1.2 On or about March 3, 2016, Plaintiff filed a first amended complaint, and on or about July 29, 2016, Plaintiff filed a second amended complaint (“the SAC”). On or about September 16, 2016, the Court granted Defendants Big 5 Corp. and Romeo & Juliette, Inc.’s (collectively “Defendants”) motion to strike the allegations and claims for punitive damages from the SAC.

1.3 The SAC asserts a claim for violation of the California’s Unfair Competition Law, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17200, violation of California’s False Advertising Law, pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 17500, and the Consumer Legal Remedies Act, pursuant to Civil Code section 1770. Plaintiff brought these causes of action in his individual capacity and in his capacity as a representative of a class of similarly situated persons.

1.4 On or about April 11, 2016, Defendants filed an Answer to Plaintiff’s Complaint. The Answer generally and specifically denies the Complaint’s allegations and raises several affirmative defenses.

1.5 The Parties have conducted an investigation of the facts and have analyzed the relevant legal issues in regard to the claims and defenses asserted in the Action (as defined below). The Parties have engaged in written discovery, including an exchange of information and factual arguments supporting the objection, including an attestation under the penalty of perjury of facts demonstrating that the person objecting is a Class Member. Class Members may also orally object to the Settlement at the Final Fairness Hearing without first providing a written objection. Any Class Member has the option to appear at the Final Fairness Hearing, either in person or through personal counsel hired at the Class Member’s expense, to object to the Settlement Agreement. Class Members who fail to make objections in this manner will be deemed to have waived any objections and will be foreclosed from making any objections (whether by a subsequent objection, intervention, appeal, or any other process) to the Agreement.

7.5 Exclusions. The Class Notice shall permit any Class Member to elect not to be part of the Class and not to be bound by this Agreement; provided, within 30 calendar days following the date of Class Notice, the affected person mails a valid Request for Exclusion directly to the Settlement Administrator. To make this election, Class Members must send a letter stating: (a) the name and case number of the Action, “Carmody v. Big 5 Sporting Goods Corp et al., Case No. 37-2016-0002469-CU-BT-CTL.”; (b) the full name, address, email address, and telephone number of the person requesting exclusion; and (c) a statement that he/she does not wish to participate in the Settlement, postmarked no later than 30 calendar days following the date on which Settlement Administrator provides notice to the Class as described in Section 4.

7.6 Preparation of Excluded Persons List. No later than 20 days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing, the Settlement Administrator shall prepare a list of the persons who, pursuant to the Class Notice, have excluded themselves from the Class in a valid and timely manner, and Defendant shall serve that list upon Class Counsel.

7.7 Sole Mechanism for Exclusion. Any Class Member that does not comply with the procedures set forth in this Section, will lose any opportunity to exclude himself or herself from the Class and his or her rights will be determined by the Settlement Agreement, if approved by the Court. Any Class Member opting out may not be allowed to rescind or revoke such decision, without the approval of the Parties and the Court. Any Class member who does not properly and timely submit a Request for Exclusion as required herein shall be deemed to have waived all rights

7.8 Blow-up Clause. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Settlement Agreement, if more than a certain number to be kept confidential and filed under seal (“blow up number”) of the prospective Class Members request exclusion, then Defendant may, in its sole discretion, elect to terminate this Agreement. Prior to termination of the agreement and within five business days from the day they determine that the number of members of the Class who have requested exclusion exceeds the blow-up number, and in any event, at least 15 days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing, Defendant will notify Plaintiff’s Counsel, in writing, that they have received the blow up number of Requests for Exclusion. Class Counsel will then have 10 days to attempt to cause retraction of any election of exclusion by Class Members or any group thereof. To retract a prior Request for Exclusion, the Class Member must provide to the Parties, at least three days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing, or any adjournment thereof, a written notice stating his or her desire to retract the Request for Exclusion from the Class. If Class Counsel cannot cause sufficient retractions three days prior to the Final Fairness Hearing, Defendant may terminate this Agreement. In that event, (a) this Agreement shall terminate and become null and void, the Preliminary Approval Order and all of its provisions shall be vacated by its own terms, and the Action shall revert to the status that existed prior to the execution date of this Settlement Agreement, including no certification of a class; and (b) no term of this Settlement Agreement or any draft thereof, or of the negotiation, documentation, or other part or aspect of the Parties’ settlement discussions, shall have any effect, nor shall any such matter be admissible in evidence for any purpose in the Action, or in any other proceeding. Any dispute among the parties concerning the interpretation or application of this blow-up provision may be presented to the Court for resolution upon the application of any party hereto.

