Case No. 4:19cv3629

Plaintiff Johnny Doe, by and through his Guardian, Jane Doe ("Plaintiff"), brings this class action individually and on behalf of a Class of all those similarly situated for damages and injunctive relief against Defendant Epic Games, Inc. ("Defendant" or "Epic"), and alleges upon personal knowledge as to their own actions, and upon information and belief as to counsel's investigations and all other matters, as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

- 1. Plaintiff brings this Declaratory Judgment action for a minor's right to disaffirm in-app purchases in Epic's video game Fortnite including non-refundable purchases and any use of minor's one or more gift cards.
- 2. Epic runs a billion-dollar video game company that allows for free downloads of video game application Fortnite, i.e. video game software that users download on different computing device platforms including iOS, Android, Windows, Mac, PlayStation, Xbox and Ninetendo Switch. The video game Fortnite is targeted at children. Although offered for free and may be downloaded at no cost, the Fortnite game is designed to induce in-app purchases, i.e. virtual supplies, ammunition, skins, game currency, etc. These games are highly addictive, designed deliberately so, and tend to compel children playing them to make purchases.
- 3. Plaintiff brings this action for declaratory, equitable and monetary relief under the Declaratory Judgment Act, California's contract laws, Consumers Legal Remedies Act Cal. Civ. Code § 1750, et seq, Breach of Good Faith and Fair Dealing, Negligent Misrepresentation, Business and Professions Code Sections 17200 et seq., and/or for Unjust Enrichment.

PARTIES

- 4. Plaintiff Johnny Doe resides in California with his parents including Guardian, Jane Doe. Plaintiff Johnny Doe at all relevant times was a Fortnite player and a minor.
- 5. Defendant Epic Games, Inc. is a video game company with headquarters in North Carolina and an office at 700 Larkspur Landing Circle, Suite 250, Larkspur, California, 94939-1704 located in the Northern District of California. Defendant released Fortnite Save the World and Fortnite Battle Royale in 2017. Both game "modes" are part of the same Fortnite game, and both are immensely popular. As of January 2019, there are an estimated 200 million Fortnite players worldwide. Epic made an estimated $2.4 billion dollars on Fortnite in 2018.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 6. This Court has original jurisdiction of this action under the Class Action Fairness Act of 2005. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1332(d)(2) and (6), this Court has original jurisdiction because the aggregate claims of the putative class members exceed $5 million, exclusive of interest and costs, and at least one of the members of the proposed classes is a citizen of a different state than Defendant.
- 7. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Epic Games, Inc. because it has a principal place of business located in Larkspur, California, it conducts substantial business in this District, and a substantial part of the acts and omissions complained of occurred in this District.
- 8. Venue is proper in this District under Title 28, United States Code, Section 1391(b) because Defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction here and regularly conducts business in this District, it has intentionally availed itself of the laws and markets within this District, it does substantial business in this District, it is subject to personal jurisdiction in this District and because the events giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in this District.
- 9. In addition, venue is proper in this District under Title 28, United States Code, Section 1391(b) because Defendant's improper conduct alleged in this complaint occurred in, was directed from, and/or emanated from this judicial district.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Fortnite

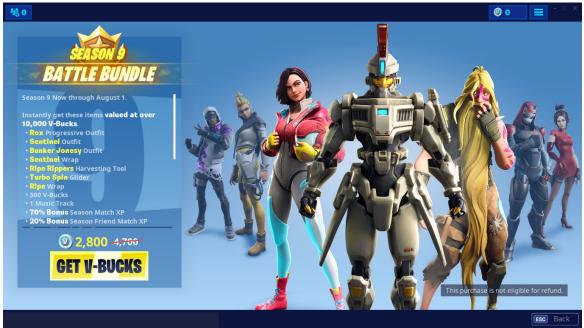

- 10. Fortnite is an open-world survival video game in which players collect weapons, tools, and resources, also commonly referred as loot, in order to survive and advance in the game. Fortnite currently includes two game modes: Save the World and Battle Royale. This Complaint concerns all Fortnite games modes and versions that allow in-app purchases.
- 11. Fortnite is known for its addictive tendencies and have been compared to crack-cocaine and heroin. See Jef Feely and Christopher Palmeri, Fortnite Addiction is Forcing Kids Into Video-Game Rehab, bloomberg.com (November 27, 2018, 9:21 AM), https://www.bloomberg.com/news/articles/2018-11-27/fortnite-addiction-promptsparents-to-turn-to-video-game-rehab.

