I am not an aggressive exerciser, but I am diligent with what I do. Push-ups, dumbbells and walking are my regimen. When we introduced the Elevate suite of products, I wasn't sure, but I have been using Peak Performance 50+ and Amino Boost for a little over 3 months and I can tell you, I am stronger, I have more energy and staying power and I have dropped some central body fat that was a stubborn problem. At my age (68) retaining muscle mass is a great asset and so are these two products
