

[REDACTED] I hate these posts. Buying coins is always worth it.

1. You're helping change people's lives.
2. You're getting closer to get your loan funded
3. More chances for trivia.

The QP bonus shouldn't matter if everybody who was able to bought coin, we'd pay off loans quicker and there wouldn't be much movement in the queue. Sorry just my 2 cents.

[REDACTED] thank you for that but I think that people with limited funds may wait for the most opportune time to purchase coins. So this is just a little encouragement for those people.

[REDACTED] 1. Changing people's life is great but my family's life needs changed too. I can't buy enough coins to move my queue position very far. I can't buy coins every day like some folks seem to be able to.

2. At the rate the queue is moving for me I'll be dead before it's my turn

3. I suck at trivia and have no luck. Maybe it's just my depression talking but I see trivia, 10k, and $500 winners about to be announced and and I don't bother reading them because I know it isn't going to be me.

I live in a 50 year old trailer that leaks badly and has electrical problems. My wife stays home to take care of our two grandkids. I'm the sole provider. 51 years old and have very little in retirement savings. Sorry but I can't buy coins at the rate some of you seem to be.
