Xanthohumol - Our Foundation

SOZO Meridium is a proprietary, patented and patent pending, enhanced therapeutic formulation called Lucedin™ xanthohumol, the bioactive molecule found in hops. We offer the only water soluble extract of xanthohumol that can be significantly absorbed and metabolized in your body and plays an active role in counteracting a wide range of conditions associated with chronic health problems.

Research Driven Benefits

- Reinforces healthy metabolic activity
- Enhances the elimination of metabolic waste and toxins
- Eliminate free radicals and sources of oxidative stress
- Protects against viruses, bacteria and fungi
- Helps maintain a healthy heart and cholesterol levels
- Reduces the long-term risk of serious health problems
- Helps fight poor sleep and insomnia
- Accelerates weight loss and helps keep weight off
- Improves skin tone and color
- Helps maintain healthy eye cornea and retina
- Acts as a non-thermogenic energy enhancer
- Helps maintain mood and focus
