This will be our 7th free trip we've earned in just a little over two years, and before I joined I never paid things like this any mind because I thought there was zero way I'd ever earn them... or that they were actually free 🤪 In my last gig we used to go on trips for the company and call them "paycations" when in reality i had to foot the entire bill myself and racked up SO much credit card debt trying to keep up appearances 🙄 Sis we don't do that here 🙌 These are 100% free (I've already gotten my flight reimbursement & the stay is completely taken care of ✈️) and you only have to be at the second rank in the company to qualify for them, plus they surprised the first rank this past month and are bringing some of our newest leaders 🥹❤️ Did I mention there's three a year? 🍷