13. Players, especially minors, are driven to spend money on in-App Purchases. Many of these purchases are made in a rush and in the heat of the moment while playing the game. On information and belief, Epic does not allow in-App purchases to be refunded, except, on some platforms, Epic may allow refund of a total of three items throughout the lifetime of the user and only from those purchases made from the last 30-days. Some items remain non-refundable and outside Epic's refund policy including for example, Battle Pass or Battle Pass tiers. See Screenshot of Battle Pass with Bundles not stating its non-refundable policy at all.

See Screenshots of Battle Pass with Bundles stating in very small inconspicuous text at the bottom right that the purchase is not eligible for refund.

14. Even when the minors change their mind in a matter of minutes, minors are not able to refund the purchase and disaffirm the contract.

- 15. When they do not have consent from their parents or guardians, minors use their own gift card money to make in-app purchases. Even after a change of mind, irrespective of the lapse of time, i.e. within minutes or longer, minors are not allowed a refund.
- 16. Fortnite does not include any inbuilt parental controls that would allow parents or guardians of minors to make informed decisions regarding in-app purchases.
- 17. Fortnite's microtransactions involve monetization schemes designed to target minors.

 Fortnite uses virtual game currency known as V-Bucks ("Game Currency") making it easier for minors to spend in the context of game play without realizing that they are spending actual cash.
- 18. Fortnite does not include disclosures or notifications of how much money has already been spent. The minor playing Fortnite has no way of knowing and cannot track the money already spent. By keeping such data on money already spent today, this week or this month hidden, the minor is left less equipped to critically appraise the reasonableness of making additional in-app purchases.

V-BUCKS ("Game Currency")

- 19. Fortnite's in-game currency is V-Bucks.
- 20. Players can earn V-Bucks in-game or purchase them for money. However, earning V-Bucks in the game is a difficult and inconsistent process due to the amount of playtime required and the randomness at which V-Bucks are offered as rewards. By making V-Bucks inordinately difficult and time consuming to earn, Epic creates a "paywall," thus inducing players to purchase V-bucks instead of earning them.
- 21. One hundred V-Bucks generally costs around $1.00. However, a player can obtain V-Bucks at a discount by purchasing a higher quantity. For example, for a price of $99.99, a player can purchase 13,500 V-Bucks, a $135.00 value.
- 22. The V-Bucks system allows Epic to play several tricks on its players, especially its minor players. First, because players have converted their money to V-Bucks, it is difficult for players to conceptualize how much actual money they have spent on purchases. This is especially effective on minors who may not have a firm understanding or conceptualization of the relation of money spent to V-Bucks spent.

- 23. This lack of understanding is especially apparent given many young players' willingness to spend hundreds or even thousands of dollars on V-Bucks. If a player was confronted with the amount of money he or she would need to spend at the time of purchase, as opposed to when the player has purchased the game and is invested in playing, most players would think that hundreds of dollars, let alone thousands of dollars, is an exorbitant price to pay to play a video game.
- 24. Second, by only allowing V-Bucks to be purchased in currency packs, and setting the price of items at odd amounts, Epic is playing the "10 hotdogs, 8 buns" trick. The amount of V-Bucks in a currency pack almost never corresponds evenly to the price of items. Using this system, Epic perpetuates a cycle of constantly needing V-Bucks, and never having enough, which leads players to purchase more.
- 25. Third, Epic does not provide players a history of their purchases in-game or otherwise, it is very easy for players to spend an exorbitant amount of V-Bucks without knowing exactly when and what amount of V-Bucks were spent at any given time.
- 26. Finally, Epic's induces players into making more purchases by making the purchase process incredibly easy. Once a player enters and saves a payment method, that player can purchase more V-Bucks at a whim almost instantly. In practice, that means minors can use their parents' credit cards to make an endless number of purchases, with or without permission. The ease of purchase combined with the constant cycle of needing V-Bucks for the latest and greatest items results in more purchases.
- 27. The class period began when Epic introduced the Fornite games with in-App purchases in or around 2017.

