Actually works!

May 4, 2019

I was skeptical at first but this does really work. I have definitely noticed I am able to focus more on tasks and not get side tracked. Great for me considering I work in IT and am pulled in a million different directions all day. I'd say it almost gives you tunnel vision. One pill seems to last about half the day and I can notice when I'm a bit more scattered at the end. I recommend this if you need to stay on task . I haven't noticed any side effects.

So glad I found these!

April 15, 2019

I was skeptical of focus pills at first and even tried a few with no success. They seemed to either have no effect on my ability to focus or they would leave me shaky and over-caffeinated. However, I decided to try one more brand, and I'm so glad I did. These work exactly as they state!! I've never been one to leave reviews, but I trust these ingredients, and I'm really thrilled to have found something so useful in accomplishing my coursework as a grad student. I would recommend these pills to anyone looking for a natural boost of energy

Mixed Experiences

May 8, 2019

Verified Purchase

I had mixed experiences with this product. The first day I took this supplement it was super intense, but I did feel focused with no crash. Overall productive. The second day I didn't really feel much of anything. The third day, the effects were a bit delayed, but I had an insane crash afterward and had to leave work because I felt so out of it. I was hoping for more consistency with this product, but I'm a little skeptical to take it again today. As with all supplements, some work better for certain people.

A+ for the real hustlers only

April 12, 2019

Verified Purchase

I started taking this product a month ago so I could give an honest review. After about the first week I really noticed improvement in my ability to concentrate for long periods of time. Instead of having to get up from my desk and walk around every 20 to 30 minutes I was crushing 2 hours before I needed a break. But what I liked the most was that I was better in conversation after the second week. This product is great and out performed others I took that cost twice as much.

False advertising

May 16, 2019

Verified Purchase Early Reviewer Rewards (What's this?)

F'ing Focus is a startup company who writes their own fake reviews to increase purchases. There are better brands out there, don't fall for their cheap marketing strategies

Having used many of these products I would have to say this is the best. The energy and focus delivered are beyond my expectation for a product in this price range.

Have been using this for a few weeks and feel mentally clearer and more focused resulting in increased productivity. Have not experienced any nasty side effects like other nootropic supplements.
