ORDER

On November 23, 2016 the Defendants moved to stay the present action in the interest of judicial economy pending approval of a classwide settlement in a related case pending in the Southern District of New York, Vincent v. People against Dirty, PBC, 16-CV-6936. Dkt. No. 13. In December 2016 a stipulation was entered into, and approved by the Court, which adjourned the present Motion for a Stay for sixty days. Dkt. Dkt. No 20-1. In light of the foregoing, Plaintiff's counsel now consents to the Stay sought by the Defendants.

WHEREFORE, it is hereby ORDERED, that Defendants' Motion to Stay the present action pending the settlement of the Vincent action (Dkt. No. 13) is hereby granted on consent.

Pursuant to FED R. CIV. P. 72(a), the parties have fourteen (14) days within which to file written objections to the foregoing discovery order. Such objections shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court. As specifically noted in Rule 72(a) “[a] party may not assign as error a defect in the order not timely objected to.”
