juice sold in the Class Period have the same statement. 20 52. All Juicy Juice sold during the Class Period have contains the following artificial 21 ingredients: ascorbic acid and citric acid. 22 53. All Juicy Juice sold during the Class Period have the "All Natural" statement and 23 contain ascorbic acid and/or citric acid. 24 54. In its rule-making and warning letters to manufacturers, the FDA has repeatedly 25 stated its policy to restrict the use of the term "natural" in connection with added color, synthetic 26 substances and flavors as provided in 21 C.F.R. § 101.22. 27 28

55. The FDA has also repeatedly affirmed its policy regarding the use of the term "natural" as meaning that nothing artificial or synthetic (including all color additives regardless of source) has been included in, or has been added to, a food that would not normally be expected to be in the food.

56. The FDA considers use of the term "natural" on a food label to be truthful and non-misleading when "nothing artificial or synthetic…has been included in, or has been added to, a food that would not normally be expected to be in the food." See 58 FR 2302, 2407, January 6, 1993.

9 57. Any coloring or preservative can preclude the use of the term "natural" even if the
10 coloring or preservative is derived from natural sources. Further, the FDA distinguishes between 11 natural and artificial flavors in 21 C.F.R. § 101.22. California Health & Safety Code § 110740 12 prohibits the use of artificial flavoring, artificial coloring and chemical preservatives unless those 13 ingredients are adequately disclosed on the labeling.

Any coloring or preservative can preclude the use of the term "natural" even if the coloring or preservative is derived from natural sources. Further, the FDA distinguishes between natural and artificial flavors in 21 C.F.R. § 101.22.

The 2009 FOP Guidance Sec. 587.100, which states: "[t]he use of the words 'food color added,' 'natural color,' or similar words containing the term 'food' or 'natural' may be erroneously interpreted to mean the color is a naturally occurring constituent in the food. Since all added colors result in an artificially colored food, we would object to the declaration of any added color as 'food' or 'natural.'"

22 60. Likewise, California Health & Safety Code § 110740 prohibits the use of artificial 23 flavoring, artificial coloring and chemical preservatives unless those ingredients are adequately 24 disclosed on the labeling.

61. 21 C.F.R. § 70.3(f) makes clear that "where a food substance such as beet juice is deliberately used as a color, as in pink lemonade, it is a color additive." Similarly, any coloring or preservative can preclude the use of the term "natural" even if the coloring or preservative is

1 derived from natural sources. The FDA distinguishes between natural and artificial flavors in 21 2 C.F.R. § 101.22. 3 62. The FDA has sent out numerous warning letters to companies in which it has 4 addressed "All Natural" claims. In these letters, the FDA has informed the receiving companies 5 that their products labeled "All Natural" were misbranded where they contained synthetic and 6 artificial ingredients. 7 63. For example, on August 16, 2001, the FDA sent a warning letter to Oak Tree Farm 8 Dairy, Inc. The letter "found serious violations" of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act and 9 Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 101 – Food Labeling (21 CFR 101), and stated in 10 pertinent part: 11 The term "all natural" on the "OAKTREE ALL NATURAL LEMONADE" label 12 is inappropriate because the product contains potassium sorbate. Although FDA has not established a regulatory definition for "natural," we discussed its use in the preamble to the food labeling final regulations (58 Federal Register 2407, January 13 6, 1993, copy enclosed). FDA's policy regarding the use of "natural," means nothing artificial or synthetic has been included in, or has been added to, a food 14 that would not normally be expected to be in the food. The same comment applies to use of the terms "100 % NATURAL" and "ALL NATURAL" on the 15 "OAKTREE REAL BREWED ICED TEA" label because it contains citric acid. 16 http://www.fda.gov/ICECI/EnforcementActions/WarningLetters/2001/ucm178712.htm. 17 64. Defendant knew or should have known of these warning letters and other similar 18 ones. Despite the FDA's numerous warnings to industry, Defendant has continued to sell its 19 Juicy Juice labeled "All Natural" that in fact contains artificial ingredients. 20 65. Defendant's violations of the Sherman Law include Defendant's illegal labeling 21 practices which misbrand Juicy Juice as well as the illegal advertising, marketing, distribution, 22 delivery and sale of Defendant's misbranded Juicy Juice to consumers in California and 23 throughout the United States. 24 66. As a result, consumers, including Plaintiff and the Class, bought products that fail 25 to comply with the mandatory labeling requirements and standards established by law such that 26 the products are misbranded and rendered unfit for sale. 27 Plaintiff and the Class have been damaged by Defendant's illegal conduct in that 67. 28 they purchased misbranded and worthless products that were illegal to sell or possess based on Defendant's illegal labeling of the products and otherwise lost money.

