Prevagen® Receives 2014 Vity Award for the Best Brain Support Formula

Posted on June 2, 2014

Madison, WI (June 2014) — Quincy Bioscience, a biotechnology company located in Madison, Wis., is proud to announce that Prevagen® is the 2014 recipient of the Vity Award for the best brain support formula.

Vity Awards are given each year by Vitamin Retailer magazine, the leading trade publication in the vitamin/supplement industry. Awards are voted on by retailer readers across the country.

“We are thrilled that Prevagen is a three-time Vity Award winner for the best brain support supplement,” said Mark Underwood, president and co-founder of Quincy Bioscience. “We routinely hear from people telling us how Prevagen helps their thinking, concentration, and memory. We thank our retail partners who help communicate the value of Prevagen to their customers who are concerned with keeping their brains sharp.”

For over six years, Quincy Bioscience has been promoting the benefits of the unique memory ingredient called apoaeguorin the main ingredient in Prevagen, the company’s flagship product.

Backed with published safety and efficacy studies, Prevagen has sold over two million bottles nationwide in health food stores, pharmacies, and physician offices since the product was launched in 2007.
