This booster is great...

January 11, 2018

Verified Purchase

I've been using this brain supplement for about month now and I really can tell a difference. My recollection is more sharp. I think this product has really allowed me to focus and concentrate for much longer periods of time. I will be buying again soon.

Wish there was a caffeine-free version

March 13, 2018

Verified Purchase

I think the caffeine in it is a little too much for me, because I also like to have coffee, so it puts me a little over my caffeine tolerance. But, there is a noticeable difference in my alertness throughout the day, I am pleased with it!

grrrreat

January 14, 2019

Verified Purchase

I ordered this as test and am pleased to say it functions well. I usually take focus factor and drink coffee, but on days when I don't have the time to make coffee the way I like it I use this in the morning instead, It's a solid boost. I mean it's not a miracle worker, but there are days I get 3 hours of sleep and have to go right back to work, and the extreme clarity really helps to fill in the gaps (obviously there is no substitute for real sleep but I prefer this to energy drinks and other methods).
