Fatigue, Migraine and Headache

FATIGUE & HEADACHE

A lady in her 40's has been having these problems a long time. Took TF and after a week, the headache got better. It's almost 2 months now and she's feeling so much better. She continues to take TF and has introduced it to her mum.

MIGRAINE

I have been suffering from migraine (more than 10 years) and eczema on my legs (since I was a child). Besides that, I am constantly plagued with sore throat and ulcers in my mouth and tongue. frequently constipated. I realise that I was experiencing healing crisis. In my second month on Transfer Factor, my migraines stopped and there were positive changes to my other health problems. Now, I am satisfied with my health level. I used to have to watch what I eat, even staying away from heavy food which causes my body to itch. I could never have late nights, not even for one or two days. Now, things are different and I am happy with how my life has turned around. I really think that we should all be more informed about our immune system. I also think that those with health problems should not just rely on medication. Also, do not worry about the healing crisis, when starting on Transfer Factor as it only means that the product is working.
