About me

I am a fun guy! I believe in proper planning prevents poor performance in all areas of our lives. Work hard, play harder creating memories along the way. After graduating from college, that has being my mission and Morinda gives me the opportunity to do that. I enjoy traveling, cooking, enjoying nature outdoors, reading personal development books and celebrating success. Just a proud uncle, spending time with family is very important to me.

My Story

If not for my mom's health that was in need, I don't think I would have entertained Morinda and its opportunity. My mom was suffering from high blood pressure and high cholesterol. At that time, she was taking seven pills! She had to use a container that had the days of the week labeled on them. I bought a case of beverage for my mom to try after I was told it was featured in the PDR (Physicians Desk Reference). After just four months on the product, she went back to the doctor where her blood was tested along with a stress test. The results came back and her blood pressure had become more regular, her cholesterol was back to normal and her sugar level was reduced dramatically! She was in tears. Everyday I'm grateful I had an open mind to try out the beverage and our TruAge product line that changed my mom's health as well as mine.
