Product Description

axon

Memory recall is the process in which the brain retrieves stored memories. Axon contains ingredients which have been shown to enhance memory recall by modulating neurotransmitter and acetylcholine production.

Neurons are generated and repaired by two protein classes: Brain Derived Neurotrophic Factors (BDNF) and Nerve Growth Factors (NGF). Axon contains ingredients which have been shown to promote the production of both BDNF and NGF.

Neurons consistently incur damage due to exposure to free radicals, toxins, and  $\beta$ -amyloid plaques. Axon contains ingredients which have been shown to demonstrate anti-oxidant effects in the brain and reduce  $\beta$ -amyloid plaque accumulation.

Works really well, natural ingredients

March 2, 2018

Verified Purchase

I have been looking for a supplement to help with my memory as I feel it's not as sharp as it once was. This was my second purchase of Axon and over the several weeks I've been using it, I've noticed a shift in my mental clarity and retention of information. It's been really helpful because I rely on my memory a lot for work and staying organized in my life (as many of us do). Furthermore, I really like that all the ingredients are naturally sourced, especially the Lion's Mane and Ashwagandha. There are no side effects or stomach aches which is really nice. I would highly recommend for anyone looking for a natural mental boost.

February 20, 2018

This is an excellent product. I usually take 3 capsules 4 times a week before I go to class. I've looked at several different products and finally found Axon. This supplement has worked wonders for my cognitive performance! If you need something to help get you through the day while staying sharp, I would highly recommend giving this a try. I'm hoping this company expands to bring more supplements to their product line. You guys are great! Thanks, Nooflux! :)

Brain Function through the roof

April 21, 2019

Verified Purchase

I'm obsessed with the stack Nooflux put together. As a long time nootropics user (well, the last 4 years) I've tried a lot! So happy to have finally found something turnkey that nourishes and optimizes my brain. The dosing is perfect and in-line with clinical studies that support mental well-being and memory which is why I purchased the product in the first place. The reason I keep buying? It works perfectly for me long term. <3

I've been looking for an all-in-one nootropic pill for years, glad someone finally put one on the market. I also bought Nooflux's Flow for the full stack, works great.