68. Plaintiff reasonably relied on the omission of fact/misrepresentation that Defendant's Juicy Juice were not misbranded under the Sherman Law and were therefore legal to buy and possess. Plaintiff would not have purchased Juicy Juice had she known they were illegal to purchase and possess.

69. Defendant's Juicy Juice is misbranded under Sherman Law § 110660, Sherman Law § 110670 and Sherman Law § 110705. Defendant's act of selling a misbranded product violates Sherman Law § 110760 which prohibits the sale or possession of misbranded products.

10 70. Defendant's sale of misbranded Juicy Juice results in an independent violation of 11 the unlawful prong that is separate from the labeling violation. Plaintiff has two distinct claims 12 under the unlawful prong. The first arises from Defendant's unlawful "All Natural" and "No 13 Sugar Added" label statement on its Juicy Juice. The second is when Plaintiff relied on these 14 claims to her detriment when purchasing Defendant's Juicy Juice. Plaintiff was injured and has a 15 claim arising from the purchase of a product in reliance on the illegal "All Natural" and "No 16 Sugar Added" labeling claims made by Defendant. Plaintiff has been deprived of money in an 17 illegal sale and given a worthless illegal product in return. In addition, due to the law's 18 prohibition of possession of such a product, Plaintiffs has been unwittingly placed by the 19 Defendant's conduct in a legal position that no reasonable consumer would agree to be placed.

B. The "No Sugar Added," and "All Natural" Label Statements on Juicy Juice Are Misleading and Deceptive

22

71. Plaintiff read and relied upon Defendant's front of package "No Sugar Added" label statement on Juicy Juice and Plaintiff was thus deceived.

24 72. 21 C.F.R. § 101.60(c)(1) states that "consumers may reasonably be expected to 25 regard terms that represent that the food contains no sugars or sweeteners e.g., 'sugar free,' or 'no 26 sugar,' as indicating a product which is low in calories or significantly reduced in calories."
27 (emphasis added).

28

73. Because consumers may reasonably be expected to regard terms that represent that the food contains "no sugar added" or sweeteners as indicating a product which is in fact low in calories or significantly reduced in calories, consumers are misled when foods that are not low-calorie as a matter of law are falsely represented, through the use of phrases like "no sugar added" that they are not allowed to bear due to its high calorific levels and absence of mandated disclaimer or disclosure statements.

Case3:14-cv-00288-JCS Document1 Filed01/17/14 Page14 of 29

74. As stated previously, Juicy Juice is not low calorie or significantly reduced in calories.

75. Defendant's conduct misled Plaintiff because, with Defendant failing to include the required disclosure that Juicy Juice is not "low calorie" or "calorie reduced," Plaintiff was misled into believing Defendant's Juicy Juice to be a healthier choice than other similar products or Juicy Juice without such a statement. Plaintiff is conscious of the healthiness of the products she purchases, and Defendant's omitted information deprived Plaintiff of her ability to take into account those foods' contributions, or not, to Plaintiff's total dietary composition.

14 76. Plaintiff reasonably relied on the "No Sugar Added" label representation when 15 making her purchase decision and was misled by the "No Sugar Added" representations as 16 described herein.

17 77. Plaintiff would not have purchased Juicy Juice had she known the truth about this product, i.e., that it was not as healthy as described. Plaintiff had other food alternatives that satisfied such standards and Plaintiff also had cheaper alternatives. Reasonable consumers would have been misled in the same identical manner as Plaintiff.

78. Plaintiff was misled to believe that Juicy Juice was healthier than other similar products and/or healthier than it really was, and, as a result, she purchased Juicy Juice. Plaintiff was misled and deceived through the very means and methods the FDA sought to regulate.

79. Plaintiff and the Class would not have purchased Juicy Juice had they not been misled by Defendant's "No Sugar Added" claim.

80. Plaintiff also read and relied upon Defendant's front of package "All Natural" label statement on Juicy Juice and Plaintiff was thus deceived.

