Hi Fran

I've had a good look through your site; you're doing a lot of good work out there!

We cancelled their accreditation on 24 October 2013 as they failed to abide by the agreed standards and ethics expected of a teaching institution. This is the message we have put on our website Clients page. Unfortunately, I am unable to expand on this as it would conflict with our own standards and ethics relating to client (and former client) confidentiality.

Hopefully, some former TEFL Institute employee or associate not constrained by confidentiality will get wind of what you are doing and will be able to help you.

Kind regards

Dear Accreditat,

I am editor of a national nonprofit consumer news and advocacy website called TruthinAdvertising.org. I am researching a story about TEFL Institute based in Chicago of which we have received a complaint and I would like to talk with your organization about specifically why it cancelled TEFL's accreditation. Thanks so much for any help you can provide.
