jennifernadine_ pyramid schemes vs. network marketing

pyramid schemes:

- are illegal and WILL be shut down by the government
- no products/services are actually offered
- usually involves investing a large sum of money promising "guaranteed income" without having to do any work
- you will never make more than the person who signed you up network marketing:

- 100% legal
- my company has been around for 7 years, has done over 2 billion in sales,

- my company has been around for 7 years, has done over 2 billion in sales, has over 10 million customer accounts & 30 patents
- the products work
- there isn't any required investment to start your business or maintain it
- your commission check will match your efforts
- you have the ability to out earn whoever shared the company with you & there isn't a "cap" on how much you can make influencers and celebrities will give out promo codes for you to get money off their favorite products. In return, they earn commission for referring you... that's pretty much network marketing in a nutshell
