My focus, memory and concetration really improves after 2 weeks taking FOCUS

June 13, 2018

Verified Purchase

I was interested in trying out Focus Palo Nutrition after searching for a supplement that can produce results in enhancing your memory, focus and general cognitive health. I have been all my life finding harder to focus and remember small things, so I've been looking for something that I can take to help with the problem. I went with Palo Nutrition because of the 100% Natural composition of powerful herbs, for me looks like the perfect combination. I tried the pills and after two weeks, I wasn't even thinking about it, but while out with my family they noticed that I am recalling things from memory well, and I am also really sharp in a way I've never been. I'm still taking them now this brand really impressed me, the packaging was very modern and beautiful and the effects were very fast, I'm thinking of trying Probiotic, for a better operation of the Focus, since the functioning of the intestine influences all the functions of the body including mental. I do know that I'm at the sharpest I've been in a while and it's all thanks to the supplements. I give it five stars!

Super natural

What I really loved is the fact it's natural. You naturally feel more alert and it doesn't feel weird or funny. I have tried others and had palpitations, increased heart rate. I'm very conscious with what I put in my body. This one uses all herbal ingredients like Ginkgo Biloba, Bacopa and etc. All natural. Way to go for me! Results will come naturally after a couple of weeks. Once you try it, you'll see what I'm talking about. It helped me for sure.

Not sure it gave the best results!

January 30, 2019

Verified Purchase

I feel like this product worked somewhat, but I may have expected more from it than I actually received. I took it religiously and feel as though even with a balanced diet, it still didn't provide the expected/preferred results. It did help a little but not as much as I would've hoped. Just a little bit of a boost.

CLARITY and FOCUS

January 22, 2019

Verified Purchase

I ordered this product back in November and followed it's dosage instructions to completion. I noticed a really marked difference in energy, focus, clarity, and mood. The best part of these enhancements is that it felt natural. There was no druggy or drastic body feelings you can get with some nootropic supplements. I took a month off to see if there was contrast in taking the product back into not taking it and this is really where I could feel the differences. I will definitely be continuing an on/off cycle with these as part of my supplement routine. I would highly suggest this to students and people who work in fast paced work environments who need to be quick and focused.

This WORKS....Period!!!

January 9, 2019

Verified Purchase

I woke nights at a very fast paced, constantly moving job and I have spent months trying everything from 5 hr energy shots to vitamins and nothing has worked better than these vitamins. Not only have I been doing it all wrong but I've been damaging my body trying the worst of the worst just to stay awake and alert. On my first dose, Palo Focus kept me awake, alert, clear-minded, and in a great mood all night long with no crash or the shakes. And it's all natural so for someone with a lot of medical issues, this is absolutely perfect!! TRY IT TRY IT TRY IT!!!!
