About the product

- THINK MORE CLEARLY. STAY MORE FOCUSED. REMEMBER MORE. Prolimbic 29 is a physician-formulated brain health supplement designed to support improved cognitive performance, memory, creativity and higher thinking. Perform at your highest cognitive potential when you're young and maintain your mental sharpness as you age.

Great product for working the night shift!

November 14, 2018

Verified Purchase

I don't know what BDNF levels are, but this product definitely reduces my "brain fog" which makes me more productive at work and at home. But I recommend taking it in the morning unless you like to work at night.

Ingredients and combination are good but it's not clear what it's neuro factor?? It has average effectiveness when we compare similar products it does not have any extra effect But price is high when we compare similar products If price go lower it can be good option for mental enhancement.

Thought I felt a difference at first, now I'm not sure.

When I first started using this supplement I felt sharper and more alert. As I've continued to use it this month, I feel like I'm back to normal.

Worked on the first dose, and continues to work well for me.

September 25, 2018

Prolimbic29 is now an important part of my daily supplement arsenal because it works so well. The formula was created by a physician and a lot of R&D went into the product. It contains a clinically-studied ingredient combined with 5 other ingredients (total of 6 ingredients).

I was surprised that it worked on the first dose. Within 3 hours of taking it, I felt slightly more clear and slightly "activated." The supplement continues to work well for me on a daily basis. I feel more awake throughout the day and have less brain fog.

There are not many supplements on the market that are clinically proven to raise BDNF levels, so this is of added interest to me. The coffee fruit is a really under-recognized superfood, but I believe will gain popularity and recognition soon.

I'm able to get a lot more out of my day with this supplement. My memory and clarity are definitely improved. I'm happy that this product does not contain added caffeine or stimulants like a lot of other brain health supplements out there. I highly recommend it!

I like this product. Usually I forget to put things in my car to take to people but I am remembering everything. Feel like I am more on top of things with organization.

Focus keeps me safe

November 16, 2018

Verified Purchase

I ride a motorcycle so, staying focused helps to keep me safe out on the road. Also, when working at a computing help desk I have to multitask with several screens and various departments. Mental clarity is a must to do my job efficiently. I looked at several other products, but tried this one because it is caffeine free, which is important to me - I drink enough coffee at work! :) It looks like it's time to re-order.

While I have only been on Prolimbic for about 2.5 weeks, I believe I am starting to already notice a difference in my mental sharpness. I am looking forward to continuing with this product.
