Great Testimonial for PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder):
" After 8 years in the military, left me with a service dog for my extreme anxiety, panic disorder and paranoia, which causes my insomnia... After nearly 3 month's on Kyani, tonight I was at a PBR (without my service dog, because I am not having episodes anymore) a waitress threw a bottle into a trash can that shattered the glass and made a big boom sound. This impact happened 3 feet from me... Now, I never went through 1/4 the hell most soldiers did. But every veteran can account for the feelings when a sound so abrasive startles you. 3 months ago, this would have jumped my nervous system and sent me into a panic, my dog and I would have left the situation in a hurry and found some place quiet and alone. I would become very angry, shouting and cussing, heart beat racing and crying too. But what happened tonight...? I didn't even jump, I gently turned to acknowledge the event and turned back to my conversation and kept talking!!! A few team reps were there when it happened and one a direct witness. Not even a flinch! Thank you Kyani!!!"
