Everybody wants a nice lifestyle. Nice home, car, vacations. Have enough money to take care of family/close friends. Everyone would like to pay off their parents home & get their mom anything she wants. Yet barely anyone ever accomplishes anything throughout their entire time on earth.

3% of this country own 97% of all the wealth. Majority of Americans are unhealthy, out of shape, obese, sick, tired, & broke.

This is America, the land of opportunity & making your dream a reality. Sitting on the plane this morning everyone is reading US Weekly & People & entertainment magazines & ooooing & awwwwwing with "celebrities" & "rich people's" lavish lifestyles. How about create that lifestyle for yourself instead of reading about someone else's.

Get off your butt & work hard. Stop moaning, complaining, bitching about the economy, the president, the country. You are a human being if you aren't happy with something in your life change it. Make a choice & then make it happen.

Life is so damn simple it's ridiculous. Parents, media, society corrupt the youth into thinking small, playing it safe, living below your means, living a nice mediocre half ass life. Makes me sick. Find your passion & bust your ass.

We are GODS highest form of creation. Capable of becoming anything or anyone. Stop making excuses & start working hard.

There is NO secret to success. It comes from working you're butt off, figuring out what you want in life, setting scary goals, stop listening to people who are brain dead on becoming successful & be willing to die for what you believe in & what your are attempting to accomplish.

Wake the hell up. WE have one life to live. Make it count.

Leon J. Hamm Hope this works. Then Greg Broersma can pay off our house and buy his Mom any thing she wants. I'm helping her make a list now. It took a lot of convincing but she wants a boat. And since Greg is buying.....we're gonna need a gas card too.

Alex Morton Never said money is everything. VEMMA will help your migraines & family is my #1 priority. Have a blessed day.

Julian P. Doan Money isn't everything but not having it is. Reality is to take care of the things we care about ie. family, god, friends, health, our passions takes money. That's why we talk about money cause once money is taken care of so is everything else.

March 14, 2013 at 4:57pm · 10

Patsy Juliot Show me proof that Vemma will help with the Migraines and I will gladly try it. I did not say you specifically said anything, just added my own thoughts on the issue I was tagged on to. You have a Blessed day as well.

Patsy Juliot Any research by physicians?

March 14, 2013 at 5:02pm

Julian P. Doan Lol I'm not in vemma but I know Alex Morton is killing it and his mentor Brad Alkazin is 26 and is a millionaire selling drinks.

Patsy Juliot And there are only 2 stories about migraines and for what I suffer from, which is chronic daily migraine (with a long detailed list of bla bla bla) I would need a lot more research and doctor recommendation before I add it with the medications and treatments I am currently on. But thank you anyway.

Alyakim M Meadows Anna clearly does not understand how the system works your not selling drinks.

Bruce Gardner I like Vemma, and think it's a terrific opportunity. But a word of caution - do not make a single medical claim, such as "VEMMA will help your migraines" unless you have evidence from a clinical study to back it up, else you'll have the FDA giving you ... See More

Nick Olivier Wow Alex, looks like you have everything figured out. Good for you. Nothing you say is wrong, just unrealistic. But positivity is the key. I agree with you on that. I disagree that Vema is the answer to anything, just a pyramidish like thing that you have to spend money to make money

Patsy Juliot So Julian Doan if it is such a great money maker, why aren't you doing it?

March 14, 2013 at 6:17pm

Austin Pearce Nick have you ever heard the saying "It takes money to make money?" Try opening a business and tell me it doesn't cost you something haha what a joke bro

Austin Pearce Anna Lochmiller I'm enlisted in the Marine Corps and I do Verve. Also, there are plenty of people already in the military that are doing Vemma, so what's your point? Do you have one? Or are you just saying that people who aren't going into the military are "straight ignorant?"