Case3:14-cv-00288-JCS Document1 Filed01/17/14 Page15 of 29

81. Defendant's conduct misled Plaintiff because, with Defendant failing to adequately disclose the presence of artificial ingredients ascorbic acid and citric acid, Plaintiff was misled into believing Defendant's product to be a healthier choice than other similar products and/or Juicy Juice without such statement. Plaintiff is conscious of the healthiness of the products she purchases, and Defendant's misleading "All Natural" statement deprived Plaintiff of her ability to take into account those foods' contributions, or not, to Plaintiff's total dietary composition. Defendant concealed the deleterious attributes of its food, and Plaintiff was misled and deceived, both by Defendant's statements of the healthy attributes ("All Natural") and failure to adequately disclose the added artificial ingredients. Plaintiff was misled by the Defendant's unlawfully prominent display of the ostensible good traits of its product and unlawful failure to disclose the bad.

82. Plaintiff reasonably relied on the "All Natural" label representation when making her purchase decisions and was misled by the "All Natural" representations as described below.

83. Plaintiff would not have purchased Juicy Juice had she known the truth about these products, i.e. that the products were not truly "all natural." Plaintiff had other food alternatives that satisfied such standards and Plaintiff also had cheaper alternatives. Reasonable consumers would have been misled in the same identical manner as Plaintiff.

84. Plaintiff and the Class would not have purchased Juicy Juice had she not been misled by Defendant's unlawful "All Natural" claims and been properly informed by Defendant of the added artificial ingredients in those products, and had she otherwise not have been improperly misled and deceived as stated herein.

85. A reasonable consumer would expect that when Defendant labels its products as "All Natural," the product's ingredients are "natural" as defined by the federal government and its agencies. A reasonable consumer would also expect that when Defendant labels its products as "All Natural" the product ingredients are "natural" according to the common use of that word. A reasonable consumer would, furthermore, expect that "All Natural" products do not contain added artificial ingredients.

86.	Consumers are thus misled into purchasing Defendant's Juicy Juice that are not
"All Natural	" as falsely represented on its labeling.
	PLAINTIFF AND JUICY JUICE
87.	Plaintiff cares about the nutritional content of food and seeks to maintain a healthy diet.
88.	During the Class Period, Plaintiff spent more than $25.00 on Juicy Juice.
89.	Plaintiff read and reasonably relied on the labels as described herein when buying uicy Juice.	Plaintiff relied on Defendant's labeling and based and justified the decision to purchase De	fendant's products, in substantial part, on these labels.
90.	At point of sale, Plaintiff did not know, and had no reason to know, the truth about
uicy Juice a	s described herein, and the fact Juicy Juice were misbranded as set forth herein.
Plaintiff wou	ald not have bought the products had she known the truth about them.
91.	After Plaintiff learned that Defendant's Juicy Juice were falsely labeled, Plaintiff
topped purc	hasing them.
92.	As a result of Defendant's actions, Plaintiff and thousands of others in California and through	out the United States purchased Juicy Juice.
93.	Defendant's labeling as alleged herein is false and misleading and was designed to ncrease sale	s of the products at issue. Defendant's misrepresentations are part of its systematic abeling prac	ctice and a reasonable person would attach importance to Defendant's misrepresent	ations in determining whether to buy Juicy Juice.
94.	A reasonable person would also attach importance to whether Defendant's roducts we	"e "misbranded," i.e. , legally salable, and capable of legal possession, and to Defendant's	representations about these issues in determining whether to purchase the products at ssue. Plainti	ff would not have purchased Defendant's products had she known she were not apable of b	eing legally sold or held.
95.	Plaintiff had cheaper alternatives available and paid an unwarranted premium for Juicy Juice.

