I had a bad experience with this, but you should still give it a try

February 16, 2019

Verified Purchase

I do realize that this supplement has helped almost everyone who's taken it so i dont want to discourage people from trying it. It is fantastic by most accounts.

However, when i tried it i could only take it for two weeks before i had to stop. Bacopa definetly relaxed me, but i had the side effect of pretty serious fatigue. 30 min after taking it i would feel like i had to take a nap, not ideal for someone double-majoring in math and computer science. Occasionally i would feel relaxed and focused, but that was usually the exception to the rule. I had to sleep in between classes and would almost fall asleep during classes. My motivation to do work was significantly lowered, and i fell behind in classes as a result. And perhaps the drug's greatest sin is that it can negate the effects of caffiene. No matter how much coffee i drank it would not help.

Because of these effects i decided to take Bacopa at night. And ooooo my god was it a great sleep aid, 10x better than melatonin. Problem is that the effects would linger into the late afternoon the next day, making my amazing sleep redundant.

Pure, Potent & Effective Bacopa!

December 22, 2018

Verified Purchase

I have been taking Bacopa (Brahmi) for the last 5 or so years. I have tried various brands like Himalaya, Doctor's Best, Pure Encapsulation etc. I also use CDP Choline from Double Wood supplements and love it. This time, I thought I would give Double Wood Bacopa a try and see how this one works. So I ordered it to see how it compares to my previous brands.

All I can say is that I am very pleased with the quality, strength and potency of the product. It is indeed the pure extract of Bacopa and I feel its much more effective than the others brands I have tried. Its great on its own but I combine it with Double Wood CDP-Choline on demanding days and everything gets done without any stress.

I believe my mental faculties are getting better across the board. Word recall, focus, clarity of mind and specially memory has been improving steadily. I think I will now stick with this company as long as they keep their price, quantity and quality nicely competitive!

Bacopa Monnieri has been helpful for mental clarity and calming for us.

July 20, 2018

Verified Purchase

My wife and I have both been using our Bacopa Monnieri daily for a couple weeks now and I believe it is helping to calm us. I have also experienced times of sharper focus, even though we're told not to expect enhanced mental clarity for the first few weeks. My wife and I both suffer from brain fog and fatigue from Lyme disease and from "grief-brain" since the death of our son. Supplements like this one continue to help us a great deal with the ongoing demands of life and ministry.

CHILL PILL!! GOOD STUFF!!!

June 7, 2018

Verified Purchase

Once again, Double Wood Supplements comes through as a winner!! Their Bacopa is an fantastic anxiolytic!! Its neuro-cognitive benefits should take place after 6-8 weeks, however, if you are looking to chill-out your anxiety, then this is a total winner. Combine this with Suntheanine for an outstanding easy feeling. Thank You, God-Bless, With Peace and Much Love Always, Danny

Best Memory-Enhancing Herbal

January 11, 2019

Verified Purchase

I won't say that this particular supplement is without its side effects, at least anecdotally, but I will say that I have trouble with numeric recall, concentration, and overall retention for certain details. Since taking these strategically, none of those things are an issue. Someone can read their phone number off to me, and I can recite it back to them effortlessly and get it saved to my phone or written where it needs to be - the same can be said for recalling details days, even weeks ago as if they had just occurred moments ago.

If these are things that plague you, try taking Bacopa Monnieri. And, if like me, Bacopa has the oxymoronic effect of giving you the ability to be more productive while also making you lethargic, so much so that you don't have the motivation to make use of the newfound nootropic effect of memory and recall, do what I did and start taking them at night so that you wake up with all the benefits and use the lethargy as a means of promoting deep sleep.

I love Bacopa and take it regularly

June 16, 2018

Verified Purchase

Double Wood is proving themselves as a go-to supplement company. I love Bacopa and take it regularly. Since I've had such great success with DW's other products, I decided to give them a try. I take Bacopa for improving my memory and concentration because I'm a student. It's been a wonderful help. If you are looking for results, Bacopa is a great start and Double Wood Is a great company!