Fortnite In-App Purchases

- 28. Fortnite can be played on different platforms and computing devices including PC, Xbox 1, PS4, iOS, Nintendo Switch, and Android.
- 29. Plaintiff Johnny Doe, a minor, downloaded and installed Fortnite in and around 2018. Johnny Doe uses different platforms to play Fortnite including Sony Playstation 4, and Windows 10 Personal Computer.
- 30. While on its face it appears that Epic requires that terms of use be accepted by legal adults 18 years and older, Epic targets minors. Epic is willfully blind in designing mechanisms that do not provide any means for minor children to download and confirm approval from a Guardian.

- 31. Any Epic's terms of use including arbitration and class action waiver clauses are not applicable to minors.
- 32. After installation, Epic does not provide mechanisms for any parental control including requiring authorization of any in-App purchases. Epic purposefully makes in-App purchases easy oneclick requests.
- 33. Plaintiff Johnny Doe, a minor, has made several in-App purchases that were labeled nonrefundable, including for example, Battle Pass or Battle Pass Tiers. Plaintiff Johnny Doe wanted to disaffirm the contracts, but was not allowed to do so.
- 34. Plaintiff Johnny Doe, a minor, has made V-Bucks purchases without understanding that amounts involved in actual money to-date, that day, that week or that month.
- 35. Plaintiff Johnny Doe, a minor, has used his own money through gift cards received on social occasions including birthdays and such. Subsequent to the purchases, Plaintiff Johnny Doe wanted to cancel those purchases but was not allowed to do so under Epic's non-refundable policy.
- Courts have found in-app purchases by minors using the apps that are unauthorized by adult 36. account holders are harm to the account holders suitable for monetary relief. See Apple Settlement Order by this Court, In re Apple in-App Purchase Litigation, Civ. No. 5:11-cv-01758-EJD (N.D. Cal. October 18, 2013). "Apple shall provide full refunds to Account Holders who have been billed by Apple for unauthorized In-App Charges incurred by minors." FTC Consent Order, In the Matter of Apple Inc., Docket C-4444 (Mar. 25, 2014). "Google shall provide full refunds to Account Holders who have been billed by Google for unauthorized In-App Charges incurred by minors" FTC Consent Order, In the Matter of Google, LLC, Docket C-4449 (Dec. 2, 2014).
- 37. The District Court of Western District of Washington has also found that all in-app purchases made by children 17 and under are included in the harm when the account holder authorized the use of the app by children but did not authorize the specific in-app purchases. FTC v. Amazon, Civ. No. 14-1038-JCC ECF No. 287 at p. 11 (W.D. Wash., Nov. 10, 2016) ("Finally, the Court is not persuaded by Amazon's argument that purchases made by children age 13 and older are not part of the harm in this matter. As the FTC points out, the FTC never made any sort of concessions on the scope of liability by using search terms like "pre-teen" and "under-13" during discovery. The Court agrees. This case deals with all unauthorized in-app purchases made by children. Children between ages 13 and 17 are included in this definition because drawing a line at age 13 would be an arbitrary distinction for which the Court finds no basis under these facts. Therefore, all unauthorized in-app purchases by children, not just those age 12 and under, are included in the potentially eligible transactions.")

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

38. Plaintiff brings this action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3), on behalf of himself and the following proposed "Nationwide Class":

All minors in the United States, within the applicable statute of limitations, who made an in-App purchase that was non-refundable, or made an in-App purchase with their own gift card.

39. Plaintiff also seeks to represent the following "California Sub-Class":

All minors in the state of California, within the applicable statute of limitations, who made an in-App purchase that was non-refundable, or made an in-App purchase with their own gift card.