1 96. The flavors of Juicy Juice sold by Defendant during the Class Period are 2 essentially the same product as, except for flavor, including making the same "All Natural" and 3 "No Sugar Added" statements, are misbranded in the same way as described herein, misleading in 4 the same way, and violate the same regulations in the same manner as described herein. 5 DEFENDANT HAS VIOLATED CALIFORNIA LAW 6 97. Defendant has violated California Health & Safety Code § 110390 which makes it 7 unlawful to disseminate false or misleading food advertisements that include statements on 8 products and product packaging or labeling or any other medium used to directly or indirectly 9 induce the purchase of a food product. 10 98. Defendant has violated California Health & Safety Code § 110395 which makes it 11 unlawful to manufacture, sell, deliver, hold, sell or offer to sell any falsely advertised food. 12 99. Defendant has violated California Health & Safety Code §§ 110398 and 110400 13 which make it unlawful to advertise misbranded food or to deliver or proffer for delivery any 14 food that has been falsely advertised. 15 100. Defendant has violated California Health & Safety Code § 110660 because its 16 labeling is false and misleading in one or more ways, as follows: 17 Defendant's Juicy Juice are misbranded under California Health & Safety a. 18 Code § 110665 because its labeling fails to conform to the requirements for nutrient labeling set 19 forth in 21 U.S.C. § 343(q) and the regulations adopted thereto; 20 b. Defendant's Juicy Juice are misbranded under California Health & Safety 21 Code § 110670 because its labeling fails to conform with the requirements for nutrient content 22 and health claims set forth in 21 U.S.C. § 343(r) and the regulations adopted thereto; and 23 Defendant's Juicy Juice are misbranded under California Health & Safety c. 24 Code § 110705 because words, statements and other information required by the Sherman Law to 25 appear on its labeling either are missing or not sufficiently conspicuous. 26 27 28

1	101. Defendant has violated California Health & Safety Code § 110760 which makes it
2	unlawful for any person to manufacture, advertise, distribute, hold, sell or offer for sale, any food
3	that is misbranded.
4	102. Defendant has violated California Health & Safety Code § 110765 which makes it
5	unlawful for any person to misbrand any food.
6	103. Defendant has violated California Health & Safety Code § 110770 which makes it
7	unlawful for any person to receive in commerce any food that is misbranded or to deliver or
8	proffer for deliver any such food.
9	CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS
10	104. Plaintiff brings this action as a class action pursuant to Federal Rule of Procedure
11	23(b)(2) and 23(b)(3) on behalf of the following "class:"
12 13	All persons in the United States since May 4, 2008 who purchased Juicy Juice with labels that state "All Natural" and "No Sugar Added"
14	105. The products listed in the class are referred to as the "Juicy Juice."
15	106. The following persons are expressly excluded from the class: (1) Defendant and
16	its subsidiaries and affiliates; (2) all persons who make a timely election to be excluded from the
17	proposed class; (3) governmental entities; and (4) the Court to which this case is assigned and its
18	staff.
19	107. This action can be maintained as a class action because there is a well-defined
20	community of interest in the litigation and the proposed class is easily ascertainable.
21	108. Numerosity: Based upon Defendant's publicly available sales data with respect to
22	the misbranded products at issue, it is estimated that the class numbers in the thousands and that
23	joinder of all class members is impracticable.
24	109. Common Questions Predominate: This action involves common questions of law
25	and fact applicable to each class member that predominate over questions that affect only
26	individual class members. Thus, proof of a common set of facts will establish the right of each
27	class member to recover. Questions of law and fact common to each class member include, just
28	for example:

	Case3:14-cv-00288-JCS Document1 Filed01/17/14 Page19 of 29
1	a. Whether Juicy Juice are misbranded under the Sherman Law;
2	b. Whether Defendants violated the Sherman Law;
3	c. Whether Defendant made unlawful and/or misleading claims with respect to its Juicy Juice sold to consumers;
4	d. Whether Defendant engaged in unlawful and misleading, unfair or
5	deceptive business practices by failing to properly package and label its Juicy Juice sold to consumers;
6	e. Whether Defendant violated California Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq.,
7	California Bus. & Prof. Code § 17500 et seq. , the Consumers Legal Remedies Act, Cal. Civ. Code §1750 et seq. , and the Sherman Law;
8	f. Whether Plaintiff and the class are entitled to equitable and/or injunctive
9	relief; and
10	g. Whether Defendant's unlawful and misleading, unfair and/or deceptive practices harmed Plaintiff and the class.
11	110. Typicality: Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the class because Plaintiff
12
13	bought Defendant's Juicy Juice during the Class Period. Defendant's unlawful, misleading,
14	unfair and/or fraudulent actions concern the same business practices described herein irrespective
15	of where she occurred or were experienced. Plaintiff and the class sustained similar injuries
16	arising out of Defendant's conduct in violation of California law. The injuries of each member of
17	the class were caused directly by Defendant's wrongful conduct. In addition, the factual
18	underpinning of Defendant's misconduct is common to all class members and represents a
19	common thread of misconduct resulting in injury to all members of the class. Plaintiff's claims
20	arise from the same practices and course of conduct that give rise to the claims of the class
21	members and are based on the same legal theories.
22	111. Adequacy: Plaintiff will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the class.
23	Neither Plaintiff nor Plaintiff's Counsel have any interests that conflict with or are antagonistic to
24	the interests of the class members. Plaintiff has retained highly competent and experienced class
25	action attorneys to represent their interests and those of the members of the class. Plaintiff and
26	Plaintiff's counsel have the necessary financial resources to adequately and vigorously litigate
27	this class action, and Plaintiff and counsel are aware of their fiduciary responsibilities to the class
28	members and will diligently discharge those duties by vigorously seeking the maximum possible