7.9 Disputed Claims. In the event of any dispute over the timeliness or validity of any Claim Form submitted under this Section, the Parties shall meet and confer in good faith for the purpose of resolving the dispute and, if the dispute cannot be resolved, shall submit the dispute to

The Settlement Administrator will contact the Class Member to notify the Class Member of the specific deficiency or deficiencies and provide the Class Member twenty (20) calendar days to resolve any stated deficiency. If the Settlement Administrator receives more than one Claim Form per Class Member, the Settlement Administrator will deem the first received Claim Form valid, and any subsequently received Claim Forms invalid.

7.10 Distribution of Class Award. Within 30 days following the Settlement Effective Date, the Settlement Administrator shall distribute the Cash Awards and Merchandise Vouchers to all Class Members that have submitted a valid, timely Claim Form.

7.11 Change Of Time Periods. The time periods and/or dates described in this Agreement with respect to the giving of notices and hearings are subject to approval and change by the Court or by the written agreement of counsel for the Parties, without further notice to the Class.

8. RELEASE AND COVENANT NOT TO SUE

8.1 Class Release of Defendants. Upon the Settlement Effective Date, the Plaintiff and the Class Members who do not validly and timely request to be excluded from the proposed Settlement, and each of their respective successors, assigns, legatees, heirs, and personal representatives shall release and forever discharge Big 5 Corp., Romeo & Juliette, Inc., and ACI International, and each of their parent corporations, subsidiary corporations, affiliated entities, predecessors, successors and assigns, partners, privies, and any of their present and former directors, officers, employees, shareholders, agents, representatives, attorneys, accountants, and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with them, or any of them, from any and all manner of action, causes of action, claims, demands, rights, suits, obligations, debts, contracts, agreements, promises, liabilities, damages, charges, losses, costs, expenses, and attorneys’ fees, of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown, in law or equity, fixed or contingent, which they have arising out of or relating to any of the acts, omissions or other conduct that have or could have been alleged in the Action. BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did you receive this notice?

You received this Notice because a settlement has been reached in this Action. You may have purchased Bearpaw Lassen WP men's or women's hiking boots at a Big 5 store in California. You are being provided this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of a class action lawsuit, and about your options, before the Court decides whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves it, and after objections and appeals are resolved, Class Members who submit a valid claim form will receive one of the following benefits under the settlement, subject to potential adjustment by the Court:

- (1) If you request and submit a valid, timely claim form, you may request to receive a Cash Award of $5.00. Only one claim form may be submitted per customer. To receive a Cash Award, Class Members must also submit proof of purchase showing purchase during the class period of the Bearpaw Lassen WP men's or women's hiking boots at a Big 5 Sporting Goods store in California along with the Claim Form. Each Class Member may receive only one cash award and each receipt may only be used once; or
- (2) If you request and submit a valid, timely claim form, you may request to receive a Merchandise Voucher for $7.50 toward any purchase of goods or services at a Big 5 Sporting Goods store. The Merchandise Voucher cannot be used for online purchases; is not valid for previous purchases; cannot be used in combination with any other merchandise voucher; has no cash value and cannot be redeemed for cash or for any gift card. The Merchandise Voucher may not be resold or traded and may not be copied or reproduced. The Merchandise Voucher cannot be used by any employee of Defendants or their family members. The Merchandise Voucher will expire one year after the date of issuance. Each Class Member may receive only one Merchandise Voucher. You do not need to submit a proof of purchase to receive a Merchandise Voucher.

This Notice explains the lawsuit, the settlement, your legal rights, and what benefits will be made available to you, who is eligible for them and how you get them. The Court in charge of the case is the Superior Court of the State of California, County of San Diego, and the case is known as entitled Jason Carmody, individually and on behalf of those similarly situated v. Big 5 Sporting Goods Corp; Romeo & Juliette, Inc., doing business as Bearpaw; and Does 1 through 20, inclusive, Case No. 37-2016-0002469-CU-BT-CTL (the "Action"). The person who filed this lawsuit is called the Plaintiff, and the companies he sued, Big 5 Corp. and Romeo & Juliette, Inc., are called the Defendants.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The Action claims that Defendants misrepresented the waterproof nature of the Bearpaw Lassen WP hiking boots. The Plaintiff claimed that in doing so, Defendants violated laws that protects consumers: the California Unfair Competition Law (Business and Professions Code § 17200), the California False Advertising Law (Business and Professions Code § 17500), and the Consumer Legal Remedies Act (Civil Code § 1770). Defendants deny and continue to deny each of the Action's and Plaintiff's allegations. However, to avoid the expense, inconvenience and risk created by the Action, Plaintiff and Big 5 (the "Parties") have concluded that it is in their best interests to settle the Action on the terms summarized in this notice. The settlement was reached through extensive, arms-length negotiations between the Parties

