juliankuschner  Here sits two entrepreneurs that achieved success despite a whirlwind of challenges and struggle. Lots of people see the success but never really understand the back story! I personally got a dui, arrested, kicked out of college, fired from jobs....and my business partner @pjkev went from struggling in the private jet business which already had odds business which already had odds stacked against him... to becoming one of the most sought out jet brokers in the world. We both have had people, circumstances, and obstacles in our way... but the thing we also both had in common is CONSISTENCY!!! WE NEVER GAVE UP. When nobody was calling kev to book jets... he kept networking for clients and making calls... now he is hooking jets daily for celebs and clients and making calls... now he is booking jets daily for celebs and entrepreneurs around the world. When I lost a $50k/month income overnight due to business issues.... I did not give up...i got back to building business! I don't care where you come from, your background, what you have been through. Most of the time people use that as an excuse anyways....Consistency and hard work really does pay off if you