l

recovery for the class.

2 112. Superiority: There is no plain, speedy or adequate remedy other than by 3 maintenance of this class action. The prosecution of individual remedies by members of the class 4 will tend to establish inconsistent standards of conduct for Defendant and result in the impairment 5 of class members' rights and the disposition of its interests through actions to which they were 6 not parties. Class action treatment will permit a large number of similarly situated persons to 7 prosecute their common claims in a single forum simultaneously, efficiently and without the 8 unnecessary duplication of effort and expense that numerous individual actions would engender. 9 Further, as the damages suffered by individual members of the class may be relatively small, the 10 expense and burden of individual litigation would make it difficult or impossible for individual 11 members of the class to redress the wrongs done to them, while an important public interest will 12 be served by addressing the matter as a class action. Class treatment of common questions of law 13 and fact would also be superior to multiple individual actions or piecemeal litigation in that class 14 treatment will conserve the resources of the Court and the litigants, and will promote consistency 15 and efficiency of adjudication. 16

113. The prerequisites to maintaining a class action for injunctive or equitable relief pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2) are met as Defendant has acted or refused to act on grounds 18 generally applicable to the class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive or equitable relief 19 with respect to the class as a whole.

114. The prerequisites to maintaining a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3) are met as questions of law or fact common to class members predominate over any questions affecting only individual members, and a class action is superior to other available methods for fairly and efficiently adjudicating the controversy.

24 115. Plaintiff and Plaintiff's counsel are unaware of any difficulties that are likely to be 25 encountered in the management of this action that would preclude its maintenance as a class 26 action.

Plaintiff incorporates by reference each allegation set forth above. 6 128. Defendant's conduct as set forth herein constitutes unfair business acts and 7 practices. 8 129. Defendant sold Juicy Juice in California and the United States during the Class 9 Period. 10 130. Plaintiff and members of the class suffered a substantial injury by virtue of buying 11 Defendant's Juice that she would not have purchased absent Defendant's illegal conduct. 12 131. Defendant's deceptive marketing, advertising, packaging and labeling of its Juicy 13 Juice and its sale of unsalable misbranded products that were illegal to possess was of no benefit 14 to consumers, and the harm to consumers and competition is substantial. 15 132. Defendant sold Plaintiff and Juicy Juice that were not capable of being legally sold 16 or held and that were legally worthless. 17 Plaintiff and the class who purchased Defendant's Juicy Juice had no way of 133. 18 reasonably knowing that the products were misbranded and were not properly marketed, 19 advertised, packaged and labeled, and thus could not have reasonably avoided the injury each of 20 them suffered. 21 134. The consequences of Defendant's conduct as set forth herein outweigh any 22 justification, motive or reason therefore. Defendant's conduct is and continues to be immoral, 23 unethical, unscrupulous, contrary to public policy, and is substantially injurious to Plaintiff and 24 the class. Plaintiff and the class paid a premium price for Juicy Juice. 25 135. As a result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff and the class, pursuant to Business 26 and Professions Code § 17203, are entitled to an order enjoining such future conduct by 27 Defendant, and such other orders and judgments which may be necessary to disgorge Defendant's 28

