First off Awesome company I have been able to incorporate many of their supplements into my routine!

Kind of a two part review...For me the product makes a noticeable difference I like to have a little edge and work in a high stress environment I drink a cup of bullet proof coffee in the am and take this with breakfast and get to work. I feel noticeable more aware and not jittery as I used to be with other supplements I would take! Its nice to see the ingredients I am taking, had a few questions in comparison to another supplement I was taking and they answered right back gotta love that.

On the note of open ingredients my teenage son has been having many issues with concentration etc doc said best bet was adderall or another drug along with the heart meds he's already on (he's already had heart surgery 2 years ago so I worry) Sat down with his doctors and went over the ingredients and they stand offishly agreed to let him try it but guaranteed it would not make any difference. 30 days in focus is better, mood is better he's not a perfect student but he's also not miserable and struggling every day heart rate is noticeable better as well to the point his doctor actually took notice!

Best supplement I have EVER tried

April 3, 2016

Verified Purchase

I was extremely skeptical about this product at first. All those "brain boosting" pills are pretty much shams... but this... this is just wonderful! I noticed an immediate difference the first time I tried it. (I only take one pill) It clears up any grogginess and makes it much easier to focus without being totally geeked out and without a nasty comedown. It has helped me kick coffee completely without any difficulty (yayy!). Definitely a fantastic product!

Great product, very impressed with focus and energy it provides.

February 5, 2016

Verified Purchase

I started taking vintage bright for an extra boost in the morning and some extra focus throught the workday. I workout most mornings and this product makes me feel ready to attack the gym but also gave me the mental preparedness and focus I was looking for all day long. I usually take 2 capsules in the morning when I need to be on point. I never crash on this product or have negative effects. I am very happy with it and would recommend it if you are looking for something start your brain and keep it going at 100% all day long.

Love this product so far. I'm a mom of 3 kids, work full time, workout 6 days a week, cook, clean, you know never a minute to breathe.... but while taking this I feel more focused and able to stay on task. Today I had a surge of energy amd kicked butt on chores and had a great workout session.

Gets the Job Done!

February 26, 2016

Verified Purchase

A little backstory - I have a lot on my plate; I'm a single dad, a grad student, and I have a full-time job. Time and money are both precious resources to me, and efficiency is a priority. I've been taking Vintage Bright for a little over a week now (I wanted to give it some time for an honest review). I can sincerely say that I notice a difference. There are times when I absolutely have to pull my thoughts together and focus, especially for school, or after a long work day, playing with my daughter. There is a noticeable difference in my level of concentration and focus after taking this product! There are no jitters, tingly feelings, or

"spike and crash" symptoms I've read about with other products featuring similar claims. I'm very impressed!

Old School Labs has introduced another great product to the line up

February 4, 2016

Verified Purchase

I have been taking Vintage Bright for almost a month. My initial experience was an increase in mental acuity, but again, this is why we drink coffee. However, the Theanine along with caffeine have a long lasting affect, and acuity is greatly enhanced. Adding the Bacopa and Blueberry is genius, as these are both known for their brain health benefit. And the Ginseng and Ginkgo combo is always an added benefit. Once again, Old School Labs has introduced another great product to the line up.

Best supplements...

March 27, 2018

I've been ordering from this company since 2016 and I have never been disappointed. The vintage bright def makes you more focused. I am a healthcare provider and even though I prescribe western medicine I still always try to recommend natural remedies too, I feel I can trust their supplements to recommend to others because you never really know what you get in other supplements but I have tried them on myself first. I am finally reviewing their product because I feel like their spokesperson IRL so they deserve a 5 star on amazon!!
