IT IS HEREBY ADJUDGED AND DECREED that:

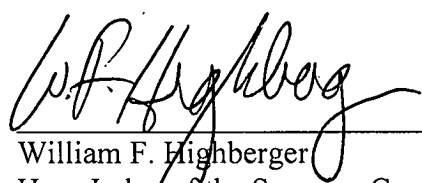

This case is dismissed with Prejudice as to Plaintiff, Dolla Elsumeri, and without prejudice as to the unnamed members of the putative class, with the respective sides each bearing their own fees and costs.

Defendant is enjoined from labeling its products "Made in California, USA" or "Made in U.S.A." or similar words without qualification unless (i) all of the articles, units, or parts of the product obtained from outside the United States constitute no more than 5 percent of the final wholesale value of the product or (ii) Defendant can neither produce the article, unit, or part within the United States nor obtain the article, unit, or part of the product from a domestic source and all of the articles, units, or parts of the product obtained from outside the United States constitute not more than 10 percent of the final wholesale value of the Product.

The Court retains jurisdiction under Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 664.6 to enforce this Judgment and either party may move the Court to modify the terms of this Judgment upon a material change in the law.
