Life centers around one's happiness. Remove all external factors & one's self worth and level of satisfaction universally centers around one thing, happiness or to take it even further... dopamine!

Sure, you just got your secret crush at the gym's phone number or you got that new promotion at work, your self-worth is through the roof and you're extremely happy but when you break down the fundamental chemical process in your brain, these events simply triggered a natural boost of serotonin and ultimately more dopamine! It enables greater motivation, a better attention span more energy and just general better overall all state of wellbeing. You work harder, you're in a better mood and overall you're just a nicer person!

But what about the flip side of that.. You get dumped! Or Fired! Dopamine levels go down. You may feel defeated, unmotivated or even worse, genuinely depressed. Depression is simply a function of seriously low dopamine and if it was a choice, wouldn't you say no?

With the proper mindset, you could learn from every failure and in sequence, never actually lose. With proper management and respect for serotonin levels as they relate to anxiety and general wellness, it becomes easier to turn losses into lessons and grow through experience!

Genius Joy is the first of it's kind!

Every single ingredient is backed by research to serve a true purpose & make a lasting difference. It's an alternative to stimulant based prescriptions that doctor's pass out like candy nowadays! Get nootropic performance, stress relief and natural anxiety relief instead of turning to antidepressants and anti anxiety medications!

Be a Better You. Always.

I cant recommend this enough.

I've been taking this for a couple of months. I wanted to see how it affected me long term before writing a review. Long story short, the last ten years of my life have been a beat down, starting with the 2008 recession and a new career in 2009. I noticed more and more that I didn't want to do as much, didn't have any enjoyment of what I had in the past. I just was existing. It was like I was asleep and my life was going by and I didn't care. I began to notice that I just laid in bed and watched TV if I was home. I have a sofa and chairs in my living room that I have never sat on. Antidepressants make me bananas. They are too strong for me and the side effects are worse than the depression. I have tried many things and found my best results with SAMe and St John's Wort. I decided to try this and I have to say it has worked very well. It began with me getting out of bed and cleaning out all my old junk in my house. Then I planted a garden. I started teaching a class at work and volunteered for a week of CE classes. At some point made my bed and didn't get back into it until night. I cooked something, which is a miracle. I got rid of some dirtbag acquaintances. It was like an invigorating wind blew into my soul and blew out all the cobwebs. I feel so much better and I didn't realize how bad I felt until I didn't feel that way anymore. I haven't had any side effects. I have energy when I'm supposed to and I sleep normally. I highly recommend this to anyone who finds antidepressants overwhelming and needs help with their mood.

Shocked. It works, it really really works!

First off, this is a completely unsolicited review and I paid 60 bucks for this like everyone else! Secondly, I rarely write reviews for anything I buy on Amazon and I buy alot of stuff. I felt it necessary as this review may help some prospective buyers make decisions. A little history about me..Im an Iraq and Afghanistan veteran and currently a first responder so I've had my share of downs in life. Kind of comes with the territory. I was back and forth on this product many times. In the cart, out of the cart etc. I pulled the trigger and bought this a few days ago. I'm on day 3. I started immediately at 2 caps in the morning and 2 in the afternoon. At the end of the first day I couldn't explain it but I felt calmer and was taking things more in stride. As of today, I'm officially feeling good. I'm not doing cartwheels down the street or anything, I'm just feeling good. I'm clearly being much more present and engaged and I can see this happening with myself because I'm pretty self aware. This formulation they have going here works and I'm honestly shocked but at the same time ecstatic that I have access to this. Actually Genius, this review is going to sell you more product so you should reach out to me and give me a lifetime supply! If you don't believe folks, believe. This stuff is the real deal. It's nice not to waste my money for once. Thanks.

Seriously didn't think it would work! But, it did!

Can a silly supplement actually do anything to help with anxiety, stress, and mood? I asked myself that question and the only way to find the answer was to give it a shot and I did. Never in a million years did I think something like this would work. I'm not into supplements and I'm really not a fan of some of the gimmicks out there in the supplement world. For some reason I decided to give this one a shot and boy am I happy I did.

I have been dealing with anxiety and a lot of stress from the usual suspects, work, family, and just everyday life challenges. I can sit here writing this review and confidently say that this supplement is a life changer for me. I started taking this and even during the first day I noticed the effects. I was going through the day as normal and all of the sudden I thought to myself "wow I feel really good" and then I remembered that I took Genius Joy that morning. This really took the edge off for me and I just felt at ease with life in general. I have even taken this with GENIUS SLEEP AID - Smart Sleeping Pills & Adrenal Fatigue Supplement, Natural Stress, Anxiety & Insomnia Relief - Relaxation Enhancer and Mood Support w/ Inositol, L-Theanine & Glycine - 40 capsules at night and I've gotten amazing sleep, thats also probably

My lady loves genius joy! She had a couple months of up & down moods mainly sourced back to the stress from summer school! Genius Joy has definitely helped manage the high stress levels and has helped her mood quite a bit! I had never really seen a supplement like this but I'm familiar with the genius line and have used most of their products now.
