Love the Trial Pack Concept

April 21, 2019
Size: 7 Count Verified Purchase

It's amazing how many of the new vitamins in the market expect you to buy a huge count bottle right off the bat but Neuriva gave the option to buy a trial pack at an extremely reasonable cost. Not only was the price great but the product did fantastic too. I took it the night before (as suggested) and felt a huge improvement the next day at work from a focus perspective. Am definitely going to be buying the bigger pack!

Memory improvement

April 18, 2019
Size: 30 Count Verified Purchase Early Reviewer Rewards (What's this?)

I used for what it was advertised to do. Helping short term memory . I have only used since its arrival about 1 and a half weeks so to say I have noticed an improvement this quickly I have not. I do intend to reorder and give a fair test.

May 8, 2019

Size: 30 Count Vine Customer Review of Free Product (What's this?)

All sorts of products on the market today claim to boost energy, increase brainpower, enhance focus, etc. This Neuriva supplement did all of those things for me, yesterday, when I took it for the third time.

The first two nights, I took it at bedtime (as the bottle recommends). And as a result, I had two very restless nights' sleep -- tossed and turned, could not relax. My brain wanted to stay "on." The product says its decaffeinated, yet it contains coffee fruit extract a/k/a coffee arabica. If I even see the words "coffee" or "caffeine" after 3pm, I don't get restful sleep at night.

So yesterday, I took this at lunchtime instead (since afternoon is when typically when I hit an energy slump). Within one hour I had more energy, more concentration. Felt no need for an afternoon nap, either. I actually got a lot accomplished because of it.

So if you take this, know it can offer some nice benefits. For me, it's a daytime supplement instead a nighttime one.
