Dear MyPillow,

I purchased two of these regular sized pillows a month ago. Super skeptical but I purchased them anyway and yes I thought these were severely overpriced--WRONG! For the very first time in my 61 years on this earth I have found the absolute perfect pillow and I love it so much that I'm buying two of the KING SIZED PREMIUM PILLOWS today and I'd pay twice the price if I had too because these pillows are worth ever penny. For the first time I have purchased a product that does exactly what they promised and then some. I rest so much better and I'll never go anywhere with out MY PILLOW ever again. Thanks for making my life better and trust me I need all of the victories I can get as I am a catastrophically disabled veteran due to two strokes that happened ten years ago. I have a very difficult time sleeping..MY PILLOW has made a major difference and for that I am eternally grateful for you creating a fantastic product that has made my life much, much better and you've improved my quality of life immensely. Thanks to all who had a part in creating this fantastic product...

Sincerely,
Tracey M. - Georgia

Bob Bartley Why do people mention the price? Have you priced pillows lately? The My Pillow is priced pretty competitively IMO.
