Terrific!

July 6, 2018

Verified Purchase

I had been using Focus Factor but switched to another multivitamin. I noticed a decline in my mental acuity so I recently switched back. Sure enough. My mental acuity returned. I know. Sounds too good to be true. But it really is!

GOOD VS BAD POINTS

March 28, 2019

Verified Purchase

GOOD-after only one jar brain seems to be focusing better BAD-HUGE hard to swallow caplets. If cut in half there are 4 corners to scrape the throat when swallowing. Have never had that happen before-this is from my husband.

Diminishing returns

March 18, 2019

Product has diminishing effect that runs negative after using all of the product. So ones memory gets worse than when you had originally shortly after you stop taking the product.
