Incorporated:

BBB has expressed the view that this company should obtain a license with the California Department of Business Oversight. In response Reliant Funding provided the following statement: "Reliant's view is that a license is not required for the work we currently do. However, out of a desire to expand and to be conservative, we have applied for licensing from our state."

Licensing Information:

Consumers should verify that the company is properly licensed in the state that the consumer is located.