3. What is a class action?

In a class action, one or more people called Class Representatives (in this case Jason Carmody), sue on behalf of people who have similar claims. All of these people are called a Class or Class Members. One court resolves the issues for all Class Members, except for those who exclude themselves from the Class. The Honorable Richard E.L. Strauss, Judge of the California Superior Court, has determined that the case should proceed as a class action, for settlement purposes only.

4. Why is there a settlement?

The Court did not decide in favor of Plaintiff or Defendants. Instead, Plaintiff and Big 5 agreed to a settlement. That way, they avoid the uncertainty and cost of a trial and can provide benefits now to Class Members. The Class Representative and the attorneys think the settlement is in the best interests of the people in the Class. To see if you are affected by the settlement, you first have to decide if you are a Class Member.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. How do I know if I am part of the settlement?

For purposes of the settlement, the Court has certified a Class of all persons who purchased Bearpaw Lassen WP men's and women's hiking boots from a Big 5 Sporting Goods store in California between January 25, 2012 through October 20, 2017. Excluded from the Class are current and former employees, officers, and directors of Defendants, or any related or affiliated entity, the Court and its personnel, Class Counsel, and Defendants' Counsel.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS – WHAT DO YOU GET

6. What does the Settlement Provide?

The settlement provides for benefits for each Class Member. Class Members may elect to receive either a Cash Award or a Merchandise Voucher.

With respect to the Cash Award option: Big 5 has agreed to pay $5.00 to each Class Member who timely submits a valid Claim Form and requests a Cash Award. To obtain a Cash Award, Class Members must also submit a valid proof of purchase showing purchase during the class period of Bearpaw Lassen WP men's or women's hiking boots at a Big 5 Sporting Goods store in California along with the Claim Form. If you request a Cash Award, you are not entitled to receive a Merchandise Voucher

With respect to the Merchandise Voucher option: Big 5 has agreed to provide each Class Member who timely submits a valid Claim Form and does not request a Cash Award, a Merchandise Voucher for $7.50 toward any purchase of goods or services at a Big 5 Sporting Goods store in California. The Merchandise Voucher cannot be used for online purchases; is not valid for previous purchases; cannot be used in combination with any other merchandise voucher; has no cash value and cannot be redeemed for cash or for any gift card. The Merchandise Voucher may not be resold or traded and may not be copied or reproduced. Limit one Merchandise Voucher per person. The Merchandise Voucher cannot be used by any employee of Defendants or their family members. The Merchandise Voucher will expire one year after the date of issuance. You do not need to submit a proof of purchase to receive a Merchandise Voucher. If you receive a Merchandise Voucher, you are not entitled to receive a Cash Award.

7. How can I get a Merchandise Voucher or Cash Award?

To receive a Merchandise Voucher or a Cash Award, you must submit a valid, timely Claim Form. To obtain a Cash Award, you must also submit a valid proof of purchase showing you purchased the Bearpaw Lassen WP men’s or women’s hiking boots during the class period at a Big 5 Sporting Goods store in California along with the Claim Form. You must sign the claim form under penalty of perjury and return the claim form by first-class United States Mail or through the Settlement Website postmarked no later than [45 DAYS FOLLOWING DATE OF NOTICE], to the Settlement Administrator at the following address:

Settlement Administrator

It is your responsibility to inform the Settlement Administrator if your address or other information changed or changes after you submit a Claim Form.

8. What do I have to give up in order to stay in the class?

Unless you exclude yourself, you are staying in the Class, and releasing your claims against Defendants. This generally means that you cannot sue, continue to sue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants regarding your purchase of the Bearpaw Lassen WP hiking boots, under California law. It also means that all of the Court’s orders will apply to you and legally bind you. The Settlement Agreement, available on the Settlement website located at: bplassensettlement.com contains the full terms of the release.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue Defendants on your own regarding the legal issues in this Action, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from this settlement. This is sometimes referred to as “opting out” of the settlement.

