

Welcome to Vemma®!

For 16 years, New Vision has been committed to providing products to better your health and business. That's why we continually assess our operations based on trends established by our Team Members and Consumers. After careful consideration, we've decided to transfer New Vision business operations to our sister Company, Vemma Nutrition Company.

Vemma is an international leader in premium liquid nutrition, positioned for abundant growth with a strong product line and an unparalleled business opportunity. And like New Vision, Vemma is focused on helping people live a better quality of life. We know you'll love being part of the Vemma family!
