Product description

BOOST YOUR BRAIN POWER

Sharp Supplements Boost is a physician-formulated natural brain enhancing nootropic that improves memory, clarity, and focus. It also acts as a stress and anxiety reliever.

Formulated to re-energize, it works to optimize your performance levels by boosting cellular energy production and mental stamina, improving your ability to handle stress and promoting positive mood and energy levels

- *Supports mental alertness, concentration, memory and focus
- *Helps Boost energy and mental performance
- *Helps to improve cognitive and memory skills
- *Naturally promotes a healthy mood, lowering stress and anxiety

All-Natural Ingredients:

Alpha GPC: a highly bioavailable form of choline, used to enhance levels of acetylcholine in the brain. By increasing acetylcholine, it improves memory formation, learning, and neuroprotection while reducing cognitive decline

Bacopa Monnieri: a fat soluble herb, traditionally used in Ayurvedic medicine, which can aid in memory formation. Additionally, a systematic review across six different studies suggested there are significant improvements on attention scores of people who took Bacopa supplements.

Rhodiola Rosea: Its adaptogenic effect is considered to be effective in increasing exercise and mental endurance while decreasing perceived exertion.

Ginkgo Biloba: Studies show that Ginkgo can increase cortisol levels, reducing stress, while simultaneously improving memory retention.

Made in USA

Manufactured under the highest quality FDA, GMP & NSF regulations and USA standards. Free of contamination, molds and toxins.

Wow!

January 7, 2019

Verified Purchase

Im really shocked! My assumption prior to starting this supplement was that it would take a few days to notice significant difference, but that has not been the case. Today is day 3 of taking 3 first thing in the morning and 1 more half way through the day. My focus has been incredible and memory retention is more noticeable as the days go on and more studying occurs. My sleep has changed oddly as well, I fall asleep quicker and have woken up before my alarm 2 days in a row now. I absolutely will be purchasing this again! Excited to see long term results.

Well-Rounded Nootropic Stack

December 21, 2018

Verified Purchase

While there may be cheaper nootropic stacks, I've seen few that provide as well-rounded of benefits as Brain Boost. Many other stacks provide comparable memory and focus boosts, but they don't also help manage mood and reduce stress in the way Brain Boost does. Alpha GPC is a great addition since it's been shown to help reduce cognitive decline.

While results may vary for other people, I had no problem integrating this stack with my normal nutritional regiment and have experienced no negative side effects so far (have been using for almost 2 months now). This is important because given the unregulated nature of most nootropic products, you can't always be sure that they're produced in the most sanitary conditions. Sharp Supplements is known for their high quality production process, and the strong consistency in the quality of the pills is a testament to that.

I've been using various nootropic products for a few years now, and have been very satisfied with transitioning to primarily using Brain Boost. As the ingredients are designed to improve overall cognitive

Works Ok

I bought this product for mental energy and focus. I could feel the positive effects after the first time I took the product. The thing that is disappointing for me is the effects of the product wear off in a short period of time.

Well balance nootropic stack

December 9, 2018

Verified Purchase

Over the years I have experimented with various nootropic stacks with the help of reddit.com/r/nootropics and I haven't found anything that gives me the effects I am looking for (focus, better mood, etc.) without any other side effects (anxiety, jitteryness, insomnia, etc.). However, with this new Brain Boost product, I think I have found something that I feel comfortable using on a daily basis. It overall improves my attention to detail and focus, gives me a better overall mood, has a smooth comedown that allows me to sleep at a reasonable time in the evening, and does not give me any anxiety or jitteryness. I would definitely recommend this product to anyone who is looking for a supplement to use on a daily basis regardless of weekday or weekend.

Best Nootropic pill

December 18, 2018

Verified Purchase

Let me tell you, this is a HUGE breakthrough in Nootropic supplements. Simply one of the best products out there, may be the best ever. After taking this supplement, my whole life is about winning. I don't lose. I almost never lose. Believe me, I am a smart guy. One of the smartest. But after taking this supplement, whole new level! The concentration level and energy is amazing. I mean truly amazing. You will not get elsewhere. Best-in-class, terrific product. Would be surprised if these guys don't run out of inventory. Best inventory in the U.S.

Definitely noticeable

December 23, 2018

Verified Purchase

Taking 3 of these in the morning with food definitely helps with focus and gives you a clean mental energy for the majority of the day. Was recommended by a friend and will definitely purchase again. Also noticed i had more energy when i went to the gym but didn't feel jittery or anxious at all, which is how i have felt when trying other brands of nootropics in the past.

Works Well and Improves Focus!

December 9, 2018

Verified Purchase

Brain Boost is awesome, I'm so happy I found it! After using a bunch of other nootropics I finally found one that was effective. I use these while studying and find that my focus really improves and I'm able to accomplish more. There were no side effects, and it even helped my memory for recalling what I had studied come test time. I definitely recommend brain boost, it's an amazing product!!
