JERRY & PATRICIA LARSON

Providing Value, Inspiring Dreams Since 1997

We were introduced to Team National by our niece in Denver. Believe me, we were not looking for one of those THINGS; selling over priced products to friends. At that time, we owned a Real Estate and Mortgage company and had no time to take on anything else, but boy are we glad we jumped in! We saved thousands of dollars in our first few months and got hooked. Sharing the concept has been easy. After all, what about saving and making money would you not like? After our first year in the business, Patty was informed that she had cancer. Well, as you might expect, our Team National business went on hold. The support from our team has been awesome—and all during our inactive period, Team National kept sending us checks. Needless to say, we love Team National!
