All I can think about that shower curtian is all the mildew and mold that will build up from putting wet supplies in there....

no - when i open it and it's full of clean dishes, i just put them away - my husband does the same. Why store clean dishes in there and allow dirty ones to gather?

Shannon Siegel · Assistant Editor at Martin Brinkerhoff Associates, Inc.

We use it at my office. When it gets full, the person who last placed their mug turns it on and when it's clean, the receptionist empties it out. It takes more than a few days for the dishwasher to get clean so it helps her keep track of when it's clean or not 😊
