Read the Dramatic Stories of People Taking Control of Their Health, Fighting Disease and Gaining Optimal Health.

Every day we receive stories and appreciation from numerous people who have benefited from Jeunesse Reserve and overcome health issues and optimized their health. You too can improve your health as these people and so many others have...

With all the positive effects of resveratrol being experienced by countless health-conscious people, it's inevitable that the demand for resveratrol supplements is rising each day. The increasing popularity of resveratrol health product is justified by its superb benefits in medicine. With medical professionals endorsing these health supplements for disease prevention, weight loss, skin care and anti-aging, there are numerous reasons to buy resveratrol in bulk. Getting expensive medical treatments in hospitals and clinics can be prevented with the help of consuming fairly cheaper health product such as Jeunesse Reserve daily.

Don't just take it from us. Here's what some people who benefited from Jeunesse Reserve say:

...antioxidants may help prevent heart disease by increasing levels of ... alcohol and protecting against artery damage.

While the news about red wine might sound great if you enjoy a glass of red wine with your evening meal, doctors are wary of encouraging anyone to start drinking alcohol. That's because too much alcohol can have many harmful effects on your body.

Still, many doctors agree that something in red wine appears to help your heart. It's possible that antioxidants, such as flavonoids or a substance called resveratrol, have heart-healthy benefits.

How is red wine heart healthy?

Red wine seems to have even more heart-healthy benefits than other types of alcohol, but it's possible that red wine isn't any better than beer, white wine or liquor for heart health. There's still no clear evidence that red wine is better than other forms of alcohol when it comes to possible heart-healthy benefits.

Antioxidants in red wine called polyphenols may help protect the lining of blood vessels in your heart. A polyphenol called resveratrol is one substance in red wine that's gotten attention.

Resveratrol in red wine

Resveratrol might be a key ingredient in red wine that helps prevent damage to blood vessels, reduces "bad" cholesterol and prevents blood clots.

New Hints Seen That Red Wine May Slow Aging

By NICHOLAS WADE
Published: June 4, 2008

Red wine may be much more potent than was thought in extending human lifespan, researchers say in a new report that is likely to give impetus to the rapidly growing search for longevity drugs.

It's a awesome product. My neighbour who is bedridden and the doctor says 95% of her kidney fails. I gave her a box of reserve to try. And after consuming the whole box of Reserve, she is suppose to go back to the hospital for another operation to insert more dialysis tube, but to her surprise, the doctor says her kidney is working and even removed the dialysis tube from her neck. she says her feet used to be very cold, but now it warms back and her diabetic wound is healing well and is now walking with a cane. She taking 3 sachets of reserve a day.
