joeywilson__ 5 years in the books with IM! 🙏🍷

I'm writing this as I watch the sunset in Laguna beach thanking God for leading the way. What a ride it's been so far. I came here 5 years ago committed to the long haul. God pointed me in the right direction and I took action.

It was late 2017 that Britt and I started praying for an opportunity where we would be able to achieve a lifestyle of freedom for us and our future family, but also a company we could rest our head at night knowing the ownership has the fields best interest at heart and that's exactly interest at heart and that's exactly what we got with IM.

For years, I wondered if I could ever hit it big and live a great life like some of these top guys. I mean, I always believed in myself but you still wonder. 🤔

Has it all been sunshine and rainbows? Shi*%... Nope.. It's been a wild ride to say the least, but isn't that life? Isn't that business? I would say so. I didn't get to high in the highs, and didn't get too low in the lows. Steady Eddy is the way I rock. You find the learning lessons from L's and you keep moving forward.

All summed up, this company

Cheers to the next 5! 🥂