- 40. The Nationwide Class and the California Sub-Class will be referred to collectively as the "Class."
- 41. Excluded from the proposed class are Defendant and its affiliates, its employees, officers, directors, legal representatives, heirs, successors, subsidiaries and affiliates, and the judicial officers and their immediate family members and associated court staff assigned to this case, as well as all persons who make a timely election to be excluded from the proposed class.
- 42. Certification of Plaintiff's claims for class-wide treatment is appropriate because Plaintiff can prove the elements of his claims on a class-wide basis using the same evidence they would use to prove those elements in individual action alleging the same claims.
- 43. This action meets all applicable standards of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 for class certification, in that Plaintiff can demonstrate the elements delineated below.
- 44. Numerosity. The members of the proposed Class are so numerous and geographically dispersed that individual joinder of all proposed class members is impracticable. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(1). While Plaintiff believes that there are millions of members of the proposed class, the precise number of Class members is unknown, but may be ascertained from Epic's books and records. Epic maintains a list of users that includes personal information for the user including age and whether they have made in-App purchases.

- 45. Applying a reasonable and prudent person standard to the minor users of Fortnite under the same or similar circumstances, each minor user would qualify to be a Class Member requesting the right to cancel and get refund on their in-App purchases. Any reasonable and prudent person under the same or similar circumstances wants to have the flexibility to disaffirm an in-App purchase that was made in a rush or heat of the moment while playing the game.
- 46. Class members may be notified of the pendency of this action by recognized, court approved notice dissemination methods, which may include U.S. mail, e-mail, internet postings, and/or published notice.
- 47. Commonality and Predominance. This action involves common questions of law and fact, which predominate over any questions affecting individual Class members. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(2) and (b)(3). These include, without limitation:
 - a. Whether Epic engaged in the conduct alleged in this Complaint;
 - b. Whether Epic designed, advertised, marketed, distributed, sold or otherwise placed video game Fortnite into the stream of commerce in the United States;
 - c. Whether Epic's Fortnite in-App purchase non-refundable policy for minors violates state contract laws;
 - d. Whether Epic's Fortnite in-App purchase policy using gift cards from minors violates state contract laws;
 - e. Whether Plaintiff and members of the Class are injured and harmed directly by Epic's policies and enticement to entrap minors into making in-App purchases;
 - f. Whether Plaintiff and members of the Class are entitled to damages due to Epic's conduct as alleged in this Complaint, and if so, in what amounts; and
 - g. Whether Plaintiff and members of the Class are entitled to equitable relief, including, but not limited to, restitution or injunctive relief as requested in this Complaint.

- 48. Typicality. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the putative class members' claims because, among other things, all such Class members were comparably injured through Epic's wrongful conduct as described above. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(3). Epic's creation and enforcement of its in-App purchase policy is uniform for all Plaintiff and Class Members.
- 49. Adequacy. Plaintiff is adequate proposed class representative because his interests do not conflict with the interests of the other members of the proposed Class they seek to represent; because he has retained counsel competent and experienced in complex class action litigation; and because they intend to prosecute this action vigorously. The interests of the proposed class will be fairly and adequately protected by Plaintiff and their counsel. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(a)(4).
- 50. Declaratory and Injunctive Relief. Epic has acted or refused to act on grounds generally applicable to Plaintiff and the other members of the proposed Class, thereby making appropriate final injunctive relief and declaratory relief, as described below, with respect to the proposed Class as a whole. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(2). Epic's wrongful conduct alleged herein is not a result of a one-time accidental software bug, but is grounded in Epic's policy that is enforced uniformly. Epic's in-App purchase non-refundable policy was intentionally created. Epic's in-App purchase policy is intentionally enforced on all users. Plaintiff's injuries are real, immediate and ongoing. Plaintiff seeks injunctive and declaratory relief from Epic.
- 51. Superiority. A class is superior to any other available means for the fair and efficient adjudication of this controversy, and no unusual difficulties are likely to be encountered in the management of this class action. The damages or other financial detriment suffered by Plaintiff and putative Class members are relatively small compared to the burden and expense that would be required to individually litigate their claims against Epic, so it would be impracticable for members of the proposed Classes to individually seek redress for Epic's wrongful conduct.
- 52. Applying the principles of equity or balance of equities, expecting an individual Plaintiff who is at a disadvantage with limited resources and spending capacity, and with minimal negotiating power, if any, to litigate claims against Epic, a billion-dollar corporation that has immense resources and deep pockets would be unfair. Class actions are a necessary and essential means to provide for public-interest litigations with checks and balances to curtail the growing power of private corporations including Epic.

