Product description

Brain & Focus Multivitamin provides complete food-based nutrition for teens and adults, with special support for brain health and memory. Each daily dose of essential nutrients—in easy-to-swallow tablets—delivers a calm and focused state of mind without stimulants, plus comprehensive coverage for the body's key health systems. You get a comprehensive B-vitamin complex, 150 mg of vitamin C, 750 IU of vitamin D3, plus minerals, organic spirulina, and whole foods, for steady energy, strong bones, relaxed mood, and a fortified immune system. The formula's brain nourishing blend of B vitamins, L-theanine, choline, inositol, plus a special Brain Support Blend of American ginseng, bacoba, ginkgo, and rhodiola, helps support mental energy, focus and memory. Many teens and adults often don't consume the daily recommended serving of fruits and vegetables. Brain & Focus Multivitamin contains 27 mg of a Vegetable Juice Extracts (equivalent to 120 mg of vegetable powder) to help fill nutritional gaps. This blend includes the nutrient-rich foods kale, spinach, dandelion greens, and beets. Brain & Focus Multivitamin is easy to digest and can be taken on an empty stomach. With plant-sourced enzymes and 75 million CFU of probiotics, this formula supports the body's natural digestive balance.

The online description sounded great but I was ultimately very disappointed with this product

May 18, 2017

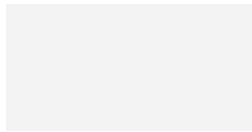

Verified Purchase

Product description says comprehensive B-vitamin complex, the B-1 is Thiamin Mononitrate in this product. Thiamin Mononitrate is a synthetic form of B-1. Excess B-1 is typically excreted from the body but this synthetic form is fat soluble which can accumulate in the liver and cause damage. (1500%DV

Far from a mini tablet! Buyer beware

July 9, 2018

Verified Purchase

The description states these are mini tablets. I bought them for my teen who has a hard time swallowing pills. As you can see from the photo, they are large in size, and these will be trashed. Very disappointed!

Great Vitamins

April 2, 2019

Verified Purchase

These tablets are the perfect size to swallow. My favorite part is that I can take up to 3 tablets a day, which allows me to adjust my intake based on my bodies reaction, I've taken one dose vitamins that make me feel sleepy. Which just means that I'm taking too much. The option to take up to 3 is great! My daily intake is two in the morning on an empty stomach which doesn't leave me nauseous or make me feel sleepy. I finally feel that I've found the right vitamins because I feel energized, focused and healthy again. I noticed that there are some reviews on the size of these vitamins. What it comes down to is that if you are not able or like the sensation of swallowing pills (not that anyone finds pleasure in swallowing a pill) then these are not for you. Look into a powder form to put in a shake or adult gummy bear, which I don't believe are the best way to get your vitamins but it's better than not taking vitamins.

Have been using these for the past year - they seem to actually work!

May 28, 2019

I am not much into supplements but these seem to actually work - you can feel the difference when you take them. It's also great that these tablets are easy to break up into two pieces if you want to take a smaller dose...

These work great for my son. Due to their price, I only give him a minimal dose, but he does seem to focus well. We also eat lots of veggies and fruit.
