em.hening Heading home & still in complete shock that we just earned an $140,000 Bonus ✈️ 🥹 I've spent months working behind the scenes to earn this bonus for my family. Months pouring into my team. Months showing up every single day. And what I have to say; is that I love what I do. I am able to create freedom and so many options for my family, by gifting the same exact thing to my girls. I wouldn't be earning this bonus if I hadn't have given my whole heart and soul into helping others succeed. And that's the kind of income I can get behind. I've had an inbox flooded with questions 🙋 So let's answer them ❤️ "Do you really make a multiple 6 figure income on top of this?" Yes; this is simply added onto the income we are income on top of this?" Yes; this is simply added onto the income we are already bringing in "Do you actually get paid out that much? Yes; this bonus adds $4,400 onto our checks every single week until it is fully paid out "There's no way you've earned that without messaging anyone about your business and products" False, Myself nor anyone on my team has sent a single cold message or asked anyone to buy our products since we joined this business 2 years ago. If we sign someone up it's because they have come into our inbox. We build solely using attraction marketing and personal branding 🏆 "You only earned that bonus because you're at the very top right? & because you have thousands of people on your team?" Nope 🙄 I had one of my teammates personal branding ¹⁰⁰ "You only earned that bonus because you're at the very top right? & because you have thousands of people on your team?" Nope 🙄 I had one of my teammates underneath me earn this same bonus BEFORE I did 🎉 and I have girls on my team bringing in $4K bonuses all the way up to $200K bonuses on top of their weekly incomes. Everyone can win in this business ✨ "Did you have to invest money into your business monthly to earn it?" We run our businesses for free every single month, anything you spend is completely optional. My tribe prides ourselves on being financially smart and using this opportunity in the right way. I want to create freedom for you, not make you spend money.
