Parkinsons Sufferer Gets Relief with LifeWave Patches

Aldo had been suffering from Parkinsons Disease for nearly seven years. Before using LifeWave Patches he could not walk without the aid of a walking stick, he could not speak clearly and was in severe pain.

Watch as Aldo and his wife relate their experience with LifeWave

This video explains why glutathione is a helpful part of slowing the progression of parkinson's disease. See the enclosed Glutathione.Pdf

Modern research has shown that individuals who have low levels of glutathione are susceptible to chronic illness. Decreased levels of glutathione can be brought about by continual stress upon the immune system.

As we now know, a lowered immune system can bring about illness and disease.

This is a ferocious cycle