1 ill-gotten gains and restore any money paid for Defendant's Juicy Juice by Plaintiff and the class. 2 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION 3 Business and Professions Code § 17200 et seq. - Fraudulent Business Acts and Practices 4 136. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each allegation set forth above. 5 137. Defendant's conduct as set forth herein constitutes fraudulent business practices 6 under California Business and Professions Code sections § 17200 et seq. 7 138. Defendant sold Juicy Juice in California and the United States during the Class 8 Period. 9 Defendant's misleading marketing, advertising, packaging and labeling of Juicy 139. 10 Juice and misrepresentation that the products were salable, capable of possession and not 11 misbranded were likely to deceive reasonable consumers, and in fact, Plaintiff and members of 12 the class were deceived. Defendant has engaged in fraudulent business acts and practices. 13 140. Defendant's fraud and deception caused Plaintiff and the class to purchase 14 Defendant's Juice that they would otherwise not have purchased had they known the true 15 nature of those products. 16 141. Defendant sold Plaintiff and the class Juicy Juice that were not capable of being 17 sold or held legally and that were legally worthless. Plaintiff and the class paid a premium price 18 for Juicy Juice. 19 142. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each allegation set forth above. 27 144. Plaintiff asserts this cause of action for violations of California Business and 28

Professions Code § 17500 et seq. for misleading and deceptive advertising against Defendant.

145. Defendant sold Juicy Juice in California and the United States during the Class Period.

146. Defendant engaged in a scheme of offering Defendant's Juicy Juice for sale to Plaintiff and members of the class by way of, inter alia, product packaging and labeling, and other promotional materials. These materials misrepresented and/or omitted the true contents and nature of Defendant's Juicy Juice. Defendant's advertisements and inducements were made within California and come within the definition of advertising as contained in Business and Professions Code §17500 et seq. in that such product packaging and labeling, and promotional materials were intended as inducements to purchase Defendant's Juicy Juice and are statements disseminated by Defendant to Plaintiff and the class that were intended to reach members of the class. Defendant knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that these statements were misleading and deceptive as set forth herein.

147. In furtherance of its plan and scheme, Defendant prepared and distributed within California and nationwide via product packaging and labeling, and other promotional materials, statements that misleadingly and deceptively represented the composition and the nature of Defendant's Juicy Juice. Plaintiff and the class necessarily and reasonably relied on Defendant's materials, and were the intended targets of such representations.

19 148. Defendant's conduct in disseminating misleading and deceptive statements in 20 California and nationwide to Plaintiff and the class was and is likely to deceive reasonable consumers by obfuscating the true composition and nature of Defendant's Juicy Juice in violation 22 of the "misleading prong" of California Business and Professions Code § 17500 et seq.

23 149. As a result of Defendant's violations of the "misleading prong" of California 24 Business and Professions Code § 17500 et seq., Defendant has been unjustly enriched at the 25 expense of Plaintiff and the class. Defendant engaged in a scheme of offering Defendant's Juicy Juice for sale to 12 Plaintiff and the class by way of product packaging and labeling, and other promotional materials. 13 These materials misrepresented and/or omitted the true contents and nature of Defendant's Juicy 14 Juice. Defendant's advertisements and inducements were made in California and come within the 15 definition of advertising as contained in Business and Professions Code §17500 et seq. in that the 16 product packaging and labeling, and promotional materials were intended as inducements to 17 purchase Defendant's Juicy Juice, and are statements disseminated by Defendant to Plaintiff and 18 the class. Defendant knew, or in the exercise of reasonable care should have known, that these 19 statements were untrue. 20 155. In furtherance of its plan and scheme, Defendant prepared and distributed in 21 California and nationwide via product packaging and labeling, and other promotional materials, 22 statements that falsely advertise the composition of Defendant's Juicy Juice, and falsely 23 misrepresented the nature of those products. Plaintiff and the class were the intended targets of 24 such representations and would reasonably be deceived by Defendant's materials. 25 156. 	157. As a result of Defendant's violations of the "untrue prong" of California Business and Prot	fessions Code § 17500 et seq., Defendant has been unjustly enriched at the expense of Plaintiff	and the class. Misbranded products cannot be legally sold or held and are legally worthles	ss. Plaintiff and the class paid a premium price for Juicy Juice.

any othe	er relief deemed appropriate and proper by the Court pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1780.
1	162. Defendant's actions, representations and conduct have violated, and continue to 20 Plaintiff requests that the Court enjoin Defendant from continuing to employ the 170. unlawful methods, acts and practices alleged herein pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1780(a)(2).