- 53. In the interest of public policy and recent trends of privacy concerns including safeguarding the use of the internet by minors, the Court should recognize the right of Plaintiff and Class Members to get refunds on spur of the moment purchases that are subsequently regretted. Laws protecting minors are equally applicable in the cyber world.
- 54. Even if Class members could afford individual litigation, the court system could not. Individualized litigation creates a potential for inconsistent or contradictory judgments, and it increases the delay and expense to all parties and the court system. By contrast, the class action device presents far fewer management difficulties and provides the benefits of single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3).

VIOLATIONS ALLEGED

COUNT I

DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

- 55. Plaintiff and Class Members incorporate and reallege all allegations set out in the preceding paragraphs including paragraphs 1 through 54, above.
- 56. On information and belief, Epic's Fortnite is approved for children 13 years and older. Epic knows that many minors, including children younger than 13, play Fortnite. Epic's in-App purchases are an offer to minors. All in-App purchases by minors are acceptance. Epic enters into a contract with a minor when an in-App purchase by the minor is confirmed. Epic gives the consideration of digital goods of in-App purchases, i.e. skin, motes, v-bucks etc. exchanged for consideration of returned purchase value in actual money from the minor.
- 57. Under California law, and equivalent law in most states nationwide, minors have the right to disaffirm contracts such as those at tissue here. Cal. Fam. Code § 6710 (2010).
 - 58. A parent or guardian may disaffirm a contract on behalf of a minor.
- 59. The contracts between Defendant and the members of the Class are voidable a fact that Defendant denies.

- 60. Accordingly, there is an actual controversy between the parties, requiring a declaratory judgment.
- 61. This claim for declaratory judgment is brought pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201 et seq., seeking a determination by the Court that: (a) this action may proceed and be maintained as a class action; (b) the sales contracts between Defendant and the children of the class members, relating to the purchase of Game Currency, are voidable at the option of the respective class members on behalf of their minor children; (c) if the class members elect to void the contracts, they will be entitled to restitution and interest thereon; (d) an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of suit to Plaintiff and the Class is appropriate; and (e) such other and further relief as is necessary and just may be appropriate as well.

COUNT II

VIOLATION OF THE CALIFORNIA CONSUMERS LEGAL REMEDIES ACT ("CLRA") Cal. Civ. Code § 1750, et seq.

- 62. Plaintiff and Class Members incorporate and reallege all allegations set out in the preceding paragraphs including paragraphs 1 through 61, above.
- 63. Plaintiff and the other class members are consumers within the meaning of Cal. Civ. Code § 1761(d).
- 64. Epic violated CLRA's proscription against the concealment of the characteristics, use, benefit, or quality of goods by actively marketing and promoting certain in-App game purchases with the intent to induce minors to make purchases.
- 65. Epic has violated: (a) § 1770(a)(5)'s proscription against representing that goods have uses or characteristics they do not have; (b) § 1770(a)(7)'s proscription against representing that goods are of particular standard or quality when they are of another; (c) § 1770(a)(14)'s proscription against "Representing that a transaction confers or involves rights, remedies, or obligations which it does not have or involve, or which are prohibited by law."
- 66. Epic owed a duty to disclose material facts, including non-refundable terms and historical statements of in-App purchases made to-date.

- 67. Plaintiff and the Class suffered actual damages as a direct and proximate result of Epic's actions, concealment and/or omissions in the advertising, marketing and promotion of its bait Apps, in violation of the CLRA, as evidenced by the substantial sums Epic pocketed.
- 68. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and for all those similarly situated, demand judgment against Epic for equitable relief in the form of restitution and/or disgorgement of funds paid to Epic.
- 69. In accordance with § 1782(a) of the CLRA, on May 17, 2019, counsel in this class action served Epic, by certified mail requiring return receipt, with notice of its alleged violations of the CLRA.
- 70. Epic has not met the demand set forth in that letter, and therefore Plaintiff here seeks the following relief under CLRA § 1780, for Epic's violations of CLRA §§ 1770(a)(5) and (a)(7):
 - Actual damages under Cal. Civ. Code § 1780(a)(1);
 - punitive damages under Cal. Civ. Code § 1780(a)(4);
 - attorneys' fees and costs under Cal. Civ. Code § 1780(d); and
 - any other relief the Court deems proper under Cal. Civ. Code § 1780(a)(5).
- 71. Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and on behalf of a similarly situated Class of consumers also seek injunctive relief under Cal. Civ. Code § 1780(d).

