em.hening Today we received our highest weekly paycheck • ever • 🥹❤️ After hearing from our CEO's that they were giving us a 25% raise today {literally just because they wanted us to know how grateful they are for us 🥰} and seeing the dollar amount on our check I was sobbing on the couch with Travis Hening and had a hard time pulling my emotions together all day 🍷 Not because it was a huge milestone Not because it exceeded what my yearly salary was before I found this industry Not because of the dollar amount hitting our account But because I knew that if it was our highest check, so many women on my team were experiencing the same exact thing.

And that is a freaking humbling feeling.

The messages began to pour in from my girls with what their commission check would be doing for them & their families 🏠

Some of their checks ranging all the way from $1K to $25K 😲

Checks covering rent & mortgage payments

Checks paying off student loans and debt

Checks going straight into savings

Checks filling up gas tanks & grocery carts

Checks helping to pay the electric and gas bills

Checks helping some of their heads come above water

Checks putting their kids in sports and activities

Every single check making an • I M P A C T • no matter what the size

And that's what I'm here for

That's why for four years I didn't give up

That's why I walked away from my last gig when I knew my time there was no longer serving others

That's why I show up every day for my girls

That's why I scream this opportunity to the rooftops

Because it is changing these women's lives 🥹🙏 My job here on this earth is greater than any salary, any title, any career. My job here is to show women that they are worthy of finding freedom and a beautiful life. And I will walk this path until I'm old and grey as long as

So tribe, THANK YOU. For blessing me in so many ways and trusting in me to play a part in your lives. I love you all so dearly and today was one for the record books 🥹🎉 And it's pretty crazy to think that we're just getting started huh? 🙌🌟