9. How do I get out of the settlement?

To exclude yourself from the settlement, you must send a letter by mail stating that you want to be excluded from the lawsuit, “Carmody v. Big 5 Sporting Goods Corp et al., San Diego Superior Court Case No. 37-2016-0002469-CU-BT-CTL.” Be sure to include: (a) your full name, address, telephone number, and email address, (b) your signature with information demonstrating and swearing that you are a Class Member. You must mail your exclusion request postmarked no later than [30 DAYS FOLLOWING DATE OF NOTICE], to the Settlement Administrator:

Settlement Administrator
PO Box 404041 Louisville, KY 40233-4041

You cannot exclude yourself on the phone or by e-mail. If you ask to be excluded, you cannot object to the settlement. You will not be legally bound by anything that happens in this lawsuit. You may be able to sue (or continue to sue) Defendants in the future.

10. If I do not exclude myself, can I sue Defendants for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself, you give up the right to sue Defendants for the claims that this settlement resolves. You must exclude yourself from this Class to continue your own lawsuit. Remember, the exclusion deadline is [30 DAYS FOLLOWING DATE OF NOTICE].

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

11. Do I have a lawyer in this case?

The Court appointed the Law Offices of Mark Potter, 9824 Erma Road, Suite 300, San Diego, CA 92131 and Will Lemkul, Morris, Sullivan & Lemkul, LLP, 9915 Mira Mesa Blvd., Suite 300, San Diego, CA 92131 to represent you and other Class Members in this settlement. The lawyers are called “Class Counsel.” You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

12. How will the lawyers and Class Representative be paid?

Class Counsel will ask the Court for attorney’s fees and expenses up to $122,500 for investigating the facts, litigating the case, negotiating the settlement, and following through to make sure that its terms are carried out. Class Counsel will also ask the Court to approve a service payment of up to $2,500 to the Class Representative, Jason Carmody, to compensate him for prosecuting this case. These amounts will not come out of the payments to the Class. Big 5 has agreed not to oppose these fees and expenses. Class Counsel will file with the Court their motion for award of attorneys’ fees and litigation costs and Class Representatives’ service payment no later than [14 DAYS PRIOR TO DEADLINE TO OBJECT]. After that date, you may view the motion on the Settlement Website.

13. Who will pay for the costs to administer the settlement?

Big 5 will pay all of the costs to administer the settlement.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

14. How can I Object to the Settlement?

If you do not wish to exclude yourself from the Settlement, and are still a Class Member, you may object to the settlement, stating the facts and legal reasoning for your objection. To object, you may send a letter stating that you object to Carmody v. Big 5 Sporting Goods Corp et al., San Diego Superior Court Case No. 37-2016-0002469-CU-BT-CTL. You may also orally object to the settlement at the hearing Final Fairness Hearing.

If you file and serve a written objection, you may appear at the Final Fairness Hearing, either in person or through personal counsel hired at your expense, to object to the Settlement Agreement. You may also orally object at the Final Fairness Hearing without first providing a written objection. You are not required, however, to appear.

15. What’s the difference between objecting and excluding?

Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you don’t want to be a part of the Class. Objecting is simply providing the factual and legal reasoning for changing or rejecting some or all of the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Class. If you exclude yourself, you have no basis to object because the case no longer affects you.

THE COURT’S FAIRNESS HEARING

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. You do not have to attend the Hearing. However, you are welcome to attend if you choose to, but you don't have to.

16. When and where will the Fairness Hearing take place?

The Court will hold a Final Fairness Hearing at 9:00 a.m. on February 16, 2018, at the San Diego County Superior Court of the State of California, Hall of Justice 330 W. Broadway, Department 75, San Diego, CA 92101. At this hearing the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and in the best interests of the Class; and to consider the award of attorneys' fees and expenses to Class Counsel. If there are valid objections, the Court will consider them. After the hearing, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

The hearing may be postponed to a different date or time or location without notice. Please check bpllassensettlement.com for any updates about the Settlement generally or the Final Fairness Hearing specifically. If the date or time of the Final Fairness Hearing changes, an update to the Settlement Website will be the only way you will be informed of the change.

17. Do I have to come to the Hearing?

You do not need to come to the Hearing. Class Counsel will answer questions Judge Strauss may have. You are, however, welcome to come at your own expense. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to Court to talk about it. As long as you mailed your written objection as required above, the Court will consider it. You may also orally object at the hearing without first providing a written objection. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend, but it's not necessary.

18. May I speak at the Hearing?

You may speak at the Final Fairness Hearing if you have not excluded yourself, but you don't have to.

IF YOU DO NOTHING

19. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will not receive a Cash Award or a Merchandise Voucher, you won't be able to start a lawsuit, continue with a lawsuit, or be part of any other lawsuit against Defendants about the legal issues in this case, ever again.