COUNT III

BREACH OF DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

- 72. Plaintiff and Class Members incorporate and reallege all allegations set out in the preceding paragraphs including paragraphs 1 through 71, above.
- 73. Epic's contracts with Plaintiff and the Class included the term, implied at law in all contracts, requiring the parties to exercise "good faith and fair dealing" in all duties relating to the performance of the contract. By engaging in the misconduct alleged herein, Epic has breached its contractual duty of good faith and fair dealing with Plaintiff and the Class.
- 74. The elements of a cause of action for breach of the covenant of good faith and fair dealing are: (1) an agreement between the parties, (2) plaintiff's performance, (3) defendant engaged in conduct separate and apart from the performance of obligations under the agreement without good faith and for the purpose of depriving plaintiff of rights and benefits under the agreement, and (4) damages to plaintiff. All of the necessary elements are pled in this complaint.

- 75. While, on information and belief, on its face it may appear that Epic requires a person older than 18 years to sign the terms of use, Epic knows that many minors i.e. school going children from elementary, middle and high schools are playing Fortnite. Epic's willful blindness towards taking steps to get Parent or Guardian consent and purposeful inducement of minors to make colorful and tempting in-App purchases breaches Epic's duties of good-faith and fair dealing.
- 76. Epic's actions are without good-faith and are for the sole purpose of depriving Plaintiff and the Class of rights and benefits under the contract i.e., a sales transaction for content the consumer intended to purchase, and not rash purchases that cannot be refunded. Had Plaintiff, his Guardian or other member of the Class known the amounts spent on purchasing, they would not have permitted the sales transaction from being consummated.
- 77. That Epic collects millions of dollars from Plaintiff and the Class, by luring their children to download bait Apps and then spend vast sums on Game Currency without parental knowledge or permission, is the quintessence of bad faith and unfair dealing with Plaintiff and the Class.
- 78. Plaintiff and the other members of the Class have suffered damages as a result of Epic's actions.

COUNT IV

NEGLIGENT MISREPRESENTATION

- 79. Plaintiff and Class Members incorporate and reallege all allegations set out in the preceding paragraphs including paragraphs 1 through 78, above.
- 80. Epic had a duty to provide honest and accurate information to its customers including minors so that the minors could make informed decisions on the in-App purchases.
- 81. Epic specifically and expressly misrepresented material facts to Plaintiff and Class Members, as discussed above by not giving notice to its non-refundable policy at the time of purchases and omitting to give summaries or reports of purchases that have already occurred for the day, week, month or year.
- 82. Epic knows, or in the exercise of reasonable diligence, should have known, that the ordinary and reasonable minor would be misled by Epic's misleading and deceptive in-App game purchases policies.

