How does it work?

The cell membranes that make up most of the substance of all our cells are susceptible to oxidative damage from harmful free radicals. Cell membranes consist of double molecular layers of lipids ("lipid bilayers") that are especially prone to free radical damage via "lipid peroxidation." Free radicals are chemically reactive because they possess unstable electron patterns. Oxygen free radicals are especially reactive and are formed naturally by the mitochondria present in all our cells. As the mitochondria use oxygen to make energy from our foodstuffs, they invariably generate oxygen radicals. Our cells use antioxidant nutrients from our foods, along with antioxidant enzymes made within the cells, to scavenge free radicals and thereby prevent their causing damage. Research has shown that consuming antioxidant-rich supplements can help neutralize free radicals and other potentially toxic substances. The flavone glycosides from Ginkgo biloba leaf extracts are powerful antioxidants that may aid the body in fending off reactive free radicals.

Why take Doctor's Best Ginkgo Extract?

Doctor's Best Extra Strength Ginkgo Extract supplies premium quality Ginkgo biloba standardized extract to contain a minimum 24% flavone glycosides and 6% terpene lactones, as verified by independent laboratory analysis.

I mostly take these because I read that ginkgo was supposed to help with tinnitus. My tinnitus was driving me crazy and while this certainly hasn't gotten rid of it, it has made it a little more bearable by taking the edge off it a little. So I'm satisfied with it.

Really makes a difference ...

April 15, 2013

Size: 120 Count (Pack of 1) Verified Purchase

I was very surprised at how effective this is. As I get older, I'm finding it more difficult to focus on things, and my short-term memory seems to be "spotty." Nothing major, but enough that it's annoying, almost like a mild case of adult attention deficit disorder -- I was easily distracted, couldn't seem to finish projects, etc.

A doctor friend suggested I give this a try. I honestly wasn't expecting much. But I was pleasantly surprised. The effect was apparent within a couple of days for me. I noticed an increase in energy, and less "fragmented" focus. I could start a task and easily finish it quickly, without getting pulled into some tangential project.

After taking it for about 8 months, I decided to test and see how I would react by NOT taking it for a few weeks.

Again, I noticed the difference fairly quickly. The fuzzy thinking returned, the distraction-driven tasks

Great supplement for recovering from mold exposure

March 28, 2019

Size: 120 Count (Pack of 1) Verified Purchase

Purchased this as part of a detox protocol that i'm going on after discovering I had a mold problem in my ac ducts and underneath my laminate flooring. Using a combination of herbs including pau d' arco, oil of oregano, super vitamin c, liposomal glutathione, ashwagandha, and this ginkgo supplement to treat my body for the mold toxins, while alternating between activated charcoal and psyllium husk with bentonite clay to flush everything out my system. Definitely recommend this product.

Helps ringing in the ears for me.

August 5, 2014
Size: 120 Count (Pack of 1) Verified Purchase

I have terrible ringing in the ears and it seems this product helps. I read somewhere that Ginkgo helped and so far the ringing has noticeably decreased since I have been taking it. My doctor told me that nothing would help but this product seems to at least, decrease the volume of the horrible ringing in my ears.