COUNT V

VIOLATION OF CALIFORNIA BUSINESS & PROFESSIONAL CODE §17200

- 84. Plaintiff and Class Members incorporate and reallege all allegations set out in the preceding paragraphs including paragraphs 1 through 83, above.
- 85. Plaintiff and Class Members have standing to pursue a cause of action against Defendant for unfair and/or unlawful business acts or practices because they have suffered an injury-in-fact and lost money due to Defendant's actions and/or omissions as set forth herein.
- 86. Defendant's conduct is unlawful under Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 et seq. ("UCL") because it is in violation of the minor's right to disaffirm contract, CLRA, breach of good faith and fair dealing, and negligent misrepresentation, as discussed above.
- 87. Defendant's conduct described herein is "unfair" under Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200 because it violates public policy and is immoral, unethical, oppressive, unscrupulous, and/or substantially injurious to consumers, and any utility of such practices is outweighed by the harm caused to consumers, including to Plaintiff, the Class, and the public. Defendant engages in unfair practices by actively advertising, marketing and promoting Apps as "free" with the intent to induce minors to purchase Game Currency in a manner likely to deceive the public.
- 88. In addition, Defendant's conduct constitutes a fraudulent business practice within the meaning of Bus. & Prof. Code § 17200, et seq., in that Defendant intentionally and knowingly omitted giving information on the amounts spent on in-app purchases. Such representations and omissions misled Plaintiff and Class members and are likely to mislead the public.
- 89. Defendant knew or should have known that its representations regarding the in-App purchases were false, deceptive, and misleading.
- 90. Defendant's wrongful conduct is ongoing and part of a pattern or generalized course of conduct repeated on thousands of occasions yearly.
- 91. Pursuant to Bus. & Prof. Code § 17203, Plaintiff seeks an injunction enjoining Defendant from continuing to engage in the conduct described above, or any other act prohibited by law.

- 92. Plaintiff also seeks rescission and an order requiring Defendant to make full restitution and to disgorge its ill-gotten gains wrongfully obtained from members of the Class as permitted by Bus. & Prof. Code § 17203.
- 93. Additionally, Plaintiff and the Class members seek an order requiring Defendant to pay attorneys' fees pursuant to Cal. Civ. Code § 1021.5.

COUNT VI

RESTITUTION OR UNJUST ENRICHMENT

- 94. Plaintiff and Class Members incorporate and reallege all allegations set out in the preceding paragraphs including paragraphs 1 through 93, above.
- 95. Through the conduct described herein, Defendant received and retained tangible benefits at the expense of Plaintiff and the Class; including money paid for Defendant's non-refundable in-App purchases of digital products and game currency.
- 96. Defendant, directly or indirectly, has received and retains information regarding its gaming microtransactions of Plaintiff and the Class. Defendant appreciates or has knowledge of said benefits.
- 97. Under principles of equity and good conscience, Defendant should not be permitted to retain the revenue it acquired through its unlawful conduct, i.e. with its non-refundable policy. All funds, revenues, and benefits Defendant has unjustly received as a result of its actions rightfully belong to Plaintiff and the Class.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated, pray for judgement against Defendant as follows:

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS-CAND 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet. The JS-CAND 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved in its original form by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the Clerk of Court to initiate the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I. a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)
- Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)."
- Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 8(a), which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.
 - (1) United States plaintiff. Jurisdiction based on 28 USC §§ 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.
 - (2) United States defendant. When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.
 - (3) Federal question. This refers to suits under 28 USC § 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.
 - Diversity of citizenship. This refers to suits under 28 USC § 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; NOTE: federal question actions take precedence over diversity
- III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS-CAND 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.
- IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerk(s) in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.
- Origin. Place an "X" in one of the six boxes.
 - (1) Original Proceedings. Cases originating in the United States district courts.
 - (2) Removed from State Court. Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 USC § 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.
 - (3) Remanded from Appellate Court. Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.
 - (4) Reinstated or Reopened. Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.
 - Transferred from Another District. For cases transferred under Title 28 USC § 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.
 - Multidistrict Litigation Transfer. Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 USC § 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.
 - (8) Multidistrict Litigation Direct File. Check this box when a multidistrict litigation case is filed in the same district as the Master MDL docket.
 - Please note that there is no Origin Code 7. Origin Code 7 was used for historical records and is no longer relevant due to changes in statute.
- VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC § 553. Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service.
- VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.
 - Demand. In this space enter the actual dollar amount being demanded or indicate other demand, such as a preliminary injunction.
 - Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.
- VIII. Related Cases. This section of the JS-CAND 44 is used to identify related pending cases, if any. If there are related pending cases, insert the docket numbers and the corresponding judge names for such cases.
- IX. Divisional Assignment. If the Nature of Suit is under Property Rights or Prisoner Petitions or the matter is a Securities Class Action, leave this section blank. For all other cases, identify the divisional venue according to Civil Local Rule 3-2: "the county in which a substantial part of the events or omissions which give rise to the claim occurred or in which a substantial part of the property that is the subject of the action is situated."

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.
